KEY WEST AND HAVANA CUBAN MISSION.

Annual Report for the Year Ending January 3d, 1894

To the Florida Annual Conference, Convening in Palatka, January 3, 1894.

DEAR BRETHREN:—I beg leave to submit the following annual report of the Havana and Key West Cuban Mission:

The conference year now closing has been one of marked progress in the history of this Mission. The little grain of mustard seed planted a few years ago, has, under the careful solicitude of the Divine husbandman, assumed the desired proportions of a great tree, beneath the shadow of which many a weary traveler finds rest and shelter from the storms of life. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ."

The almost complete cessation of business due mainly to the uncertainty prevailing in the minds of the people as to the final issue of the silver question—together with other circumstances of a local character, caused more than three thousand laborers to leave the island. Under these existing circumstances, it has been exceedingly difficult to raise all the moneys for which the mission was assessed. This, however, by God's help, has been successfully accomplished.

HAVANA MISSION.

I have visited this branch five times this year, and am glad to report the work in a most satisfactory condition. Brother Delofeu, our assistant there, has labored faithfully, and with remarkable success. The good that he and his Christian family are doing towards the evangelization of our benighted land will be fully known only in eternity. Adult missionaries to spread the glad tidings of salvation in that lonely and spiritually dark island of the sea (your next door neighbor) are exceedingly scarce. The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers are few. Yet, blessed be the name of the Lord, little children are being sent out on errands of mercy and peace to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, "being bound in affliction and iron." Little Maria, Brother Delofeu's eight-year-old daughter, may be often seen, accompanied by a little friend, visiting and praying with the sick in the immediate vicinity of our Mission headquarters. Much may be said on this line that should convince the most incredulous of the truth contained in 1 Cor. i-xxvii: "God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise," but suffice it to say that we have in our Mission boys and girls who are earnest and efficient workers for the Lord, and who, without hesitancy, will speak and pray in public when called upon to do so.

The Spirit of God is moving upon the hearts of the people, and, notwithstanding the many hindrances and obstacles in the way, souls are being happily converted, saints edified, and the cause of Christ advanced in a most wonderful manner.

The following is worthy of notice: Our Baptist brethren are giving medical attention and furnishing their members and friends with dental work and a hospital where surgical operations are performed, all free of charge. Entertainments are often had where presents are distributed to the children of the mission. In addition to all these attractions, they have lately purchased a magnificent building at a cost of about $40,000. Now, with all these odds against us, to say nothing of the natural and deeply seated prejudice existing to an inconceivable degree in the public mind against a religious movement which, like that of our Church, requires and demands a holy life and an unconditional surrender to the Lord Jesus Christ—with all these odds against us, I ask, is it not an evident fact, inasmuch as the work continues to grow and rapidly develop, that the Spirit of God is with us of a truth? In our poverty "we are making many rich, and as having nothing, we are yet possessors of all things." To Him be all the glory!

About the middle of the year, a woman's and a juvenile society were organized under very favorable circumstances, both of which are doing remarkably well. A special collection was raised by the children of the Church to help pay the missionary debt, amounting to $7.25. Most of this money was earned in various ways by the poor children of the mission. One of these came into the schoolroom one day, his clothes wet, and on being asked to explain, said he had been hauling water for a lady and had earned a dime, which he, then placed, with a happy face, in the hands of the teacher.

Havana has paid in full their part of the assessment, this being one half of the whole. A noble act of the Havana Church should be noticed here. During the several months that hundreds of families were almost perishing in Key West, owing to the stagnation of business before alluded to, our members there, though poor themselves, obtained by earnest effort, a contribution from the public of about $1,500 for the relief of the poor and destitute.

Our day schools are as prosperous as could be reasonably expected under the circumstances. The grant for the support of the three teachers (only $60), is not sufficient. After much prayer and due consideration of the matter, I am convinced that unless the appropriations be increased to $150 per month these schools should be at once closed, and a girl's school opened, offering such advantages as will give credit and prestige to our church in that city. This plan could be easily carried out even with the limited amount now at our disposal, but for the lack of an American lady teacher to take charge as a superintendent. When such a teacher is secured, we will be in a position at once to open a school with two other teachers, paying the superintendent a salary of $50 per month and proportionate amounts to her assistants. Let us pray and trust the Lord to supply this great need in the near future.

During the year a worthy member of our Church, and a teacher of the boys' schools, passed away in peace. He was a noble man, a good Christian, and an earnest worker. The spirituality of the Church is on the up-grade. The meetings have, almost without exception, been seasons of sweet communion and rejoicing in the Lord.

Many speak and pray in public; among these are little boys and girls, some only eight years old, Both the Sunday services and the social meetings are well attended. The Lord's Supper, Love Feast, Church Conference and the collections are not neglected. These are all enjoyed, and have proved means of grace to our members.

THE KEY WEST MISSION.

This Church has prospered greatly. No pains have been spared by the missionary in charge and his helpers to promote its interests and general welfare. Here we have no Mission school, and within an appropriation of $435 it is a marvel that the work should be in as prosperous a condition as it is. Surely the Cuban Mission is of God. His power alone sustains it and causes it to prosper and develop. Notwithstanding the many obstacles and perplexing embarrassments surrounding it, the Holy Spirit seems to lead us on from one degree of success to another. Our hearts are cheered with the hope of a general and glorious revival of religion that will spread and widen until the whole Island of Cuba shall fall prostrate at the feet of Jesus, who is King of kings, and Lord of lords!

We have granted license to exhort to Bro. Eladio Diaz, whose faith and good works have endeared him to us all. He is called to preach and will apply for proper license some time during the present year. Another young man, Miguel Soto, about twenty-three years of age, feels also called of God to preach the gospel to his countrymen, and, when better prepared, will be duly licensed as the discipline directs.

As to the building of our Cuban church in Key West, I will state that unfortunately the work has been delayed for two reasons: 1st, The cessation of business in this city lasting about one half of the year, made any local effort to raise funds impossible. 2nd, We have failed as yet to sell the forty acres of land donated by Rev. W. Wine to the Cuban mission, without the proceeds of which the building committee do not feel justified in commencing the erection of the edifice.

It is with a profound feeling of gratitude to Almighty God that we report to this Conference a great and noble enterprise now engaging the attention of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society. To these faithful and consecrated ladies the credit is justly due for having undertaken what your missionary and others who are acquainted with all the surroundings and circumstances peculiar to this field, consider the most important work ever accomplished in the past history of the Cuban mission. Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Swain, president and corresponding secretary respectively of our Conference Society; Mrs. M. A. Wolff and Miss Lucinda Helm, both of the St. Louis Conference society, these and other zealous and faithful ladies of Southern Methodism have, under the blessing of God, given such impetus to the Cuban mission as will tell, without a doubt, in the solidity and permanency of the movement through all the coming years of its existence. A few weeks ago a petition to the General Board for a loan of $600 and a donation of $300 for the purpose of purchasing a lot and building a parsonage for the Cuban mission in Key West, was granted, and the money forwarded at once to Dr. C. F. Kemp, trustee. The lot, located at a distance of about 150 feet from the chapel, is now the lawful property of the M. E. Church, South, the deeds having been duly recorded in the records of Monroe county. A strong and vigorous effort is being made by our Conference Society to secure as early as practicable the sum of one thousand dollars, with which to build a parsonage, as per plan No. 22 in the catalogue issued by our Church Extension Board. A formal petition to this effect has been made, and we have every reason to believe that the amount asked will be granted and the work completed before the end of the present conference year.

At the earnest request of your missionary the founding of a mission school in Key West by the Woman's Missionary Society was brought to the attention of the Woman's Board at their last annual meeting. Bishop Fitzgerald, Mrs. L. T. Phillips, Mrs. M. A. Wolff and others did all they possibly could to enlist the interest of the board in behalf of the movement. They succeeded in this, but the yellow fever question having been introduced by some misinformed person, the motion was lost by one vote, and the twenty-five thousand dollars asked for was appropriated to the mission in Brazil. Since then I have secured official reports to show that the healthfulness of our climate compares favorably with that of any place, and that Key West is as much exempt from yellow fever epidemics as any other city in the South. These reports, with other valuable information on the subject, we are ready to furnish to anyone who may desire it. The need is urgent. The opportunity is inviting. With suitable buildings and proper equipment it would be self-supporting almost from the very start.

A more hopeful field can be found nowhere else. I earnestly trust the wise and godly managers of the Woman's Board of Missions, or of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society, may see their way clear to take hold of this work.

Our church in Key West, like that in Havana, did all that was possible for the sufferers, raising about $400 in addition to $39.25 contributed exclusively by the members for the poor during the early part of the year.

Besides all other collections, we have made a special donation of ten dollars to the Church Extension Fund.

This report being already too lengthy, we omit the names of contributors to the building fund. The amount received during the year for this object is $137.37. This added to the amount on hand from last year makes a total on hand for church building of $2,178.25.

To all the contributors and friends of the Cuban mission we offer our grateful thanks for their co-operation and most valuable help. To Rev. R. H. Barnett, our conference colporteur, we are likewise indebted for a donation of 100 Sunday-school quarterlies in Spanish, for the use of our schools. We have received a donation of $10 from the Conference Sunday-school Board, which has been expended for Sunday-school supplies.

Respectfully submitted,

H. B. SOMEILLAN, P. C.

PAINE & LANE INSTITUTE.

Your committee to whom was referred the matter of Payne & Lane Institute feel that in the consideration of this work among the colored people of our Southland our church is confronted with a question of vast import; one before which we fear that as a church and as a people we do not stand, as we should, in the attitude of prayerful investigation determined to push it to its last analysis and know what of duty, obligation and privilege it represents and presses upon us as servants of God, nor what of fearful responsibility to us and ours should we fail to properly adjust ourselves to those duties, obligations and privileges. In God's providence this people is in our midst. They touch us in every relation of life, and we touch them. Shall that touch be a life-imparting power, or shall it carry to them the chill of death?

God has indicated very clearly that here is the training school from which in his providence are to go forth the forces equipped for the evangelization of the dark continent. The same providence has called the whites of the South to be God's teachers to train, develop and equip those forces for that work. Parents in selecting schools and colleges for their sons and daughters make often sad mistakes. Has God made a mistake in selecting the South as the university, and Southern people as his professors to train these his children? We call, as God calls, upon the ministers and members of our Methodist Episcopal Church South to answer her part of the question, as answer they must, at the judgment bar of God.

Payne & Lane Institute is but a soft, faint whisper in response. We are glad that it is not a dead silence. But oh, for such an answer from the great heart of our people as will echo and reverberate all through our land, and roll on till God shall say "Well done."

We offer the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1st, That we accept the amount, $200.00, asked of our Conference for Payne & Lane Institute, and ask that the joint Board of Finance of our Conference be placed in charge of the work of apportioning the same among the P. E. Districts, and that the treasurer of said Board be also treasurer of this fund.

2nd, That the report of the President of Payne & Lane Institute be published with this report in the minutes of our Conference for the information of our people.

3rd, That we rejoice at what has been done by our church in and through this institution of learning and we earnestly pray God's blessing upon its president and faculty in their work and labor of love, and pledge them our constant and hearty co-operation in the same.

T. BISHOP,
C. A. SAUNDERS, } Committee.
J. L. RAST,

Resolved, That we are glad to have Dr. Candler with us in the interest of Christian Education, and hereby heartily invite him to attend the sessions of our Conference as often as possible.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee rejoice in the increase and continued prosperity of the American Bible Society. Its influence, agencies and work are being known and felt, at home and abroad. Hundreds of brave, active, sacrificing men are employed in home and foreign fields, carrying this precious light into the darkness and homes of fallen humanity. Three or four hundred men are in the foreign fields, giving the precious truth to the benighted millions, in a hundred different languages. These are employed and paid by this society to go and do this work. What a wonderful work is being done for the glory of God and the salvation of men by this institution. We shall be indifferent to this great cause only when we shall lose sight of its object, the needs of humanity, and the work being accomplished by it. Who can be indifferent to the Bible Cause, when he remembers that the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Your committee believe that if there ever was a time when every field was being sown down with trashy, injurious reading matter, that time is now. If ever there was a time when the world was pressing its poisoned literature upon the minds of the people, that time is the present. Are not the children of the world wiser along these lines than the children of light? The wicked world is not only trying to sell its books, but using every resource to have them read. We doubt if pastors, Christian fathers and mothers have done all they could, in the matter of getting the children and young people to read and study the word of life. In view of the great work being done by the American Bible Society:

Resolved, 1st, That we will stand by it and give it our support.

Resolved, 2nd, That we will urge fathers and mothers to secure a Bible for each member of the family.

Resolved, 3rd, That we will make special effort this year to supply all the destitute with the word of life.

Resolved, 4th, That the Florida Conference memorialize the approaching General Conference to recommend an annual collection from all our pastoral charges for the benefit of the American Bible Society.

J. F. SHANDS,
Chairman.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

DEAR BRETHREN—We, your Committee on District Conference Records, respectfully report: We have had all the District Conference records before us, and they have been carefully examined. We find them all properly kept and in due form, except that the Live Oak District record lacks a complete roll of its members. We would mention the superior excellence of Tallahassee and Tampa District Conference records. We also recommend that the records be kept in a large, well bound book.

Respectfully submitted,
F. PIXTON, Chairman.

F. A. TAYLOR, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance submit the following: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" is one of the commandments contained in the decalogue. It is the only distinguishing feature between Christian and heathen countries which are civilized. Without its observance very few would attend our churches, and that would finally result in infidelity and gross spiritual darkness. For faith comes by hearing. Your committee feels profoundly thankful to God that He, by His Holy Spirit, has set the Sabbath question so prominently before the Christian world in the matter of our late Columbian Exposition, and for the signal victory which has been there won over money worship. "But there remains yet much land to be possessed." Sabbath desecration largely prevails in high as well as in low places. The sin rests upon our government as well as in individuals. The prayer of your committee is, that all railroads, steamboats, printing presses, ice factories, and, in short, all manner of secular work, as far as possible, shall cease on God's holy day. We are aware of the fact that many of our secular newspapers are in league with the powers of darkness in an effort to put an end to Sabbath observance. They create all manner of antagonisms along this line. Your committee is of the opinion that the two greatest evils with which we now have to contend with are Sunday newspapers and Sunday excursions. We here, in this connection, denounce the conduct of those preachers who use railroads and steamboats on Sunday to reach their appointments. "Let us not do evil that good may come." Your committee takes pleasure in recognizing Rev. S. C. Faris, D. D., secretary in Florida of the American Sabbath Union, for this society is working great results for God's cause all over our country. We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, as a Church, lay stress more than ever on Sabbath observance, and that our preachers will, both by precept and example, continue to hold up this feature of our holy religion.

Resolved, That we deem it to be the duty of the Church of Christ to unite and make common causes in using all Scriptual means for the preservation of our American Sabbath as against the Continental Sunday.

Resolved, That this Conference appoint a committee of those who may unite with brethren of other denominations who are engaged in bringing about a union in the Sabbath cause in the State of Florida.

JOHN E. PENNEY, Chairman.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee has been fully impressed with the importance of the subject submitted to their consideration, and only wish that we could suggest something practical to assist in the overthrow of the monster evil of intemperance. The evil seems more widespread to-day than ever. The amount annually expended in our nation upon intoxicants exceeds the enormous sum of a billion of dollars. The number of saloons in operation at present is nearly 250,000, and the number of persons engaged in the manufacture and sale of liquors cannot be less than a million. We would not positively affirm, that no possible good, results from the labor of so many people; but we can uhesitatingly declare that fully three-fourths of the evils that afflict our race are directly traceable to the business in which they are engaged. All along its track we witness the results in ruined homes, in divided and wretched families, in physical wrecks, in blasted characters, in wasted resources, in broken hearts, in premature deaths, in orphanage, in poverty, murder, in moral, spiritual and eternal ruin. No language at our command is sufficiently strong to describe the terrible tide of woe that is sweeping through our land, following the train of this diabolical business. Broken-hearted wives and mothers, and orphaned children send up to heaven their piteous wail of misery, and cry how long, O Lord, how long?

As pastors, we are made to feel, that this is one of the most desperate and wiley foes that we have to contend with in our work of rescuing the lost. The saloons and social customs frequently frustrate our most strenuous efforts to save the young men of our congregation.

Efforts have again and again been made by temperance organizations and by legislative assemblies to restrict the business that is the root of all this evil, and in some sections to prohibit it altogether. Only limited success has attended these efforts. As a church we are fully convinced that "license, high or low is vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy." That the business "cannot be licensed without sin." "We stand up squarely before the world for the complete suppression of the liquor traffic." In theory at least, we are a prohibition church. But when the question comes, how to extend prohibition to State and Nation, we seem hopelessly divided. We are persuaded that if the prohibition sentiment of this State could be crystalized into united action, it would be sufficiently strong to sweep this terrible evil from our fair country.

As a church we have an immense responsibility in connection with this work. We are bound by our traditional policy of uncompromising opposition of everything that is ruinous to man and dishonorary to God, to give no quarter to this evil. It is so ruinous, so demoralizing, so God-defying, so devilish, so damning, that we cannot afford to have any complicity with it. Personally, we heed the admonition, "Touch not, taste not, handle not." As Methodist Christians we are fully abreast of the age in our efforts to educate public sentiment in favor of total abstinence and prohibition. But as American citizens we hold in our hand, still unused, the only weapon that must give the fatal and final blow to the liquor traffic, that is, the ballot. Resolutions will not do it. Temperance organizations will not do it,. Sermons and lectures will not do it. All of these will render assistance to reach the great consummation.

But when we are willing to put God, and church, and home, and souls above all party politics, and vote only for those men who will give us prohibition laws with prohibition officers to enforce them, then, and not till then, will we see the bright day of deliverance from the whisky business, dawn upon us.

Your committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions for your adoption:

1. That we hereby ratify and confirm our former deliverances on the subject of temperance, and declare ourselves in favor, not only of the suppression of the liquor traffic, but of its complete extermination.

2. That, while we would not dictate to any man as to his duty as to his political affiliations, we declare our purpose not to support any man for public office who is opposed to the principles of our Church on the question of prohibition.

3. That we warn our people against the manufacture of domestic wines and their use as a beverage in their families and at social gatherings, as being a pernicious custom, fraught with elements of danger, especially to our young people.

4. That we call the attention of our people to the fact, that the signing of petitions for license to sell liquors is contrary to the letter and spirit of the law of our Church, and that those who are guilty of this offense ar liable to expulsion.

5. That, as preachers, we will deliver at least one sermon during the year at all of our appointments, on the subject of total abstinence and prohibition, and that we will present the subject more frequently in our weekly prayer-meetings.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

The literature furnished by our publishing house compares with the best in mechanical excellence. We are glad that while it is cheap in price it is not of cheap quality.

Our Board has aided 23 schools during the past year. We would have done more had the means been furnished us. Our reports show that there are in the bounds of our Conference 277 schools; 1,731 officers and teachers; 11,949 scholars; $147.54 have been collected from the observance of Children's Day.

We urge the observance of Children's Day in all our charges, and in this connection we call the attention of our Conference to the following extract from the report of Dr. Cunnyngham, Sunday-school editor of our church:

"The receipts from the Children's Day collections in 1893 were not as large as the year preceding. This, I take it, was not due to neglect of the day or to smaller collections in the schools, but to a misapprehension of the right of control of the collections after they were taken. In some cases these collections were applied to the missionary assessments on the congregations, and were so reported. This is an error that should be corrected. The General Sunday-school Committee can ill afford to surrender its claim upon its part of any of these collections, as its ten per cent. of them is wholly inadequate to meet the demands of our mission schools for aid. The Treasurer's report to the annual meeting of the committee showed that its appropriations to one hundred and seventy-six of our home mission schools in the fiscal year ending May 1, 1893, amounted to $1,367.35, and to foreign missions, $1,000. He had then $1,038.74 on hand, $1,000 of which was appropriated at that meeting to foreign missions, leaving the balance to be carried over to this year $38.74. We have in foreign missions more than fifteen thousand Sunday-school scholars who look to us for whatever of literature can be used in their instruction in the Christian religion, whether our language or their own be used. The Senior Quarterly is translated into Spanish for our schools in Mexico, and Dr. Carlisle's "Practical Applications" of the Sunday-school lessons as published in the Magazine are likewise translated and republished in El Evangelista Mexicano. These publications meet an important want in the Sunday-schools of that country, not only in our missions, but also in the schools of other Protestant Churches."

A memorial to be presented to the General Conference from the Missouri Methodist Assembly has been submitted to this Board as follows:

"MEMORIAL.

"1. That a Parent Sunday-school Board be created, to take the place of the General Conference Sunday-school Committee.

"2. That the Parent Sunday-school Board be directed to prepare a course of reading and study for Sunday-school teachers and older Sunday-school scholars.

"3. That paragraph No. 245, page 142, of the discipline, be so amended as to allow each annual Conference, on the recommendation of the Conference Sunday-school Board, to turn over to the Parent Sunday-school Board any money collected on Children's Day that cannot be used to advantage in the bounds of the said Conference; such money to be used by the Parent Board for the publication of Sunday-school literature for our foreign work."

We heartily concur in the above paper, and ask its adoption, as it leaves to the discretion of each Conference Sunday-school Board the use of the 10 per cent. of the total collections so long as necessity exists for using such collections.

Respectfully,

R. L. HONIKER, Chairman.

The trustees of the Preachers' Relief Fund of the Florida Conference received from the Treasurer $56.52 of collected interest. This amount was distributed equally to Brethren E. L. T. Blake and Sam'l Woodbery.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education has carefully considered the reports of the presidents of four of our educational institutions, viz.: Emory College, Oxford, Ga.; Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga.; Paine Institute, Augusta, Ga.; and Florida Conference College, Leesburg, Fla.

We rejoice in the almost unparalleled work in the cause of Christian education wrought by the Wesleyan Female College during the fifty-six years of her glorious history. All over our Southern country her daughters are unfolding the sacred significance of motherhood, wifehood and sisterhood.

Many homes should have been poor indeed without the salutary and Christian influences of this great institution. We appreciate sincerely the many favors shown by her to the daughters of many Methodist preachers, in aiding them in securing a Christian education.

We most heartily commend Wesleyan Female College as in every way worthy of the patronage of our people in Florida.

Emory College in her patronage stands at the head of all the male colleges in the State of Georgia, and we believe this is true in all other essential respects. Two hundred and seventy-six students were enrolled for the year 1892-3.

The report of the visiting committee states that Emory College cheerfully extends gracious help to certain classes of students. Free tuition was given last year to fifty-two sons of preachers and fifty-seven notes from other boys who could not pay the money, were taken, amounting to $1,725.00. The collection of these notes will never be pressed. We believe the future has in store for this great and worthy institution of learning, gifts and helps for men and benedictions divine that shall cause her to triumph gloriously, eclipsing all her past achievements. Send your boys, if you send them out of the State, to Emory College.

We are gratified by the good work that is being done by Paine Institute. As a Conference we will help on this cause by our money and prayers.

The Florida Conference College, under the presidency of Rev. W. F. Melton, has done well under the embarrassing circumstances surrounding it. We are glad to know that most of these circumstances are things of the past.

President Melton has an able faculty of seven assisting him in his work. This young institution is doing much for Florida Methodism, and therefore deserves our highest support. The college gives free tuition to thirteen children of our preachers, and to seven young men studying for the ministry.

We therefore recommend that the sum of $2,000 be assessed upon the Conference for education in the ratio of the distribution of the Domestic Mission collections—25 per cent. of the amount so collected to be placed in the hands of the Board of Education of young men studying for the ministry, and the balance of the amount raised to be turned over to the Trustees of the Florida Conference College.

We further recommend the appointment of Rev. W. F. Melton as President of the Florida Conference College, and Rev. Homer Bush and Rev. H. F. Harris professors, and Rev. F. Pasco to Duval High School.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Since the organization of Church Extension as a permanent department in the M. E. Church, South, in 1882, the General Board has donated to twenty-three churches in the Florida Conference, $12,-290; loaned to sixteen churches, $16,650, amounting to $28,940. During the same time the Florida Conference Board has assisted by loans, and principally by donations, to sixty churches, amounting to $3,956. The whole amount distributed throughout the Florida Conference by Church Extension, $32,896, in building, repairing and securing churches; also relieving others of debt. These figures are encouraging; they demonstrate the popularity of this claim, and are an inspiration to greater zeal in securing the collections. FLORIDA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD.

MINUTES.

The Florida Conference Brotherhood met in the church at Palatka, Fla., January 4, 1894, at 4 p. m., D. A. Cole, president, in the chair, and was opened by devotional exercises by J. M. Pike.

The roll was called and seven members answered to their names.

Minutes of last meeting read and the following correction was made: The name of the "Barnett Fund" was changed to the "Hampton Fund," for the reason that nearly all the money left by T. R. Barnett, had been expended by the request of his son, R. H. Barnett, in purchasing a tombstone for the graves of T. R. Barnett and wife. With this correction the minutes were approved.

The secretary read his annual report.

The annual report of the treasurer was read.

It was ordered that the Conference be requested to set apart Thursday evening of each annual session for a brotherhood anniversary meeting.

T. M. Strickland, I. S. Patterson, T. S. Hubert were appointed to canvass the conference for members.

The Executive Committee was instructed to provide some one to represent the Brotherhood to each District Conference during the year. After further discussion this action was reconsidered.

On motion the secretary was ordered to request the presiding elders to present the claims of the Florida Conference Brotherhood to their respective District Conferences during the year.

The Treasurer of the "Hampton Fund" was instructed to use his discretion in paying the widow of the late A. A. Barnett her dues from said fund.

The secretary read his incidental expense account for 1893 as follows:

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

To the Bishop and Brethren of the Florida Annual Conference:

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals report as follows:

1. The Publishing House, according to the report of our agents, has done a good business, in the face of the financial depression through which we have been passing. Having had an increase in the business of the house, we have a larger cash balance on hand than we had at the close of the preceding year. With an easier state in the money market, and universal patronage on the part of the Church, we certainly could make for ourselves a record of which we might lawfully boast.

2. The Christian Advocate is still holding its own, both in a literary and financial sense. Being edited with ability and increasing steadily, though slowly, in circulation, it still maintains its proud position and its power among men. We regret to say, however, that if our present patronage of the paper is the measure of our appreciation, we certainly are not putting a very high estimate upon it. Where else can be found more reading matter, both in the number of pages and the amount to the square inch, than in the Christian Advocate? And yet its circulation is far, far short of what it should be. While it is our proud privilege to have a Conference organ and press its interests, yet it is to be feared that we allow an abatement of our zeal for the connectional organ to follow our zeal for the "pet of home." Let us be more faithful to the interests of the Advocate, and help prove to the world that we have in it one of the best papers published.

3. The Review is still reported as a tax on the business of our house. This we feel to be a shame, for which there is no reasonable excuse. Although our Church is abreast in bearing the message of salvation to the poor and illiterate, yet she is also abreast in learning, mental culture and literary taste; and thousands of our people are boasting of their search after the cream of thought. The Century, the Forum and the Review of Reviews are often quoted with a show of pride; but, to our shame, the Quarterly Review—the matured thought of mature men, and the cream of religious literature—is still a tax on the business of the great publishing house of the M. E. Church, South! The time has come when this reproach should be wiped out. If we propose great things let us do them. Let us give the Review our patronage, and bear with us the rich mental and spiritual food with which it is freighted every quarter.

4. The Florida Christian Advocate has been with us long enough to prove the need of a Conference organ. With almost consuming zeal its editor has stood at his appointed post, and week by week has transmitted to us the news from the field of battle, and inspired us to deeds of valor. We rejoice at the good it has done in the past, and hope that these first years may be a preparation for a brighter future, which we trust is now dawning upon us. We pray God to direct the Special Committee on the publication of the Advocate, and trust that such steps may be taken as will enlist the hearty support of the entire Conference.

5. The report of our Conference Colporteur, Rev. R. A. Barnett, shows that he has pushed his work with the most commendable zeal and efficiency; and we recommend his reappointment.

I. RYDER, Chairman.

Memoirs.

M. A. MARSHALL.

Mrs. M. A. Marshall, wife of Rev. J. F. Marshall, was born in Louisiana and died in Leesburg, Fla., in July, 1893. She consecrated her life to God and connected herself with the church in early youth. In her religious experience she was undemonstrative, but she possessed a peace which was deep and abiding. Having no children of her own, she gratified the promptings of her motherly heart by taking, at different times, six little orphaned babes, and nurtured and educated them as her own. For years she was in the furnace of affliction, and finally came forth purified as gold. A short time before her death, visions of her heavenly home so enraptured her spirit that her countenance was bright with a radiance of glory. In her was fulfilled the Master's promise, "If a man keep my words, he shall never see death."

ANNIE E. RICHARDSON.

Annie E. Richardson was born in Sumter, S. C., September 30, 1842, was married to Rev. W. S. Richardson, January 21st, 1858, and died at Anthony, Florida, on Sunday, October 8th, 1893. Born and nurtured in the very lap of piety, she from early childhood manifested a religious disposition. In her youth she connected herself with the Church and maintained her Christian integrity unspotted to the end. Walking steadily up to the light she had, in the year 1880, she made an unreserved consecration of her whole being to God and realized that "perfect love which casteth out fear." Her zeal for the Master's cause was deepened from that hour, and she lived, and prayed, and labored for souls. She was interested in everything that pertained to Zion's prosperity and was always actively engaged in earnest work for this end. She was an officer in the Woman's Missionary Society and spent much time in traveling and organizing auxiliaries at different points. She was an earnest worker in the Woman' Christian Temperance Union. Her last service for the Lord on earth was visiting, and talking and praying with the sick. Her end was like the setting of a summer's sun, calm and peaceful.

REV. CARMINE S. BIRD.

Carmine S. Bird was born in Franklin, N. C., August 19, 1846, and died at Cocoanut Grove, Fla., September 14, 1893. He belonged to a loyal Methodist family. A grandfather and several uncles were Methodist preachers, and an older brother is at present a superannuated member of the Holston Conference. After working for awhile as an exhorter, he was licensed to preach when about eighteen years old. He entered Hiawassee College, but on account of poor health was forced to leave during the senior year. Two years were devoted to teaching in the Peabody school at Franklin, N. C. He joined the Holston Conference and was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh, October 27, 1878, and two years later Bishop McTyeire ordained him to the office of elder. He was married December 30, 1884, to Miss Mollie Piercey of Raney county, N. C., and the union was a happy one till God took his servant home.

Brother Bird was transferred to the Florida Conference in October, 1885, and for years did faithful service. He served Jasper, Welborn and Madison circuits, and also Titusville mission, and at all of these places God blessed his labors. He was a most agreeable companion, a man of cheerful disposition, and a devoted Christian. At the Conference of January, 1892, he asked for a supernumerary relation, hoping that after a year or two he might be able to return to his loved employ. At Cocoanut Grove, where he spent his last days, he labored as he had strength to build up the church. After October, 1892, he was unable to preach, but continued to work in the Sunday-school until March of the present year. For six months he was almost helpless and dependent upon the constant care of his faithful wife.

During his long illness the Lord blessed him with the abiding witness of the Spirit. When the physician said he could not recover, he said he was ready to go, though he would like to live longer to work for Christ. About three weeks before he died there came such a baptism of the Spirit upon him that he rejoiced aloud. He talked of heaven and the love of Jesus, and prayed for the church. He was conscious to the last, and just before he departed, sent a message to his brethren, then peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

REV. ANDERSON PEELER, M. D.

Anderson Peeler was ordained elder at the annual Conference held in Tallahassee in 1845. He did effective work for ten years, and then, in consequence of severe throat affection, he was obliged to locate. Having studied, adopting the eclectic system, he became a successful practitioner, and at the same time he continued to preach in the local ranks whenever opportunity presented itself. He was readmitted to the Conference at Live Oak in 1874, and labored on the Newnansville, Micanopy, Apopka, La Villa, Orlando and other fields, and for two years was Presiding Elder of the Live Oak District. He was superannuated in 1886.

Brother Peeler was well versed in the doctrines and polity of Methodism, and was one of the strongest doctrinal preachers of the Conference. Those who heard him often, and were capable of judging, regarded him as an able and excellent preacher. He was, perhaps, the oldest member of our Conference, tall, erect, with placid features, clear, penetrating eyes, hair as white as snow, voice pleasing, manner graceful and of dignified demeanor—he was the most prominent figure in our assemblies.

Some weeks previous to his death he had fallen while on his way from church, and his thigh bone was fractured. This gave him severe pain, and, being old and weak, his strength gave way and he gradually sank under his infirmities and sufferings. He closed his earthly life, with expressions of full submission to God, on Sunday, March 26, 1893, in Lake City, Fla.

VENNA DUKES.

Venna Dukes was born at St. Georges, S. C., August 29, 1867, was married to Rev. M. F. Dukes in December, 1888, and died at Juno, Fla., August 23, 1893. She united with the church in early life and was an active and faithful member until called to her reward. She suffered for some years from ill health, and was unable to accomplish all that her heart desired; but the silent yet gracious influences of her devoted life were continually doing good to those around her. Her husband was constantly cheered in his work by her sympathy and counsel, and his hands were held up by her ministry of intercession.

Her sun went down when it seemed to be only noon, but it is only to shine brighter in the perfect day.

MARTHA DURANT HOWREN.

Martha Durant Howren was born in Horce District, South Carolina, January 13, 1821; was married to Rev. Robert H. Howren at Georgetown, S. C., on May 16, 1835, and died at the Methodist parsonage at Midway, Fla., March 10, 1893.

Sister Howren joined the M. E. Church when but a child, and was converted at a camp meeting a few years later. She joined her husband in his journey to the wilds of Florida, and their names are sacredly registered as a part of the heroic band of pioneers in Florida Methodism.

She was the mother of seven children. Two sons were laid upon the altar of their country and died during the civil war. Another, a brilliant and promising young man, died in Charleston, S. C., two years ago. One daughter is the wife of one of the honored members of the Florida Conference.

Sister Howren was of French extraction. Her father was repeatedly elected to the Senate. She was educated and refined, charming and entertaining in conversation, and was everywhere a favorite, especially with the young. Her piety was deep, intelligent and progressive. When the summons came the faithful wife, the loving mother, the devoted Christian, responded to the call and was translated to a higher sphere.

SOPHIA M. HOWLAND.

Sophia M. Howland was born in Gadsden county, Florida, November 20, 1866, and died at Cedar Keys, July 23, 1893. She was the daughter of A. J. Stokes. In her school life she gave evidence of rare intellectual powers, and decided to secure the best possible preparation for the work of teaching. After finishing the common school course she laid plans for pursuing a university course of study. In the meantime she was happily converted to God under the ministry of Rev. A. A. Barnett, and united with the Church. A few months later she was united in marriage to James A. Howland, and largely through her influence and encouragement her husband was induced to obey the call of God to enter the Christian ministry. From this time till her death she shared with him the responsibilities and privations of the itinerant's work. She was a Christian of the purest type—tried in the furnace of affliction. She lived in the sunshine of heaven's smile, and when death opened the door she simply passed through to be forever with the Lord.

ANDREW ALEXANDER BARNETT.

Andrew Alexander Barnett, son of J. S. and Amanda Barnett was born July 31, 1855 in Madison County, Florida; joined the church when eleven years old, and was converted the same year. He felt the call to preach the gospel at the time of his conversion. He was licensed to preach in Blackshear, Ga., and soon thereafter joined the Florida Annual Conference at the session held in Jacksonville during 1874. He was appointed junior preacher to the Gadsden and Liberty Circuit. He served the Indian River Mission during the years 1875 and 1876, Orange Circuit 1877 and 1878, Fruitland Circuit 1879, 1880 and 1881, Sanford 1882, Gadsden Circuit 1883 and 1884, Madison 1885, 1886 and 1887, Live Oak Station 1888 and 1889, Live Oak District 1890, 1891 and 1892. Hoping to find better health for his wife in a higher latitude, by his request he was transferred to the North Georgia Conference in the latter part of 1892, thence to the South Georgia Conference, and, finally, back to the Florida Conference. In 1893 he was appointed to Appalachicola, where he died January 20, 1893.

Andrew A. Barnett was limited to the country schools of Florida for scholastic training, but somewhere, in his home or elsewhere, he came in contact with books or persons which enabled him to express himself in pure, chaste and terse English which would rank him with the best English speakers. His bible and conference text books, which he studied faithfully, served him instead of the theological seminary, and furnished him with matter and plan of sermonizing. His sermons, enriched by illustrations drawn from from the word of God, experience in pastoral work and deeper experience of communion with God, were of high order, whether tested for matter, style or effectiveness. He who called him into his service when a child, put him into the ministry at eighteen, and for nineteen years sustained him in the itinerant pastorate, gave to him souls for his hire and seals to his ministry and then called him to hear "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

The writer of this brief notice knows but one explanation of the high order of life, character and work of our departed brother—he was consecrated to his work and communed much with Jesus the Christ. These made him the Christian gentleman he was and the workman who needed not to be ashamed.

Brother Barnett has left to his Conference as a legacy his memory "as precious ointment poured forth" and as a trust he has left the care of the good woman who shared his toils and their four fatherless children.

PASSAGE OF CHARACTER.

Resolved, That no preacher's official character shall pass unless he can report that the collections ordered have been taken up.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

"It is recommended that in every case where the Church is about to acquire property, either by purchase or donation, that a lawyer be employed or solicited to make out the deed and obtain an abstract of the title, and thus be assured of the validity of the same. We recommend also that the trustees of such property be required, as soon as possible after they are put in possession of the deed and abstract, to make a copy of the abstract, and forward it to the Secretary of the Conference, in order that it may be properly filed in the archives of the Conference, so that at any time required any desired information may be had of the title of the Church property."—*Report of Committee on Church Property at session of December, 1886. Jubilee Service.

In compliance with a resolution of the last session of Conference, in January 1894, that we hold a Jubilee service in commemoration of the close of the fiftieth year since our organization as a Conference at Tallahassee, in January 1845, the afternoon and night of Thursday, January 9th, 1895, were devoted to said service.

At 3 P. M., Rev. J. C. Ley, the only active member of the Conference who was present at the Tallahassee Conference, preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion. At night Rev. T. W. Moore, D. D. presided and after appropriate religious service Rev. F. Pasco, Conference Secretary, read a paper entitled "The History of the Florida Conference by Decades."

Dr. Moore followed with a paper on "The darkest period in the history of the Florida Conference."

Appropriate remarks were made by Rev. J. Anderson, D. D.

Rev. F. A. Branch, a former member of the Conference, now of the South Georgia, having arrived too late to take part in the exercises of Thursday, by request, addressed the Conference on Saturday afternoon.

A letter was also read from Rev. E. L. T. Blake, D. D., a member of the Conference of 1845 now a superannuate, he being unable to be present.

The committee of Arrangements consisted of Revs. C. A. Fulwood, J. C. Ley, T. W. Moore.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League is an institution of the Church, which, in the judgement of your committee, merits our immediate attention, and our most thoughtful consideration. We seem censurable for tardiness in the use of so gracious an opportunity for the perfection and continuation of a wholesome Christian discipline once the youth of our Church, during that period between the day of allegiance to the Sunday School and the assumption of the staid dignities and duties of the sanctuary.

The Epworth League bridges this perilous chasm.

1. Your committee would suggest to our pastor the earliest attention to the fact which conditioned the conception and the inauguration of this movement within the Church, inform themselves thoroughly of its aims and methods, organize their young people into Leagues, and urge our people to the embrace of its gracious opportunities.

2. While your committee deplores the unwise and unfortunate utterance of Dr. Steel, the Editor of The Epworth Era, which has so seriously embarrassed its circulation, and albeit prejudice the movement, they would suggest the acceptance of his "disclaimer and explanation" in the spirit in which it was submitted to this body, and give our cordial assistance in the circulation of this bright, hopeful, and helpful journal.

3. Your committee has also carefully and devoutly considered the proposal for an international conference of Epworth Leagues to be held at an early day in the city of Chattanooga, and would suggest the propriety of a wise and conservative delegation to that body.

J. C. SALE, Chair'n.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath observance appreciate the vital importance of the subject, and would that some word of wisdom or power might be given them to force upon all the realization of the fact that as relates to the observance of the Lord's Day as one hallowed to rest and worship, that we, as a Church, and as a nation, are blameable.

We deplore that many professing Christians seem to have no conscience on the observance of this day as sacred to hallowed uses. He who said, "Thou shalt not steal," said, with equal force, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." But we find many whose conscience is not alive on this point, and who violate God's moral law in this particular, by traveling, buying, selling, and doing ordinary work on the Sabbath day.

It is a matter for serious concern and profound regret that laborers and wage earners, in many departments of mechanical pursuits have no Sabbath, and are so pressed by corporations, and hedged in by necessities, as to be almost forced to violate their conscience in this particular. The Sabbath is the chief bulwark behind which the Church is entrenched, and if we, as a professedly Christian nation, allow this to be broken down, when we can and should hold it up, how can we expect the fulfillment of the promise of Christ that the gates of hell shall not prevail against her. Wishing to do all in our power to further this cause, we therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st, That we will preach on this subject at least one sermon to each congregation during the ensuing year, and labor for the rolling up of a wave of educative and moral influence in this matter that shall cause those who have authority in such matters to secure the enforcement of our civil laws in regard to Sabbath desecration.

Resolved, 2d, That we will urge upon our people the avoidance of the very appearance of evil in this particular as in all others, most especially in the matter of Sunday traveling for business or pleasure.

J. P. HILBURN, Chair'n.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Bible itself calls for its own distribution. The nineteenth Psalm in particular contemplates the universal spread of God's word. It holds up the sun as a symbol of that word; and as its going forth is from the end of the heavens, and nothing is hid from the heat thereof, so the "Law of the Lord is to go forth as a lamp before the universal race of man—"converting the soul, making wise the simple, rejoicing the heart, and enlightening the eyes." And as the sun is necessary to life in its varied processes, so the word of God is indispensible in driving back spiritual darkness, and bringing life and immortality to light. "The American Bible Society is the bridegroom coming out of his chamber, rejoicing as a strong man in its race for the enlightenment of the world.

It rejoices that during the last year it has expended nearly $200,000 in dispelling darkness in foreign lands. "In the last ten years the Society has made a cash outlay of $1,500,000 in the foreign field. It commends itself to our reason that the bible is God's true missionary of light at home and abroad; and therefore, as an adjunct to our church everywhere the Bible Society should receive our earnest co-operation. As it is now placed upon a footing with our other denominational enterprises; and as the Discipline makes it the duty of all pastors to present the cause of the B. S. once a year to each congregation, we trust that increased attention may be given in the work, and that larger contributions may go up from Florida.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

With another year added to the fearful history of the liquor traffic, we emphasize our convictions that the traffic is the most destructive curse of the nineteenth century, imperiling our homes, hostile to our churches, a constant menace to society, the prolific mother of vice and crime, the corruption of politics, a breeder of anarchy in our government, and in all its dark record the offspring of the devil. Excepting idolitry, satan has devised no more effective means for producing misery among men, for defeating the work of the church, and for making sure the destruction of souls than the liquor traffic.

We believe, moreover, the time has fully come when not only every Christian, but every good citizen, should seek in every legitimate way the complete overthrow of the liquor traffic, that most aggressive and relentless foe. Feeling assured that a general prohibitory law, covering the entire State, would have many advantages over our present local option law in suppressing the liquor traffic. We, therefore, earnestly recommend to our churches a concerted movement, embracing not only their own membership, but as many other as can be brought into co-operation to secure such a law.

To this end we recommend the immediate and thorough circulation of the subjoined petition, and with it memorialize our State legislature, meeting April next, for the purpose of securing the legislation asked for in said petition.

To the Legislature of the State of Florida :

We, the undersigned voters of the State of Florida, respectfully petition that at the approaching session of your honorable body you will enact such suitable legislation as may be necessary in order to submit to the voters of said State at the general election in 1896, for their ratification or rejection, an amendment to the Constitution of Florida, prohibiting within the limits of said State the further sale or manufacture of alcoholic liquors of every description, excepting only such as are absolutely necessary for medicinal or mechanical purposes, and providing such restrictions and safeguards as will limit the sale to the two purposes mentioned.

Very respectfully,
T. W. MOORE, Chair'n.

FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Not having been instructed by the Conference as to the nature and scope of the work to which it was designed, it should address its labors, your committee may have exceeded its powers, or fallen short of its duties in its report, as follows :

Six years ago, after having edited the paper for one year, under the publishing committee, Dr. Josephus Anderson was given the contract of editing and publishing the Florida Christian Advocate for a term of five years, which term expired at the time of the last session of our Conference. He was then given the contract for one year, which expires at this session of the Conference ; thus leaving us without an editor or publisher of our official organ, unless some provision be made to meet the emergency.

During these six years the paper has not only lived, but, in some measure, prospered ; and its subscription list is larger to-day than ever before. The mechanical work has been uniformly good ; the editorial work has been excellent in its character ; and the paper, as a whole, has commended itself more and more to our people.

The history of this paper, thus far, has demonstrated very clearly, two important facts, viz. :

1st. We may have a paper.

2d. We must have a paper.

It is doing a work which no other paper can do.

We, therefore, respectfully recommend that the contract for editing and publishing the Florida Christian Advocate, for a term of four years, be given to Dr. Josephus Anderson, on the same terms as heretofore.

We also recommend the adoption of the following resolution, to-wit:

Resolved, That we, as members of the Florida Conference, will keep constantly before our people the claims of our own organ, and do all in our power to increase its circulation.

T. C. BRADFORD, Chair'n.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

1. The Publishing House at Nashville, according to the annual report of the efficient agents, Dr. J. D. Barbee and Bro. Smith, has been able, in spite of the hard times, to do a good year's work.

The business of the House is continually increasing, and this great and important institution is more and more a power for good in the church.

2. The Christian Advocate so ably edited by Drs. E. E. Hoss and J. W. Boswell, maintains the high literary excellence which has always characterized this excellent paper.

No better mental and spiritual food can be found than that which it furnishes its readers each week: it ought to be in the home of every Methodist in the land.

3. The Review is one of the best periodicals of its kind that is published.

The General Conference which met in Memphis, Tenn., last May, elected as its editor, Dr. J. J. Tigert, who is performing this important task with conspicuous ability.

It is a shame that the Review has been published at an expense to the church, it ought to be taken and read by all our ministers and laymen. It is now a bi-monthly, and we believe that it will soon be self-sustaining.

4. The Epworth Era, the organ for our young people's society, is edited by Dr. S. A. Steel. It is supplying a felt need in our church, and we trust its circulation will increase many thousands.

5. The Florida Christian Advocate is making progress. Its accomplished and able Editor, Dr. Josephus Anderson, has had to labor under many difficulties, but has succeeded in giving us a paper of which we should be proud, and to which we ought to give our earnest support.

6. The report of the Conference Colporteur, Rev. R. H.

Barnett, shows that his work has prospered, and that he has pushed it with great earnestness and faithfulness. We recommend his re-appointment, and urge the bretheren to unite on him, and give him their business.

7. The Review of Missions has been very much improved. It furnishes the latest missionary news from the entire field, and if all our members could be induced to subscribe for this excellent periodical, and read it, there would be a deeper interest upon this important subject, and the missionary collections would be greatly increased. We also call attention to, and commend "The World for Christ," a little paper published by the Board of Missions, at ten cents per year. It will do much good if circulated among the children and young people in our Sunday Schools.

J. P. DEPASS, Chairm'n.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The annual reports of the several institutions of learning connected with the Florida Conference come to us full of cheer, notwithstanding the present financial pressure upon the country. The Lord God is the head of the church. "We will not fear though the earth be removed and the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea."

Emory College, Oxford, Ga., is still doing effective work, making its power felt in Church and State. This college has rapidly grown under the guiding hand of Dr. Candler, its efficient president. It has now added to its work a training school for preachers, free of tuition. From this school may many prophets go forth, strong as Elijah, loving as John, wise as Paul, and clothed with salvation as with a garment, to preach the word of God, and to breathe the spirit of Christ into the hearts of the children of men.

The Wesleyan Female College, of Macon, Ga., and the church at large, has suffered a great loss in the death of Dr. Bass, the able president who, for many years, skilfully guided that excellent institution to ever increasing success. The present president, Rev. E. H. Rowe, has well taken up the work laid down by Dr. Bass. May the best wishes of both these gifted leaders be realized for the Wesleyan. The South is greatly needing a university for women. The Christian women of the present day are worthy the highest culture. They have proven their capacity for such culture by plucking the highest honors in front of the fastest runners, though her competitors were the strongest men. Having proved her ability to compete with men in the best equipped universities in the world, she should have in this south-land a university exclusively her own, where her true womanly characteristics, which are her best, can crystalize in womanly life, and enable her to perform what the gracious God designed. Of all our many good schools for women in the South, Wesleyan leads in age, equipage and endowment. Let the whole South rally to her support, and make this noble institution what she deserves to be, the University for women, in the South.

The Florida Conference College, Leesburg, Fla., under the presidency of Prof. Wightman F. Melton, is the youngest of our schools, and far behind these older institutions in equipments for college work. And yet we have much for which to thank God in the progress made, and the work done during the nine years of existence. This is the only school owned solely by the Florida Conference, and the youngest. The Florida Conference College should have our tenderest care. Having no other Conference to look after this institution, it is a question whether the Florida Conference should not give exclusive care to the building up of this much needed College for State and church. If, with the $39,000.00, she has within nine years put into the field many men and women already deeply impressing the State and Church for good, what may we not expect when time, money and men shall have increased her influence and opportunities! Let us, brethren, give to our Florida Conference College our full support.

The last General Conference made an arrangement for putting all the schools of Southern Methodism in connectional touch.

We believe this was wisely done. To teach is as much a function of the Church as to preach. Our Lord preached to the multitude, but taught his disciples. If connectionalism has helped the preaching, making the feeblest preacher share the strength of the strongest, why may not our schools and teachers share a like benefit?

We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the President of the Conference College, in co-operation with the President of the Board of Trustees, be requested to consider the expediency of holding a Preachers' Institute at the College, and if in their judgment it seems practicably, they are authorized to arrange for the same.

Resolved, 2. That the first Sunday in June be observed throughout the Conference as Education Day, and that all our preachers be requested to preach on that day upon the subject of Christian education.

Resolved, 3. That we recommend the assessment of the sum of $2,000 to be apportioned to the several charges on the ratio of assessment governing in the distribution of assessment for Conference claimants, the money so raised to be divided between the Board, to aid in the education of young preachers, and the Trustees of the Florida Conference College.

Resolved, 4. That the sum of $200 be assessed for Paine and Lane Institute, and that the apportionment among the several charges be on the ratio of the apportionment made for Conference claimants.

T. W. MOORE, Pres't.

REPORT NUMBER TWO OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The action of the last General Conference in constituting a Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the election of a Secretary of Education, we regard as eminently wise. In order to complete the organization in our own Conference, and to facilitate the work in behalf of this important interest of the church, your Board recommends the adoption of the following:

1. This Conference shall elect a Conference Secretary of Education, to serve without salary, to whom the several District Boards of Education, hereinafter provided for, shall report immediately upon their organization. It shall be the duty of the Conference Secretary of Education to see that the district Boards be furnished with catalogues of all our institutions and with all information necessary to the prosecution of the work of the District Boards, and to keep a register of teachers desiring situations, and to put them in correspondence with the Boards applying for teachers.

2. This Conference shall also elect a Conference Treasurer of Education, to whom all moneys belonging to the Conference Board of Education shall be paid, and who shall pay out of the said funds the expenses of the Secretary of the Board for stationery, printing, etc., and the traveling expenses of members of the District Boards when in the discharge of their duties as members of the Board, and shall present an itemized statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him to the Annual Conference Board of Education, with vouchers therefor.

II. DISTRICT BOARDS OF EDUCATION.—Every District Conference shall elect, for a term of two years, four laymen, and the Presiding Elder shall appoint three preachers from his District, as a District Board of Education. The Presiding Elder shall be ex-officio a member of the Board, and he shall have power to fill any vacancies occurring in the Board, in the interim of District Conferences. He shall call a meeting of the Board for his District in the month of April, which shall effect its own organization and report the same to the Conference Secretary of Education ; and lay such plans for their work in the District as in their judgment are advisable. The four laymen upon this Board shall be ex-officio members of the District Conference. It shall be the duty of the District Boards of Education :

1. To secure through the Local Boards of Education, hereinafter provided for, such facts concerning the number of children and young people of our own church of school age and the facilities for education within their bounds as shall enable the church to know the needs of our people ; to secure from the Secretary the names of such teachers as desire situations, and to do all in their power to supply the local needs within the bounds of their several Districts ; to procure the names and addresses of such young people as may be induced to attend our Academies and Colleges and to report them to the Faculties ; personally to aid the agents of our schools in whatever way possible when canvassing within their bounds ; and to report in writing to the District Conference the work of the Board for the year, together with the statistics before mentioned.

2. No student for our ministry shall be admitted to our Academies or College as a beneficiary student, who has not been recommended to the District Board by the Local Board of the charge in which he holds his membership, and by the District Board to the Faculty of the institution which he proposes to enter. When such application is made and approved, the District Boards shall diligently enquire what amount of aid is absolutely necessary for such applicant, to meet expenses other than tuition, and shall inform the Local Boards of the amounts expected of them ; and the Local Boards shall raise the amounts in such way as they shall deem best ; and the said amounts, when raised, shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education with information for whom it is to be used.

3. No school shall be recommended to the patronage of our people by the District Conferences that has not secured the approval of the District Board of Education.

III. LOCAL BOARDS.—In each pastoral charge there shall be a Local Board of Education, consisting of three members, to be elected by the Quarterly Conference upon nomination of the preacher in charge. It shall be the duty of the Local Boards;

1. To co-operate with the pastor and Sunday School superintendent in arranging and executing a programme for Children's Day.

2. To secure, as far as possible, the statistics called for by the District Board of Education.

3. To aid the representatives of our educational institutions in the canvass of the charge.

4. To recommend to the District Board of Education such persons as they approve as beneficiary candidates for the ministry, and to raise the amount laid upon the charge by the District Board, under No. II. Sec. 2.

5. To report in writing to the District Board of Education the statistics gathered by them of the educational work within the pastoral charges, together with the number of students attending our institutions of learning from their charges.

In order to carry this organization into effect at once, we recommend that the Presiding Elders be requested now to name four laymen in each of their several Districts to be elected by this Conference, to act until the meeting of the District Conference, and that the Presiding Elders to be appointed add to these, immediately after the appointments are made, the clerical members necessary to complete the Board.

In order further to forward the work of education within our Conference, we recommend that the Annual Conference Board of Education be elected to serve for four years.

JOINT STOCK COMPANY FOR FLORIDA ADVOCATE.

Your committee, appointed at the last Conference, to organize a joint stock company to publish the Advocate, beg leave to report that we have duly considered the matter, and deem it impracticable to make any effort in that direction, under the existing circumstances.

ON JOINT ORPHANAGE.

Your committee appointed at the last session of our Conference to confer with the North and South Georgia Conferences, relative to the establishment of an Orphan's Home to be owned and controlled jointly by the three Conferences, report, that while we did not attend either of the said Conferences yet, leading brethren from them with whom we consulted, discouraged such hope, and the general desire among us in Florida for the establishment of a Home on Florida soil renders such joint movement unadvisable, if not impracticable.

Respectfully submitted,

C. A. FULWOOD, Chair'n.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee is much gratified to report the records of the District Conference minutes of all the Districts faithfully kept, neatly and accurately executed, and nearly all the Record books of excellent quality.

Your Committee offers the following resolution :

Resolved, That the District Conference Records, as they become full, be sent to the Florida Conference College, to be preserved in the College library, and that the Presiding Elders of each District be requested to find the old records, and forward them to the College.

H. B. FRAZEE, Chair'n.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The report of the Secretary shows the number of Sunday Schools aided this year to be 20; expended for same,$106.18. To these schools literature has been furnished, enabling them to organize and prosecute the work for which they were established.

We cannot speak too highly of the literature now furnished by our Publishing House ; and we are gratified to learn that the circulation of all the helps provided is largely increased, and that these publications were never so good as they are now. We especially commend "Illustrative Notes on the International Lessons," by E. E. Hoss, D. D., and trust this book may be used by all our teachers and Bible classes.

The Sunday School Magazine is all that can be wished by its readers ; and The Visitor shares in the general excellence. The Quarterlies, Lesson Papers, and Our Little People are admirably adapted for the places they are designed to fill.

We commend the improved methods inaugurated by the Sunday School editor, the Rev. Dr. Kirkland, and we respectfully urge our people to patronize the Publishing House of our Church when buying Sunday School supplies.

Children's Day ought to be more generally observed in our charges, and we earnestly request our pastors to use this occasion for acquainting the public with the work done through its instrumentality. The collections from this source, this year, amount to $180.75.

Respectfully submitted,

For the Board.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

The Board of Missions has had under supervision, and aided thirty-eight missions. Some of these have become self-sustaining stations and circuits, and in all commendable progress has been made, thus demonstrating the wisdom of the Board in the appropriating of its moneys. Besides the territory embraced within these missions, there are many places where the gospel is greatly needed, and the call is urgent. We lack money to occupy all these places in the Jesus Christ! "The Lord hath need" of the gold and silver. Who will respond? The following appropriations were made by the Board for the year 1895:

The following assessments were made for 1895:

Live Oak District	550 00	455 00	65 00

The above assessments express the absolute needs. Let every dollar be collected. The Board would urge every pastor to take his missionary collections early in the year, by, or before the first of May. It is earnestly desired that as a Conference we give practical tangible emphasis to the forward movement in Mission. Fall in line every one, and let us meet the demands of the age.

MEMOIRS.

REV. SAMUEL WOODBERRY.

Rev. Samuel Woodberry, son of Rev. Collins Woodberry, was born in Marion District, S. C., Nov. 13, 1813. He died in Quincy, Fla., Oct. 20, 1894, in the eighty-first year of his life.

He was baptized in infancy, in S. C., by Rev. Daniel Asbury. He came to Florida with his parents in 1825, when twelve years of age, and lived in Gadsen Co., for several years. Brother Woodberry was converted in his nineteenth year, at old Mount Pleasant camp meeting in 1832, and soon afterward joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Having put his hand to the plow he never looked back. On Sept. 23, 1843, at the fourth quarterly meeting, for Gadsden circuit, he was licensed to preach. Rev. Thos. E. Benning was Presiding Elder.

He was received on trial in the Florida Conference in 1847; ordained Deacon by Bishop William Capers, in 1849, and Elder by Bishop Robt. Paine, in 1851.

Bro. Woodberry was twice married—first to Miss P. A. Williams, of Wilmington, N. C., who died at Attapulgus, Ga., Aug. 30, 1848. He married Mrs. Matilda Smith, of Tallahassee, Fla., in 1849. He had several children. His eldest son of his second marriage, Rev. Edwin Woodberry, was a young man of rare promise. He died about fifteen years ago while serving St. Mathews church, Jacksonville, his first and only charge.

Brother Woodberry was a preacher of the glorious gospel of Christ for 51 years, and a member of the Florida Conference 47 years. For forty-seven years he never missed to answer to roll call at the convening of his Conference.

He served Missions, Circuits, Stations, and Districts. He went, like a true itinerant, wherever sent, cheerfully, gladly. I can only mention a few of the many charges he served during his long and honorable connection with our Conference. Tallahassee Station, Palatka, Quincy, Citra, Tallahasse District two terms of four years each. His last appointment was Live Oak Station 1887. Soon after Conference he had a severe stroke of Paralysis, and had to give up his work. He partially recovered from this, and traveled from place to place, visiting friends, and preaching as he was able. He asked for, and received a Superannuated relation in January 1888. Brother Woodberry was an excellent and successful preacher. He gloried in the cross of Christ, and led many souls to the Saviour. He was greatly loved and honored by his brethren. He was a member of two or three General Conferences—the one which met in New Orleans in 1866, and the one which convened in Richmond, Va., in 1886, and perhaps others.

He was a true friend to young preachers. He dearly loved his brethren of the ministry, and especially the members of the Florida Conference, and was loved by them.

God blest him, and made him a blessing. He was faithful to God and his vows as a Methodist preacher.

The last few weeks of his stay on earth his strength rapidly failed. He said he suffered no pain, but feared that his paralysis was returning. Two weeks before his death he attended church, and assisted in the communion service. His words were full of tenderness, warning, and comfort.

In his last illness he referred to the Semi-Centennial service to be held in Jacksonville, and that he had been invited to take part. He said, "Tell Bro. Fulwood I will not be there;" and added, "If there is anything I love on earth it is the Florida Conference, but I will not attend another session, I will attend the Conference above." Pointing toward heaven, he said, "I will be in that Conference long before the Florida Conference convenes."

Florida is indebted more than tongue can tell, to such men as our translated brother. "One soweth and another reapeth." We have entered into the rich fruitage of their sowing. May we all rejoice together in the harvest of the "sweet by and by." He died in peace, and rests from his labors.

REV. GRINSFIELD TAYLOR.

Rev. Grinsfield Taylor was born in Blount County, East Tenn., July 2, 1823, and suddenly departed this life, in Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 9, 1895. In his youth he enjoyed superior religious advantages, and graduated from Tuscalusee College, Green county, which institution was under the supervision of the Holston Conference. The first year after graduating, he was elected to a professorship in Hiwassee College, Monroe county, and this position he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to all concerned.

In his early manhood he consecrated his life to the service of God, soon heard the call to preach the gospel, and joined the Holston Conference, which then embraced the whole of East Tennessee, West North Carolina, and a portion of Virginia.

He had intended to become a lawyer, but his religious convictions led him to devote himself to the more sacred calling of the Christian ministry. As an itinerant minister, he very soon pushed his way to the front rank among the ablest members of the Holston Conference, and filled most of the important stations of that Conference. He was stationed, successively, at Chattanooga, Knoxville, Cleveland, Morristown, Bristol, and Ashville, and served several years as Presiding Elder of more than one District. He always worked in the lead, and his counsel in all church matters was universally sought and valued; and his forty years of successful ministerial work is sufficient evidence of his thorough consecration to duty.

He was happily married in 1871 to Miss Lizzie Fleming, who survives him in deepest sorrow. Four children were born of this christian marriage, all of whom are living. They possess the richest legacy that can fall to children, the influences and blessings of a christian father's life. His excellencies and virtues were best known, and most highly appreciated by those to whom he sustained the endearing relation of husband and father.

Some twelve years ago, brother Taylor, through exposure and over exertion in his work, was afflicted by severe bronchial trouble, which necessitated his discontinuance from active work, and he requested the relation of a supernumerary. Eight years ago he felt that his health demanded his removal to Florida, and he was transferred to the Florida Conference, continuing his supernumerary relation, and preaching as occasion served, until he was called up higher. To his excellent traits of character as a gentleman and as a Christian, it would be impossible to pay too high a tribute. He was everybody's friend, especially so to the poor and needy, who never appealed to him in vain for assistance. His acts of secret charity were many and munificent; and his noble impulses and stirling character constantly grew in the estimation of his friends. The crowning beauty of his life consisted in his quiet, unostentatious manner, that will forever embalm him in the memory of his friends and acquaintances. He was a prudent, decided man, never rash, never hasty, yet earnest, zealous, active in church work, and of charming christian spirit. During the past year, he preached very often, and the people were delighted and profited by his ministry. He rendered valuable assistance every year to the pastor of our church in Orlando, where he lived and was highly esteemed. He went up to the Annual Conference to meet his brethren; but was suddenly summoned to a greater Conference, to unite with those who had preceded him to the home above. "He was not, for God took him."

REV. J. EDWARD NEAL.

The subject of this sketch was born and spent his early years in Middle Georgia. His family home was supplied with everything that a very large and very rich plantation could produce, with everything that money could buy in the cities, with everything that culture and good breeding could give. But few, even of his brethren, who saw him forgetful of self, hurrying from toil to toil, from difficulty to difficulty, enduring all manner of hardness "in weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness," testifying that "Jesus Christ, by the grace of God, tasted death for every man;" but few knew how much he was like the Lord, "who, though he was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that he through his poverty might be rich."

In our brother Neal, the word of God had free course and was glorified. Perfect love had cast all fear from his heart. The Holy Ghost sent down from heaven, often made his preaching a baptism of fire. He was ready unto every good work, instant in season and out of season, fervent and exultant in spirit, impatient if he was not always hearing conscience-stirred sinners weeping and crying, "I'm lost, I'm lost," or new-born souls, in miracles of joy, singing, "I'm saved, I'm saved, glory to God." It is not strange that wherever he went, so many recognized brother Neal as a teacher come from God, and learned of him, how to be saved. It is not strange that in those places, favored with his self-denying, Christ-exalting ministry, his name should be as precious ointment poured forth. It is not strange that he being dead yet speaketh. It is not strange that among his brethren of the Conference there are so many who witness to the sanctifying, inspiring, stimulating influence of his walk and conversation. It is not strange that we who remember him and his life and its fruits, should resolve to follow after him even as he followed Christ. He died December 23, 1894, at Pleasant Grove, on Alafia Circuit, Hillsboro Co., Florida.

REV. ROBERT STORK.

The subject of this memoir was born at Columbia, S. C., October 10th, 1850, and entered into rest at Ashville, Florida, April, 1894. He was reared under christian influence, in connection with the Baptist church, of which his parents were members. At the age of twenty-five, while listening to a sermon at the Methodist church, by Rev. Jesse Clinton, of the South Carolina Conference, he became awakened to his spiritual condition, and soon afterwards was converted to God. This fact led him to feel that this people, to whom he was so greatly indebted, should be his people, and their God his God. Subsequently he was received as a member of the M. E. Church, South. The same year, 1875, he was granted a local preacher's license, and began to labor, under the direction of his pastor, in the waste places of zion, and in Sunday School. His zeal, humility, earnestness, and devout spirit won the loving confidence of the people among whom he labored.

About 1878 brother Stork removed from his native state to Arkansas, and soon afterwards joined the Conference, and for two years labored faithfully, and with marked success. His health broke down, and he retired to the local ranks, and returned to his home, in South Carolina, where, as health and strength would permit, he found useful and profitable employment, the Sunday School and Missionary work being his special care. The W. M. society, at Greenbriar Church, S. C., conferred upon him a life membership, in appreciation of his services to their society.

In 1880 he came to reside in Florida, and his health was so far recovered, that in 1883 he again joined the itinerant ranks; and for six years he did faithful service as preacher and pastor. He was studious, painstaking, and attended well to all the interests of the church.

At the Conference of 1889 he was compelled, by the condition of his health, to seek a superannuate relation. For five long years he suffered the most terrible torture of body, which rendered him entirely helpless and dependent. In affliction and poverty, he patiently endured without murmur or complaint. Amidst his great suffering, he was want to say, "It's the Father's good pleasure, I must humbly submit, and wait His will." His confidence in God never faltered. He would say, like Job: "Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him." While in the shade of retirement, his interest in the church, and love for the brethren were unabated.

His affliction deprived him of the public means of grace; but in his home, or when carried to a service, he was ever ready to testify to the power of saving grace, and the sustaining power of God, under the most trying circumstances. Although helpless, and seldom free from pain, he was always cheerful and happy, "Rejoicing in tribulations, also." The end came suddenly, but found him ready. Without a lingering groan, he fell asleep in Jesus, in sure and certain hope of immortality and eternal life, in the 44th year of his age. and the 19th year of his ministry.

JAMES BOLTON.

REV. W. JOHNSON.

Just a year ago, about the time when Bishop Haygood, in Palatka, was reading the appointments to the brethren who were still engaged in the active work of the itineracy, here, in the city of Jacksonville, there came a summons from the Almighty, to one of our dear brethren, who, for years, had endured physical and mental suffering, and who had nothing to look forward to but death as a release from pain; and so in January, 1894, God said to Bro. Wm. R. Johnson, "It is enough come up higher."

We have had no opportunity of finding any details of Brother Johnson previous to his transfer to this Conference in 1872.

He came to us in feeble health, from the Kentucky Conference, and yet was able to do effective work until January 1889, at the Conference session at Bartow he took a superannuated relation.

He served the following works: Madison, Apalachicola, Fernandina, Key West, Spark's Chapel, Hamilton Circuit, Lake Butler Circuit, Orange Springs Circuit, Ceder Key Mission, St. Mary's Mission, Nassau Mission, and Duval Mission.

He married in 1873, while stationed at Apalachicola. His wife passed away some years ago, leaving several orphan children, who are now in the Orphan's Home of the South Georgia Conference.

Brother Johnson did his duty faithfully and well. As intimated before, he suffered more or less at all times from an incurable disease. None but those who knew him intimately were aware what hours of agony were his ; but "he endured as seeing him who is invisible." His last years were spent in a struggle for existence ; but he found friends in Tallahassee and Jacksonville, in which cities he made his home at different times, and his brethren in the Conference cheerfully aided him when called upon. His mental faculties failed him, so that, for a time, it was thought best to place him in the Asylum at Chatahoochee.

He died, and gladly and cheerfully exchanged earth for heaven.

What a blessed thing that we can feel the truth of these words :

"O, what are all my sufferings here,
If, Lord thou count me meet
With that enraptured host to appear,
And worship at thy feet.

Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,
Take life or friends away,
But let me find them all again
In that eternal day."

JULIA E. CLARIDY.

Julia E. Claridy, wife of Dr. C. S. Claridy, of the Florida Conference, was born at Grantville. Ga., September 17, 1854, was married to Dr. Claridy October 12, 1872, and died in Atlanta, Ga., June 17, 1894.

Sister Claridy united with the church in childhood, and was a faithful and zealous Christian to the last, a willing worker in Sunday School and Church, as duty called and opportunity was presented. Cheerful, happy, unfaltering, an elect lady, has gone from us, leaving her bereaved husband and children in their desolated home. But she has but gone before, and will be ready to welcome them to their eternal home, when they, too, are called.

Her last illness was long and trying—eighteen weary months—yet with fortitude and patience, she bore it all uncomplainingly. She is now "where the inhabitants shall never say, I am sick."

MARY WINSTON LAWLER.

Mary Winston Lawler, wife of Rev. S. W. Lawler, of the Florida Conference, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Moon, was born at Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, April 24,1861. Her marriage took place at Morton, Mississipi, March 29, 1887, and she came immediately to Florida with her husband, who at that time was a lay-worker in the church. When he was called of God to the work of the ministry, she was ready to take her place at his side in the itinerant ranks, and with unswerving fidelity she stood at the post, faithful unto death, the stay, strength, and comfort of her husband, the light and guardian of their happy home, until the Master whispered, "It is enough, come up higher."

She loved the Church to which she belonged, and prayed for all its interests and institutions. Christ was all in all to her. The Master's cause on earth was her heart's deepest solicitude. She loved our country, and felt and manifested an abiding interest in its welfare and righteous prosperity.

Dark is the home, and desolate, indeed, for the mother, the husband, and the five lonely little ones she has left behind. Inscrutable, indeed, is the providence that removes from her place one so eminently fitted for its high and holy responsibilities! But "He doeth all things well;" and loving hearts will be stimulated to move earnest devotion by the remembrance of her earnest Christian life.

She died peacefully at Lady Lake, Florida, December 10, 1894.

LEONORA SEALLY.

Leonora Seally, relict of Rev. J. J. Seally, late of the Florida Conference, passed away from earth to the brighter world above, on February 27, 1894. Her illness was a very protracted and unusually painful one ; but in the strength of divine grace she bore it all in the spirit of the Master, even unto the end.

During her latter years, sister Seally was a resident of Monticello. Her life was such that none who came in contact with her could fail to feel and acknowledge more or less of its gracious influence. We are all bereaved, and earth is poorer for her departure from among us ; but how supremely rapturous must have been to her the change from " the sufferings of the present time" to the glory that is revealed on high to the children of God !

A true Christian, a faithful friend and a zealous worker in the vineyard of her Lord, has gone from us ; but she stiil lives in the virtues and fruits of a godly character, molded and fashioned by the Divine Artist after his own likeness and image. " Precious in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his saints."

ELIZABETH REBECCA BISHOP.

Elizabeth Rebecca Bishop, wife of Rev. T. Bishop, of the Florida Annual Conference, was born at Hawthorne, Fla., February 12, 1853, and passed away to be with Jesus, January 26, 1894. In her early days she fully consecrated herself to the service of God ; and to life's latest hours she was steadfast to the vows which she had made. Hers was a sunny, cheerful disposition, that ever looked on the bright side; and during the years in which she shared with her husband the trials of a Methodist itinerant, she had need of such a disposition, supplemented by the abounding grace of God. Trials and perplexities in an unusual degree pressed upon her husband ; but she never would consent to his turning aside from the ministry to engage in secular pursuits. He says, " From the fierce field of battle I could ever return to our home to find sunshine in her eyes and manner to dispel every shadow.''

She was brave for Jesus in shielding her home and children from every hurtful influence. Her deepest solicitude, often expressed in prayer, class, and experience meetings, was for grace to bring up her children for Jesus. When her husband's duties called him from home, he knew that the fire on the family altar would be kindled afresh every evening and morning of his absence, and that his work would be held up before God in her petition, and that the children would be folded as lambs under her care, and watched over, as to their physical needs and spiritual interests. Her long illness was patiently and uncomplainingly borne, and when the end came, she had nothing to do but to die; and she fell asleep as softly as a babe going to rest.

General Report of Boards and Committees.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

After organizing, your Board received the following statement from the retiring Board; Amount collected during 1895, $113.24; amount expended during the same period $135.26.

We are gratified to learn that a majority of our Sunday Schools contributed to the special collection assessed for missions, many of them reporting collections in full.

We regret that "Childrens' Day" was observed by so few schools during the past year. The church can no more afford to lose the impetus of that day of exhileration than the body can lose the use of its arms. Its paralysis from overwork would be more commendable than death from want of exercise.

Our literature of every grade is adequate to the demands of our Sunday School interests, and those of the age in which we live. If we have outstripped all competitors in this interest, or the stadium, a halt now in this work would be a shame to us.

We take courage from the vantage-ground of the past and the present, and suggest that all our schools observe "Childrens' Day."

These ideal successes may be prophecy—may they soon become realities: 1. Every church and Sunday School using our own literature, including "Childrens' Day" programmes. 2. Every child in every charge in our own Sunday Schools. 3. Every school organized into a missionary society. 4. Every pastor, superintendent and other workers earnestly laboring to make our hopes a realization.

For the Board. G. D. TURNER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

It was Solomon who said, "of making many books there is no end." But all the books in the world in the time of Solomon would hardly equal the numbers of books and papers published in a single day by the modern press. The angel who was revealing the future to Daniel, told him "to seal the book he was writing till the time of the end, when many should run to and fro, and knowledge should be increased." John had a still clearer vision of book-making and the rapid spread of knowledge that was to come, when he saw a mighty angel come down from Heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow upon his head, and his face as if it were the sun, and his feet as a pillar of fire, and in his hand a little book open." This angel while claiming universal dominion of the earth "lifted up his hand and swore by Him that liveth forever that there should be no longer delay in the coming of knowledge and this running to and fro. The modern printing press and the facilities in the world for rapid transportation are amply fulfilling all that the prophets foretold of these mighty agencies. The first book printed by movable type was the Bible. While the Turk was battling down the walls of Constantinople for his entrance into Europe, and was using the sword to smite the idols of Christendom, a mightier force than the sword of Islam was being unsheathed, "the sword of the spirit, the word of God that proceedeth out of His mouth." While the printing press leaped to its mission to carry God's message of love to the nations, Satan was not slow to set in motion a counter movement and use the press for purposes of evil. Today one of the devil's mightiest agencies for evil is a misguided, subsidized secular press. The evil is growing day by day, and corrupting literature is going every where, to tempt to evil, to suggest the wrong, and to show the most effective way for executing the will of the devil to the ruin of men.

Unless the church bravely meets this counter movement for evil, and works as faithfully, as the devotees of mammon and the servants of Satan are working, the world will soon be so sown with tares that there will be no room in its fields for the wheat. We have good books but they are not read as they should be. We have good papers, but we are slow in putting them into the hands of our people. We have need to bestir ourselves as never before to even keep pace with the agents of evil.

Our central organ, the Nashville Advocate, has fallen off in circulation. Its circulation should be doubled, and a copy ought to be in the hands of every official member of the church to enlarge his vision of christianity and to better guide him in administering the affairs of the church. We pledge ourselves to help our colporteur and the publishing house in the distribution of worthy books, and the American Bible Society in the distribution of God's word. The Quarterly Review ought to be read by every Methodist preacher. The Epworth Era ought to be a trumpet-blast, awakening every young man and maiden in the church to Christ's call for the conquest of this world. We should see to it that our own Florida Christian Advocate is put into the hands of every Methodist family in our Conference.

Brethren, the emergency is upon us, we dare not stop lest we lose our hold upon humanity and lest Satan use this mighty agency, the press, for the world's destruction. Let not the artillery of Heaven, devised for man's salvation, be turned upon God's own cause. We therefore, by a standing vote, Resolve, That each one of us will thus pledge himself to try and organize the charge, with which we may severally stand connected during 1896, into working order to aid in more successfully putting our literature into circulation, to begin by putting the Florida Christian Advocate into each family represented in that charge and by putting the Nashville Advocate into the hands of each official member of the charge.

T. W. MOORE,
Chairman of Committee.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT NO. 1.

The committees, the Conference Board of Education and the Board of Ministerial Education, met in joint session and adopted the following which they submit to the Conference for its adoption:

Resolved, That in view of the failure to get the educational action of our last Annual Conference into full operation, this Conference will allow and authorize the work and the fund raised for education to be directed as heretofore by the Board of Education and the Board of Ministerial Education respectively, so long as the present necessity exists.

T. G. LANG, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT NO. 2.

The annual report of the President of each of the colleges having official connection with the Florida Conference, has been submitted to your Board.

The fact that the aggregate attendance upon these institutions is increasing rather than diminishing, notwithstanding the sore financial depression that has prevailed in much of the territory furnishing their usual patronage, gives ground for profound gratitude to the Giver of all good, and is evidence that the interest of Methodists in higher christian education is intensifying rather than abating.

Emory College, Oxford, Ga., recognized as the joint property of the Florida and the two Georgia Conferences, is reported to have closed, in June 1895, the most prosperous year in its history, the enrollment reaching 288, the bequests of friends and the liberality of the Alumni have rendered possible two additional professorships, and the attendance for the present half year is about 30 above the attendance up to the same date last year.

The college plant including endowment clear of all incumbrance is valued at $350,000.

Let us hope, pray, and labor to the end that all the needs may be supplied and that the influence of this grand old institution upon church and state may continue to widen and deepen until the final day.

Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga., under the presidency of Rev. E. H. Rowe, is sustaining her well earned reputation in equipping christian women for the upbuilding of the church and for the preservation of society.

The enrollment during the past school year reached 246, with eleven States represented, and is now only a little less than the enrollment at the same date last year.

During the past year free tuition was granted 37 worthy young ladies, 23 being the daughters of ministers. The health of the students was phenominal, and the religious influence in the college has hardly a parallel.

It would be wisdom on the part of Methodist wealth and benevolence to so amply endow this Mother of Colleges that she may easily hold that superior rank which the mother should occupy in the family of colleges.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH, MONTICELLO, FLA.

The policy of the church in establishing so many female schools of professedly equal grade as to force them into sharp competition for patronage is to be deprecated.

It is to be hoped that the scheme of correlation proposed by our General Conference may soon reach such a state of perfection as to cease all friction and to place the Wesleyan, leading in age, equipment, endowment and in good offices for the church, as the recognized head or University among female colleges. This college should be put upon such sound financial basis that all rental fees may be abolished.

Southern Methodism has reaped too rich a harvest of christian women going from her portals to suffer this grand old institution of learning to pine away from inadequate support or from unworthy competition. As we love and appreciate, and as the church needs cultured and consecrated womanhood, let us work and pray that Wesleyan Fomale College may be lifted to the lofty plain which Lovick Pierce and his conferes planned and prayed she should occupy.

The Florida Conference College, Leesburg, Fla., James T. Nolen President, with an existence of only ten years, is the child of this Conference, under its special fostering care and appeals in the midst of financial depression for sympathy and support.

This institution, the subject of many prayers and much anxious solicitude, though youthful and undeveloped, has already accomplished much good, and if it shall be carefully nurtured into full maturity will yet become the idol of Florida Methodism and a blessing to the State.

It appeals to christian liberality and to denominational pride, and it would be a sad reflection upon Methodism in this Conference to permit this college to go down, while the liberality and labors of other branches of christians less numerous than we are sufficient to sustain a Stetson University or a Rollins College.

It is a matter of profound congratulation, that our college, in the midst of a direful financial crisis, void of proper equipment, without one cent of endowment and in debt, has any existence at all. But in spite of adverse circumstances the college still lives and reports an enrollment of 58 pupils for the present fall term, six of whom are preparing for the ministry, and 12 are children of ministers. The outlook for the college is still more hopeful.

It has a faculty of six teachers, capable of meeting all the requirements of an ordinary college course. Board has been reduced to $10.00 a month to meet the stringency of the times.

Let us, brethren, give to our Conference College full sympathy, loyal and active co-operation, and earnest support.

While looking after higher education in these institutions under care of the church, may we not forget that first impressions are the lasting ones and that the first education of nearly all children of today is obtained in the public schools.

This early education is far reaching and more important, if possible, in its results upon society, church and State, than the higher education which the church undertakes to give. Let us then in our capacity as citizens see to it, that those powerful and lasting first impressions are made by christian teachers.

German physiology has wisely said, "That which you wish to put into the life of a nation, you must put into the children at school." We say, what you would put into the school must first have its existence in the mind, the heart, and the daily life of the teacher.

Though members of churches, yet christians do not surrender any of the rights of citizens, whose privilege and duty it is to guard the welfare of both church and State.

One of their rights is to demand that truth, sobriety, and every christian virtue shall be taught by example as well as by precept in all schools, whether under church or governmental auspices.

If as church members we surrender this rightful surveillance over schools under State control for just one or two generations, our children will witness infidelity rampant and christian education sneered and passed into disfavor.

While advocating peace and harmony, yet let us be wise as surpents in guarding the foundations of our social system and the principles of our christian religion in the life of the nation.

The following resolutions are submitted for adoption :

Resolved, 1. That the assessment of $2,000 be made upon the Conference, and appartioned upon the Districts and several charges on the basis of the assessment for Conference Claimants, the money raised to be divided between the Trustees of the Conference College and the Board of Ministerial Education in the ratio of three to the former to one to the latter.

Resolved, 2, That the sum of $200 be assessed in like manner for Paine and Lane Institutes.

Resolved, 3, That our preachers and people be requested to continue the observance of Childrens' Day.

Resolved, 4, That our preachers be requested to preach at some suitable time at least one sermon in ench congregation upon the subject of christian education.

Resolved, 5, That Rev. E. F. Ley be elected Secretary of Education.

Resolved, 6, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Revs. F. A. Taylor and T. A. Jordan professors in the Florida Conference College, and Rev. F. Pasco to Duval High School.

W. N. Sheats, for Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

It is useless for your committee to detain you to emphasize the exceeding importance of the subject before us, which is equalled only by the gravity of the issue involved. Surely no thoughtful man can fail to appreciate the magnitude of the danger threatening us through this evil traffic. In all nations and among all classes of people, since the intoxicating cup was first placed to the lips of fallen humanity, intemperance has held an important place in the potent forces operating in disorganization of kingdoms, the overthrow of empires, and the wreck of nations. Not only do we behold its ravages in pagan nations, which might be expected to yield to this awful destroyer, but Christian nations subject to its blighting influences: the children of God surrender their crown, and even ministers of the Gospel of Christ ruin themselves and bring reproach upon the Church of God by submissively bowing to this tyrant king.

This evil is not only universal in its effects upon all nations, but it is complete in its disastrous effects upon all who become the unfortunate subjects of its mysterious power. It cuts down youth in its vigor, manhood in its strength and age in its weakness.

It breaks the hearts of fond fathers and loving mothers, extinguishes natural affections and bring down mourning age in sorrow to the grave. It destroys health and life, makes wives widows, children orphans and fathers fiends, and all of them paupers and beggars.

It covers the land with idleness, poverty, crime and disease. It disqualifies voters, corrupts elections, debases the legislator and endangers the government. It kills the body, destroys the soul, curses God and despises heaven.

It is with profound thanksgiving to Almighty God that we note the wonderful improvement of public opinion on this great question, and extract consolation from the fact that history warrants us in claiming that Methodism has lead the great temperance forces of the world.

We rejoice in the fact that many counties in our State have held special elections and voted down the accursed traffic, and we urge upon all of our people the importance of continuing in this good work till there shall not be a saloon in any part of our fair Florida.

We most heartily commend the heroic efforts of some of our brethren, who by their able sermons and faithful services, have done much to develop public opinion, arouse the consciencies of the people on the subject of moral reform and the enforcement of law, securing in some places the closing of the saloon on the Lord's Day, and in some places driving them from the town and communities.

We are also delighted to learn that the law of the church prohibiting drinking and drunkenness is being enforced, and that people are learning that their names cannot remain upon our church registers and petitions for saloon licenses at the same time.

But the battle grows fiercer and fiercer, and we must unitedly go forward to more glorious victories or submit to shameful defeat.

Feeling the need of an agressive campaign against this foe of God and men, we submit the following resolutions:

1. That we endeavor to have the subject of temperance more systematically taught in our Sunday-schools, that we most heartily approve the use of those text-books in tho secular schools which give scientific temperance instruction.

2. That we urge our preachers to preach oftener upon the subject.

9. And as far as possible to organize the people for systematic temperance work.

J. P. HILBURN, Chairman.

S. W. LAWLER, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee has carefully examined the District Conference Records, and find they are faithfully, accurately and neatly kept, with the following exceptions:

In the Tallahassee District Conference Minutes: The report of the Committee on Education is not recorded.

In the Bartow District Conference Minutes: Two motions are recorded as having been made, without stating whether or not they were carried. Also the minutes are not signed by either the Presiding Elder or Secretary.

The Tampa District Record Book has several blotches, and therefore is not as neat as it might have been.

In the Jacksonville District Record Book: We find the following supplement on page 48: "The renewal of the license of J. B. Case, New Smyrna, to preach was overlooked by the Conference, but was renewed by the P. E."

(Signed) W. F. NORTON, P. E.

The Live Oak District Conference Record Book is full, and in accordance with a resolution offered by the Committee on District Conference Records at our last Annual Conference we recommend that the said Live Oak District Conference Record Book be sent to the Florida Conference College, to be preserved in the College Library.

THOS. M. STRICKLAND, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

DEAR BRETHREN:—We are glad to note that the American Bible Society continues its noble work of disseminating the word of God.

The total issue for its 79th year were Bibles, Testaments and portions, 1,581,128, of which 735,221 were circulated in foreign lands. Of the total issue of 250,000,000 distributed throughout the world by the agency of Bible Societies alone since 1804, the American Bible Society has issued 60,000,000, or about one fourth. The expenditure for foreign work in the year ending March 31st 1895 were $152,710.77; and in the last fifteen years the cash outlay in foreign lands has been $2,033,363.59 besides what has been expended at the Bible House in printing the Scriptures in foreign languages for circulation abroad.

Of the 947,103 Bibles and portions issued from the Bible House during the past year, no less than 845,997 of them have been for home supply.

Half a million families in this country were visited by the society and its auxiliaries, and over 100,000 of them were without the Scriptures.

Turning our eyes from a general survey of the whole field to that which chiefly concerns us, the situation as it exists at present in Florida; we find a state of affairs that challenges our attention.

The sources of supply are totally inadequate to the needs of our people. There are but 15 or 18 places in the State where Bibles can be had at the cost of publication, or as gifts to the poor, and a careful estimate of the amount of assets of the different auxiliaries in the State shows that less than $725 is invested in the whole of Florida in the work of supplying our people with the Word of God through this benevolent agency.

Several methods are open to us to meet this emergency:

1st. We can co-operate with the District Superintendent in forming auxiliaries, and keeping alive and efficient those already established.

2d. We can promote the establishment of Bible committees at points where there are none at present.

3d. We can secure grants of books for sale, and for gratuitous distribution when the other two methods are not available.

4th. We can avail ourselves of the generous offer of the American Bible Society, which proposes under certain circumstances to supply children in destitute condition with the Bible at half price.

The District Superintendent reports that he has visited 9 charges since the last Conference; that 60 charges not visited by him have reported money collected by the pastors for the American Bible Society, and that 34 charges have made no report at all on this line.

In view of these facts, we would most earnestly recommend that Bible Societies be organized in every county, as far as possible, and where this is not practical that one of the methods suggested above be adopted for supplying our people with the Bible.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. Sale, Chairman.

R. M. Evans, Secretary.

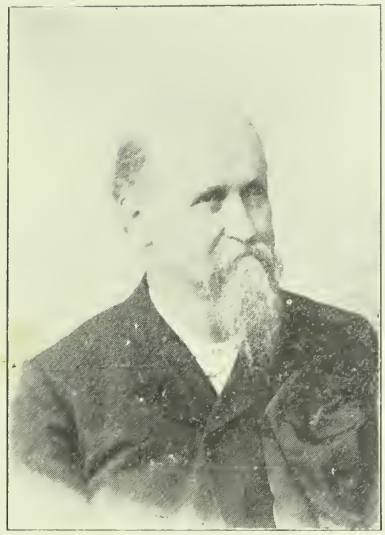
REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Your committee beg leave to make the following report:

We had submitted to us the annual exhibit of the editor and publisher, Dr. Anderson, from which we gather some facts which are gratifying, and some that are exceedingly painful. We note with pleasure, that the paper has increased in circulation during the past year, notwithstanding, the wide-spread depression under which our people have suffered. This demonstrates, we think, the fact that our paper could through the co-operation of all our preachers, have such prosperity as would free our beloved editor from financial embarrassment. But the sad fact is brought out in said exhibit that while the receipts from subscriptions and advertisement have been $2,728.68, the cost of getting the paper to subscribers has been $2,400.00, leaving only the small profit of $319.66 for the support of the editor and family. This ought not to be.

Of the management and editorial ability shown in the paper, it is needless for us to dwell at any great length. We can speak with commendable pride of many excellent, yea superior qualities of our own cherished Advocate. It is a clean paper. The clear scriptural exposition of the doctrines of our noble religion, and of Wesleyan Methodism are given the church from week to week in plain English and upon an elevated plane spirituality making a paper not only helpful to the ministry of our church, but one that we can put with perfect assurance into the families of our people. The paper deserves a wider circulation, and its editor a better support. While we know that resolutions are worthless unless put into practice, yet we have confidence in our brethren and can but think they will adopt and practice the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, as preachers and laymen will strive the coming year to put the Florida Chrisian Advocate in the homes of all our people and not supplant our own paper by other and unworthy publications.



Rev. T. W. Moore, D. D.,
Chairman Committee on Books and Periodicals.

Rev. Robt. H. Barnett, Conference Colporteur.

Hon. T. J. Perkins,
Tallahassee, Fla.

2nd. That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. Anderson to be editor of the Florida Christian Advocate for the ensuing Conference year.

Respectfully submitted,
S. E. PHILLIPS,
Chairman Committee.

REPORT OF OUR MISSIONARY TO TAMPA.

Having been engaged for eighteen years in missionary work among my own people in Key West, the sacred ties of friendship and brotherly love binding our hearts together, naturally growing stronger from year to year, it is not difficult to conceive what were the emotions of my heart when, at the close of our farewell service I announced to them my appointment to Tampa, where I was to organize a new branch of the Cuban mission. The general condition of the Cuban mission work is so well known that I deem it unnecessary to make a very extensive report on the same. I will, therefore, only give some items of information touching the progress and development of this new branch recently established in West Tampa and Ybor City.

No work is more difficult and trying than that of organizing a new mission field, especially when the people in whose behalf the effort is made are not only indifferent to, but prejudiced against, the same. However, we are taught in God's word that 'his grace is sufficient for us,' and that 'we can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth us.' Being confident of this truth, and claiming the ever-comforting and inspiring promise, 'Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world,' I pressed forward, trusting implicitly in the Lord for guidance and success. And thus it is that, at the close of this year, I am enabled to report the work in a most prosperous condition and bidding fair to greater achievements in the future.

We have two mission schools, with 140 pupils enrolled. These schools are under the auspices and direction of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission society. The teachers, Mrs. Rosa Valdez, Miss Emeline Valdez and Miss May Lockard, have done faithful work. About three months ago a sewing and fancy work class was started in each school, by Mrs. M. A. Wolff, the superintendent of the school work. Sister Wolff's enthusiasm and zeal for the Cuban mission has become proverbial. She gives her personal attention to this branch, which is becoming one of the most attractive features of our mission work among the children.

At the last annual convention of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission society, which met last August, in Asheville, N. C., an appropriation of $2,500 was made for the purpose of purchasing land and erecting a school building at Ybor City. This amount with the addition of $1,000 a gift, secured by Sister Wolff from a personal friend, has enabled the superintendent to purchase a most eligible piece of land on which a fine, two-story school building is now being constructed, the description of which is as follows: Ground space, 55x55 feet. The lower floor will contain one main school room 18x30 feet; a kindergarten room, 16x30 feet; one class-room, 16x18 feet, another 12x12 feet; a reception hall, 15x16 feet. The two rooms and the class room can be thrown into one auditorium, where about three hundred persons can be comfortably seated. The upper story will consist of eight rooms, including the bath room. It will have broad piazzas on three sides, closets, gas and all modern improvements. It is said by those who have seen the plan that it will be one of the neatest and most conveniently arranged school houses in Tampa. Brother J. H. Dorsey, one of Tampa's best contractors, and a faithful member of our church, is superintending the construction of this handsome edifice, which will be an honor to the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission society, as well as an incalcuable blessing to our Cuban people.

The mission has three Sabbath schools, two of Cubans, in West Tampa and Ybor City respectively, and one in West Tampa, of Americans, the latter having been organized quite recently; total number of pupils and teachers, 150. There are two flourishing juvenile societies, auxiliaries to the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission society, with about 140 members; dues collected during the year, about $45—I suppose the largest amount reported by any Woman's Juvenile auxiliary within the bounds of this Conference

About four weeks ago, I organized a Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission society, in West Tampa, with fourteen members and four honorary members.

There are three congregations—two of Cubans and one of English-speaking people; the latter was organized in West Tampa about six weeks ago. Our present membership is thirty-five, twenty-seven of whom were received by certificate and eight on profession of faith; eleven are probationers.

Two afternoons in the week are devoted to missionary visits by the pastor, accompanied by one or more of the teachers, whose faithfulness and interest in the welfare of the mission seems to increase daily. A weekly meeting of all the workers, and those especially interested in our mission work, is conducted by the pastor. These are seasons of deep spiritual joy to our souls. The dear Lord draws very near to us while praying together for his blessing upon ourselves and the work that lies so near to our hearts. Our greatest need today is a neat and commodious house of worship. There is wealth enough in our church to supply this urgent demand at once; but, ah! right here we are confronted by the sad fact that but a small portion of the wealth that is in the church is consecrated to the work of the church. May God speed the day when true self-denial and Christian liberality will be the universal practice among the disciples of Him who gave His very heart's blood for the salvation of the world!

It is our purpose to organize at once another American congregation and Sunday school at Ybor City. The Cuban mission charge in Tampa will then have four congregations and four Sunday schools.

I have received donations to the amount of $42.10; expended in various ways, $21.41; balance on hand, $20.69.

I can not close this brief report without making some allusion to the Cuban revolution, and the bearing it has on the successful establishment of the cause of the gospel in Cuba.

Let me assure those who are interested in the latter that there is a close and intimate connection between the two. Just as long as Cuba remains under the iron heel of Spanish supremacy, so long will Rome continue to sway her sceptre of papal power over our country. Spanish rule in Cuba means, beyond doubt, not only abject political slavery; but spiritual darkness, practical infidelity and death, as well. Think of it, dear brethren, right in the heart of this American continent and but ninety miles distant from your free republican shores, are one and a half million of human beings deprived by the despotism and tyrannical rule of a monarchical European government, not only of that sweet and precious boon of national liberty which you possess and enjoy, but of the universal right God gives to every man to "sit under his own vine and fig tree" and "worship Jehovah according to the dictates of his own conscience." No wonder that some three months ago, when twenty-five thousand Spanish soldiers were about to embark for Cuba from Spain for the purpose of putting down the rebellion by the force of arms, Pope Leo XIII wired his blessing to them, and assured them of his sympathy and prayers for their success.

But, blessed be the Lord, the blessing of the thirteenth Lion of Rome (Leo XIII) is not worthy to be compared to that of the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Lord Jesus Christ, who was "annointed to preach the gospel to the poor, to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bound.

It is very true that the new Spanish constitution grants the right of Protestant worship; but there are so many restrictions and limitations attached to this constitutional clause that only a limited religious toleration (not freedom) is enjoyed by our people. Holding religious services with closed doors and screened windows is the only privilege granted by the governor-captain-general, who is the supreme head of the civil, military and ecclesiastical jurisdictions of Cuba; and, even when this most sacreligious requirement is strictly complied with, no Protestant service or gospel meeting, whatever can be held without having first obtained a written permit from the civil government to that effect.

Brethren and friends, I earnestly ask your fervent prayers that the long-expected day of national and religious liberty may speedily dawn upon down trodden Cuba, and that the unadulterated and saving gospel of the Son of God may enter into the hearts and homes of our benighted people.

Superintendent.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

The Board of Missions of the Florida Annual Conference submit through its Secretary, the following report:

Under our care and supervision, have been during the year 1895, thirty-four missions, to each of which, some little aid has been given, thus enabling devoted men, in the spirit of their Master, by much self-denial, to carry out the supreme and crowning glory of his advent. "The poor have the gospel preached to them." Truly, as well, are they missionaries, who labor in the home as also, those who go to the foreign fields. Yea oftentimes the difficulties, hardships and self-denials of our brethren, on the missions of our Conferences, are more and greater than those of any foreign land. The men who fill these missions, encountering these difficulties, enduring these hardships, and undergoing these sacrifices, are heroes indeed and in truth. All honor to them! In Florida, effectual doors have been opened wide to our church, the field is white; the opportunities are golden; the possibilities grand; the call is loud—the needs are pressing! What shall we do? Will not the Parent Board give us some help? Ours is an urgent case. Help us!

The following appropriations were made for the year 1896. Meagre indeed, when we consider that some of these works will not pay $200.00; many not over $250.00. Rigid economy and self-denial will be necessary, on the part of our Missionaries:

Colleges.

EMORY COLLEGE, OXFORD, GA.

When Founded.—This famous institution was chartered in 1836, and has been in successful operation for nearly sixty years.

Its Owners.—It is the joint property of the Florida and Georgia Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and on its alumni roll are found the names of many of the foremost preachers and laymen of the church in these and other States.

Its Alumni.—Its roll of alumni now numbers above 1,100, and the names of those who have taken partial courses in its halls exceed 6,000. Among its promment graduates may be mentioned the late L. Q. C. Lamar, Associate Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court; Bishop Joseph S. Key; Bishop A. G. Haygood; General James F. Izlar, Member of Congress from South Carolina; Hon. Olin Wellborn, Member of Congress from Texas; Hon. James E. Cobb, Member of Congress from Alabama; Hon. Thomas M. Norwood, U. S. Senator from Georgia; Judge Woodson P. White, of Florida; Hon. W. N. Sheats, State School Commissioner of Florida; Judge Walter T. Turnbull; General R. W. Corswell; Hon. Thomas Hardeman, Member of Congress from Georgia; Hon. J. J. Jones, Member of Congress from Georgia; and Rev. Young J. Allen, L. L. D. one of the foremost men in the Orient.

Its Location.—The college is located in the village of Oxford, Newton county, Ga., forty miles east of Atlanta, one mile from the Georgia Railroad. A street car line runs to the depot. Oxford is proverbially healthy, and emphatically the student's home. The village is on a high granite ridge, with no possible local cause of sickness. Its literary, social and religious advantages, combined, are unexcelled. By special act of the Legislature, drinking and gambling saloons are excluded from the town and from within one mile of its corporate limits. The quiet seclusion of the place invites to study, and prevailing influences around favor the formation of good habits and the development of a true manhood.

Its Endowment and Equipment.—The endowment of the institution, which constantly increases, now exceeds $200,000, and its equipment was never in its long history so good. Its faculty is large and able. Its buildings are commodious and its apparatus excellent.

Its Patronage.—For a number of years its patronage has exceeded that of any other male college in Georgia or Florida.

Expenses.—The cost of a year at Emory College is as low as can be found at any first-class college in the United States—lower than the expense at most. Board can be had at $8 to $16.50 a month. The entire expenses of the college year may be brought within $200; many students go through a year on less.

THE WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

EVERY REASONABLE ASSURANCE,

you must have, that, committing to Wesleyan your daughter's education—her preparation for life, its responsibilities and its possibilities—you have made the safest selection. And for the following reasons:

Besides the one reason which should be sufficient in the absence of all others, educational authority, i. e., the opinion of one like Bishop Haygood, who has given his time and thought to the great subject of education, and understands it, as the lawyer, the law, the physician, medicine, we give other reasons:

1. THE TEMPORAL LAW.—"Survival of Fittest"—Wesleyan is the "oldest female college in the world." The period of her existence has witnessed revolution and devastation. Men, Movements, Institutions, have been born and have died WESLEYAN SURVIVES! More. To seasoned wisdom and character, incomparable prestige, reputation for the substantial and reliable in education, she strives to add the most modern spirit of energy, enterprise, progress. For instance, (a) Lately added Berlitz System of Language—Prof. A. BEZIA DE BORDES, Director, Graduate University of France. (b) Instruction by educational tours in Europe and in America, at comparatively small cost.

2. HIGHEST HUMAN TEST. "By their fruits," etc. "Wesleyan has left her impress on Southern womanhood from the Pacific to Tybee."—Bishop McTyeire.

3. EQUIPMENT AND LOCATION.—"Best Plant in the South." —Bishop Haygood. "OLD WESLEYAN" (valued at quarter of a million dollars), beautiful, spacious, imposing, is the crown and ornament of one of the loveliest Southern cities—MACON—in the heart of the "EMPIRE STATE OF THE SOUTH," with a picturesque, charming surrounding country. Different lines of RAILWAY connect with all parts of the United States.

4. CLIMATE.—Highly salubrious. Tenth United States census gives Macon second-best health-record of American cities.

N. B. From the opening of past session to six weeks before close, with enrollment of 130 boarders FROM ELEVEN DIFFERENT STATES, the amount of their doctors' bills was FOURTEEN DOLLARS!!!

5. FACULTY.—Eighteen or twenty officers and teachers.

6. TERMS.—Said to be twenty-five per cent. lower than those of any other leading female college in the South.

Opens September 18, 1896.

THE FLORIDA CONFERENCE COLLEGE.

It gives us pleasure to announce that, amid the depression of the times and all the opposition it has met, our college is still running and prospering.

We are devoutly thankful that through all the difficulties of the past a kind Providence has safely guided our institution, raising up friends to give it patronage and support. We should also be grateful to God for the good health of teachers and students during the current session, and the measure of success that has attended their work. Since the addition of another member to our faculty the teaching force has been sufficient for all the requirements of a thorough college course.

PATRONAGE.—The enrollment during the present session has reached 58. While this number is below that of the same date last year, the number of boarding pupils is greater than it was at the close of last session. We have six students preparing for either the ministry or mission work. Twelve others are children of ministers. Hence the college is at present educating eighteen pupils for our church. This fact should increase the interest of the church in working for the college.

CHANGES.—Some changes have been made in the boarding departments. While heretofore the boys and girls have boarded at separate places, usually paying $12.00 per month for board, many of the young men now take their meals at College Home where the young ladies board, and by this arrangement the cost of board has been reduced to $10.00 per month.

This session has been divided into two equal terms of eighteen weeks each.

The course of study and general rules and regulations are substantially the same as they were last year.

SOCIAL AND MORAL CONDITIONS.—Our college is in a town noted for good morals, and the students as a rule are industrious and orderly; making the maintenance of discipline a comparatively easy task Many students by taking an active part in the devotional and literary exercises have already made marked improvement and are thus preparing to fill useful stations in social and public life.

A TRAINING SCHOOL.—We take pleasure in announcing that our college is a training school for Vanderbilt or any good university of our land, and we advise our young preachers to take a theological course at Vanderbilt after they graduate, but we do not profess to be a training school for any other college since our course of study compares favorably with that of the oldest and best college in the South.

A SUGGESTION.—We repeat the suggestion made by President Melton last year, that a day be set apart as "College Day," when every preacher in the Conference will preach on the subject of Christian Education, call attention to our college, and solicit the names of those who desire catalogues and information.

In conclusion we should be devoutly thankful to God for the blessings of the past year and the hopeful outlook for the future. Let us enter upon the new year with a stronger faith and a more earnest effort to advance His cause.

J. T. NOLEN, President.

[Our Conference College located at Leesburg, in one of the most charming and healthful sections of Florida, deserves special consideration from every lover of christian education in our State, and we are pleased to give place in our year book to almost the entire report of its President, Dr. Nolen.—EDITOR.]

WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

Memoirs.

MRS. SUSAN E. JORDAN.

Mrs. Susan E. Jordan, wife of Rev. W. C. Jordan, was born in Telfair county, Georgia, January 10, 1841, and fell asleep in Jesus at her home near Bartow, June 19, 1895. Her maiden name was Weeks.

The older settlers of her native county will remember her family as among the best, having been held in high esteem for good citizenship and piety. Some thirty years since the family removed from Georgia, settled in what was then Hillsboro, but now Polk county, Florida. The mother of the deceased is said to have been endowed with all womanly virtues, and specially noted for her sterling common sense and consistent Christian character. Such a woman was worthy to be the mother of our beloved Sister Jordan.

Sister Jordan embraced religion and united with the church in her fourteenth year. Developing into a beautiful womanhood, and possessing many personal charms, the enticements which draw in the direction of a worldly life were doubtless strong, but Christian training and a genuine experience of religion in early life fortified her against all blandishments and hurtful influences. Her girlhood life was a true prophecy of what she was to be in the maturity of the coming years.

In her twentieth year she was united in marriage with Rev. W. C. Jordan, of the Florida Conference. In full sympathy with him and his vocation as an itinerant from the beginning of her married life she easily, and cheerfully adjusted herself to the duties, sacrifices, privations and toils incident to her responsible position. For nine years she traveled with her husband, changing places of habitation as often as fields of labor were changed. This was prior to the introduction of railroads into South Florida. A move across the country of seventy-five or one hundred miles was then quite an undertaking, involving much discomfort and often danger to the health of wife and children. Through all these years she went forward without a murmur, carrying the sunshine of God's love in her heart and beaming from her countenance. Her presence was as joy and benediction wherever she went. An increasing family, coupled with failing health rendered it necessary that she should have a fixed home. Providence opened the way, and it was secured; and it was fondly hoped that in the quiet and rest of that home, she would regain health and strength. For several years her health continued about the same—better and worse by turns—until finally consumption, the latent disease from which she had long suffered, fully developed, and from that time her decline, though still very gradual, was more marked.

Meanwhile her devoted husband took his appointments from year to year, and served them faithfully and efficiently; nor would she entertain a moment the thought of his retiring from the work on account of her failing health. She always helped and never hindered him in "his loved employ."

When appointments were to be filled or ministerial engagements met she never said "stay," but always "go," and she would see to it in person, or through her dutiful daughters, that the valise was packed in due time, so there would be no delay in leaving.

Her husband was necessarily absent from home frequently, and when on district work, was often away for weeks at a time, but such was her patient endurance and cheerful resignation and steadiness of faith in the God of all grace and comfort, that the home was kept bright and happy. How much, under God, the church owes to the consecrated, heroic and self sacrificing devotion of the wives of itinerant preachers, can never be known till the light of eternity breaks upon the records of the present life.

She was the mother of nine children, eight of whom survive. Never was mother more devoted to children, or children to mother. She trained them religiously, and they were impressed with her noble character, and as a result they were a comfort and honor and a blessing. Their filial piety was most touching and beautiful.

Failing by almost imperceptible degrees, she did not take her bed until a few months of the final end. Her suffering was long continued and sometimes severe, but she never murmured. There was never a cloud in her spiritual sky! She would sometimes say, with St. Paul "to depart and be with Christ is far better," but she would add, "God knows what is best; His will be done!"

She was often unutterably happy in the assurance that "the blood of Christ cleanseth from all sin." She anticipated death, not only without fear, but with rapturous triumph. When the final hour came, surrounded by her sorrowing family, she passed away to the heavenly home as serenely and restfully as a tired child falling to sleep on the bosom of maternal love.

Of her last conversations with husband and children—her chidings of their grief, her efforts to comfort them, her firm faith that they would all meet in heaven—I will not write. Some things are too tender and sacred to be recited even in a paper like this; it is enough that they will live in the memories of those for whose sake they were uttered.

It was my privilege to visit her repeatedly. I thought to be the means of confering upon her some spiritual benefit, but instead, in every instance, the benefit accrued to me. She was sweetly abiding in Jesus and needed nothing. "Let me die the death of the righteous and my last end be like his.,'

C. A. Fulwood.

MRS. HARRIET GILLESPIE.

Mrs. Harriet Gillespie Fulwood was born in Charleston, S. C., April 18, 1831, and was born of God in 1847, while kneeling at the altar in Wesley Chapel, Savannah, Georgia; married Rev. Charles A. Fulwood April 14, 1850, and entered upon her heavenly rest October 13, 1895, at Bartow, Florida.

Life's lengthening shadows fell gently upon her: in the way of duty angels met her, and she learned their speech. It was given our sainted sister to possess the exceeding joy of constant union with Christ, and in this experience her soul found a comfort for which earth had no exchange.

Activity in Christ's cause was a passion with her. Day by day she studied how best to exalt Him. Wherever her lot was cast she brought to bear the treasures of a refined and cultivated nature and a heart filled with love to Christ, in helping, inspiring, comforting and blessing all who needed and all who mourned.

Reared in the school of southern womanhood, one can understand how her modest and gentle nature must have been tried, as the first President of the Womans' Missionary Society of the Florida Conference. Going about organizing auxiliaries, and combating difficulties in this new work, her patience, and consideration for the opinions of others, disarmed opposition and won the "right-of-way" in our State for "womans' work for woman." The tiny plant of grace, under her fostering love and service grew into a stately beauty, and the fragrance of its presence attests the approval of Heaven upon her sacrifice and devotion to this cause.

In all the years of her married life she was a true helpmeet of her husband. The inspiration of her faith nerved her for the toils and sacrifices of a minister's wife, and in whatever lot her life was cast, there she found, and rejoiced to do the work the Master gave into her hands. Whether on country charge, or city station, or district work, there she ministered to the sad and heavy-hearted, speaking words of cheer; praying with the penitent; binding up the wounded in heart; pouring in the wine and oil of gracious consolation; chiding lovingly the erring; seeking out the discouraged and helping the fallen to the sheltering arms of Infinite Love: so she dwelt, a blessing, among her people.

There was a divine contagion in her presence, Jesus was with her, and she attracted others to goodness. Gentle, modest, self-distrusting, she never thought she was making the world luminous about her: neither do the stars think their light sufficient to brighten the sky; but clear-shining as those orbs above us was the life she lived in the sight of all.

Her sympathy and interest in young people were beautiful. They felt drawn to her: she was their confidential friend, and many a tried and tempted girl sought her advice in hours of direst need; and never sought in vain. Ardent in her friendship, the young people felt her presence as protection and inspiration, and her advice was as a law ever respected.

Her love of nature was tender and discriminating. With her own hands she beautified the places where she dwelt: flowers grew and bloomed about her. She recognized this world as belonging to God, and in every way she strove to express her sense of His beauty and goodness. The soft and tender night spoke to her soul of love sweeter than human thought. Hour after hour she would watch the firmament as it was bespangled with the light of stars. Thoughts sweet and profound solaced her in the silvery sheen of moonlight, and the voice of birds told of a sunlit clime where life is love and melody, and whose joy is unending.

Her end was peace. In the full assurance of a blissful immortality she met the last ordeal. Death was no intruder: she had long awaited the moment of her deliverance. Soft as angelic footfall came the messenger: she turned her radient soul toward his presence, and lo, she was found with God!

R. L. Honiker.

MRS. LOUISA MARIA VERNON.

Mrs. Louisa Maria Vernon (nee Niel), the wife of Rev. I. A. Vernon, was born September 27, 1847, on the Isl nd Guernsey, and died December 11, 1895, at Brooksville, Fla.

Sister Vernon's life was one of wide travel and varied experiences. She removed early in life from her native home to the Island of Jersey where she grew to womanhood. Her intellectual attainments and educational advantages were of a high order. After completing her education she taught for two years in Stockholm, Sweden. In 1881 she joined her parents in Florida, and in 1889 married Rev. I. A. Vernon, and during the few years she sojourned at his side she brought to his assistance thoughts and graces with which she was so richly endowed.

CONFERENCE YEAR BOOK AND MINUTES 1895-6.

After some delay the Souvenir Minute Book is before you. It is not quite what the editor hoped it would be, but many things have to be taken into consideration. The combination of our W. M. S. Minutes is a new feature, and I doubt not will be profitable and appreciated by all concerned. Then we have before us a number of our brethren in photo-print. Some of them are not as good as others—but some photographs were not good. I tried to get some others, but failed, and had I had time and means would have gotten all the brethren.

The reports are all in full and statistics as accurate as it was possible to make them. With the exception of "table No. 2, the whole book is set in large clear type and leaded. This makes a clean open page—pleasant alike to look at and to read. Some mistakes will be found perhaps—typhograpical and other. If so please notify me at once and the corrections will be made through the Advocate columns. And, brother don't criticise the book and the work and say "you could have done better" unless you have tried, for if you have not tried, you probably could not.

J. B. LEY,
Associate Editor.

SOME FACTS OF OUR CHURCH HISTORY.

At the foundry in London November 11, 1739, Methodism had its birth place. Five years later at the same place the first "Conference" was held composed of John Wesley and six other clergymen, besides four lay preachers, eleven in all.

The first "Society" organized in America by Robert Strawbridge on Sam's Creek in Maryland about 1760.

A few years later the first church was built in that neighborhood, and was "twenty-two feet square." It had "no regular floor." This was the "cradle of Methodism" in America.

Seven years after the first society was organized the first "Annual" Conference was held which represented 33,272 Methodists. The regular organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church was effected in Baltimore in 1794. Drs. Coke and Asbury were the first Bishops.

New York City claims the honor of being the seat of the first delegated General Conference which met there May 1, 1812.

The first General Conference of the M. E. Church South, was held in Petersburg, Va., in 1846, two years after the separation of the church.

The Florida Conference was organized in Tallahassee, Fla., Feb. 6, 1845. Bishop Joshua Soule presiding. The sketch below is from "Fifty Years an Itinerant in Florida" by Rev. J. C. Ley.

"The General Conference which met in New York 1844, authorized the dividing of the Georgia Conference which then embraced all of Georgia, East and Middle Florida. The line drawn started at Ft. Gaines, thence to Albany, Ga., thence to the Ocmulgee river, down the same to the Altamaha to the Atlantic ocean. On the 6th of Feb. 1845, our first Conference met in the city of Tallahassee, Bishop Soule in the chair, Thomas C. Benning was elected Secretary.

"There were including transfers twelve elders, viz.: John Slade, T. C. Benning, P. P. Smith, J. W. Yarbrough, T. W. Cooper, R. H. Howren, A. Martin, A. Peeler, W. W. Griffin, S. P. Richardson, A. J. Deavours and J. J. Richards. Undergraduates, J. W. Mills, A. D. Russell, James Harris, G. A. Mallette, N. R. Fleming, J. N. Miner, E. L. T. Blake, John Penny, S. G. Chiles, D. L. White, F. A. Johnson,

A. Graham, R. A. Griffin, G. C. Clarke, G. W. Pratt, J. M. N. Low, J. Carraway, J. H. Bryan and J. C. Ley, thirty-one in all.

"These formed our forlorn hope. The object to cultivate the field from Albany, Ga., to Key West, from the Atlantic ocean to the Apalachicola river. But our circuits were large, most of the preachers filling appointments at from six to seven places in the week, and thus our territory was substantially covered."

Of these only three are living S. P. Richardson who is now a superannuate and member of the North Georgia Conference.

E. L. T. Blake, also superannuated and living at Ocala, Fla., and J. C. Ley, still on the effective list and serving by appointment of Bishop Granbery, the Micanopy Ct.

During the fifty-one years of our history as a Conference we have had but nine Conference Secretaries, of these five served only one year each. P. P. Smith served fifteen years and our present Secretary, F. Pasco, has served consecutively twenty-three years.

OUR BISHOPS.

The Methodist Church South, has had twenty-three Bishops of whom thirteen have passed away. Ten are still with us, the eldest John C. Keener being in his seventy-sixth year. He has been Bishop twenty-six years. The youngest is Chas. B. Galloway, born in 1849 and elected and ordained Bishop together with three others in 1886. Bishop G. F. Pierce presided over the Florida Conference eight times. Of those who have died Bishop Bascom did not preside at any session of our Conference. Of the living all have been with us one or more times except Bishop Wilson.

N. B.—Since the above was in print, our beloved Bishop Haygood has passed from earthly scenes and labors to heavenly reward and rest.

Journal of Annual Meeting.

The Delegates to the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Florida Conference were met by the Reception Committee upon their arrival at Gainesville, and kindly greeted and escorted to their homes, so kindly provided for them.

At 7:30 the delegates with a large number of the citizens of Gainesville assembled at the handsome new residence of Mr. W. T. Jackson, where the reception was given. The pleasant wife and charming daughter, Miss Pearl, of the host did all in their power to make each and every guest feel welcome and make her acquainted with the other delegates and visitors present. Miss Ellie Tydings, our missionary to Mexico, was among the guests. So well did they succeed that the call to song and prayer at close of evening was a surprise to all. The song "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," was heartily sung by all present and a fervent prayer was offered by Rev. T. C. Bradford that God would bless this annual meeting, to the good of each one present and to the good of Gainesville.

The guests then dispersed, thanking the hostess for a most enjoyable evening.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The Fourteenth Annual Session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society for Florida Conference convened in the Methodist church at 9 o'clock.

The President, Mrs. S. S. Harris in the chair, who conducted the devotional exercises of song, scripture reading and prayer. This was followed by a hearty welcome by Mrs. W. T. Thomas, most gracefully rendered. The response by Mrs. Henry Perkins, of Monticello, District Secretary of Tallahassee District, was as pleasing and showed appreciation. A second response by the President was made, and an earnest appeal for more consecration, especially among the younger members of the church. She told how Gainesville had once been called the "beacon light" of the District and how she regretted its going out and hoped that on this occasion it would be re-lighted.

Mrs. E. H. Swain was then elected Recording Secretary for the meeting.

Mrs. T. J. Roberts being retained at home by illness, enrollment was made as follows:

President—Mrs. S. S. Harris.

DISTRICT SECRETARIES.

Tallahassee—Mrs. H. Perkins, Monticello.

Gainesville—Mrs. E. H. Swain, Anthony.

Orlando—Mrs. M. J. Bryant, Leesburg.

Tampa—Mrs. J. B. Johnston, Dade City.

Bartow—Represented by Miss Miriam Frazee, Lady Lake.

Delegates present—Mrs. F. Daiger, Bessie Hill, Frances Blocker, Master Johnston, all of Dade City; Mrs. T. J. Watkins, Rochelle; Mrs. J. J. Jones, Live Oak; Mrs. J. J. Harris, Citra; Mrs. T. C. Bradford, Gainesville; Mrs. Arnold, Webster; Mrs. E. J. Holmes, Gainesville.

The reports of District Secretaries were called for. Tampa being called first, the District Secretary, Mrs. J. B. Johnston, then reported. (See report).

At close of which, Miss Ellie Tydings of Anthony, who has been in Mexico for six years made an interesting talk on her work in Durango, the most fanatical of all Mexican cities She described the low social condition of the poor, the indifference to same in the higher classes, the refining influence of Protestantism, the opposition of priests, modes of burial—no one but most wealthy can use caskets, but open graves are kept and five or six corpses put in one grave—extortion of priests for burial or marriage services and many other items of interest.

At the close of her talk she was presented with a quilt made by the Orange Blossoms of Dade City, from which society the donor was a delegate.

The following chairmen to committees were appointed by the President:

Mrs. J. J. Jones—Junior Work.
Mrs. H. Perkins—Finance.
Mrs. E. H. Swain—Publication.
Mrs. M. J. Bryant—Resolution.
Mrs. J. B. Johnston—Extension of Work.
Adjournment with doxology.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Afternoon session was opened by devotional services by Mrs. J. M. Bryant.

After roll call and reading of Minutes the report of Tallahassee District was called and Mrs. Perkins responded with an interesting report. (See report). After which the meeting adjourned itself into committee meetings until 4 o'clock, the hour for closing.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S SERVICE.

The meeting was opened by Rev. T. J. Philips, Presiding Elder of the Live Oak District, who conducted the devotional services.

The report of the Conference Secretary, Mrs. L. T. Phillips, was read by the President. It was a most thrilling appeal. This was followed by a paper on "Our Ideal Lives," by Mrs. E. H. Swain, which was most attentively listened to by all, and seemed to make a strong impression. (See paper).

The meeting was closed by Rev. T. J. Philips.

SATURDAY MORNING SESSION.

The meeting convened at 9 o'clock A. M., and was opened by Mrs. J. B. Johnston by devotional services.

After reading the Minutes, the completion of report for Tampa District was made.

Gainesville District was next called for and responded to by Mrs. E. H. Swain, of Anthony, the District Secretary. (See report).

Report on Extension of Work was called for and given by Mrs. Johnston, Chairman; adopted. (See report).

Mrs. Harris showed the Convention "The Light Bearers" card, which is used by parents of very small children. She also explained honorary membership dues as connected with the contingent fund. She also told how $40 would support a scholarship in China, and stated that one called the Annie E. Richardson scholarship was sustained by a superannuated minister of our Conference, and she hoped it would always be sustained by our Conference, if the present patron was not able so to do.

The report of Bartow District was made by Miss Miriam Frazee, who has filled the unexpired term of her mother, Mrs. H. B. Frazee, who was called from earthly labor last summer. Miss Frazee deserves much credit for the faithful manner in which she has performed these duties. Her report showed she had not been idle. (See report).

Live Oak District was represented by Mrs. J. J. Jones, of Live Oak, in the absence of the District Secretary, Mrs. F. R. Bridges. (No report).

Meeting adjourned with prayer by President.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Opening service conducted by Mrs. T. J. Watkins, of Rochelle.

Reading of Minutes was followed by the report of Orlando District by Mrs. M. J. Bryant. (See report).

Jacksonville District Secretary being absent, the report was read by Recording Secretary. (See report).

Committee on Finance was reported by Mrs. Perkins, Chairman, and adopted. (See report).

Committee on Publication reported by Mrs. Swain, Chairman, and adopted. (See report).

Mrs. Swain was also instructed to write a letter to Dr. Anderson, thanking him for his co-operation by giving us the column in the Florida Christian Advocate.

After prayer, that God would give wisdom in selection of officers, the annual election was held with the following results: (See directory):

Mrs. S. S. Harris was also elected delegate to Woman's Board next June.

Saturday evening was spent in a social evening at the parsonage at which time there were many Gainesville ladies present, and an organization perfected for an adult auxiliary of W. F. M. S. The beacon light was rekindled.

SABBATH.

The day opened with the Epworth League meeting led by Mrs. Swain. The anniversary sermon by Rev. T. J. Phillips on "Oneness with Christ," was instructive and encouraging.

A mass meeting in the afternoon of the children was addressed by Miss Tydings, Mrs. Swain and Mrs. Jones. Miss Tyding's talk on Mexico, its customs and life was attentively listened to by all, both old and young.

The night service was opened by Rev. T. C. Bradford.

Mrs. Harris then addressed the congregation on the general work, making interesting statements and earnest exhortations in behalf of "Woman's Work for Woman." She said the amount raised in 1895 was the smallest raised for several years, but hoped 1896 record would be different. The W. F. M. S. has 2,000 members in the Conference and they should have at least $2,000.

Miss Tydings then read a most interesting and valuable paper on Mexico, its needs and its religion.

Mrs. Bryant Chairman Committee on Resolutions then read the report, thanking Gainesville for its hospitality in so many ways. Also railroad and Gainesville "Sun" for courtesies extended. Which was adopted by standing vote. Mrs. Harris then made a request that the people of Gainesville make Miss Tydings a life member by the payment of $20. $13 was immediately raised and the Gainesville Orange Blossoms propose to raise the balance. After singing "Christ for the World We Sing," the meeting adjourned with doxology by Brother Bradford.

MONDAY MORNING.

The devotional service was held at 9 o'clock, by Mrs. Bradford. Memorial Resolutions were read by Mrs. Bryant. (See Memoirs.)

Mrs. J. J. Jones read resolution on Juvenile work. (See report).

Attention was especially called to the standing offer of Mrs. Swain concerning the Banner for Juvenile Society contributing the most pro rata. Citra was pronounced to be the Banner Society for 1895.

Reporters were appointed from the delegates to local papers by the President.

Recording Secretary also instructed to attend to the printing of the Minutes.

Resolution of Protest against Sabbath desecration by Sabbath excursions was made and adopted.

Society voted on place of next meeting, which was decided in favor of Monticello.

After doxology meeting adjourned sine die.

REPORT OF BARTOW DISTRICT.

What a joy it would be if my precious mother were with us to render this report as usual to the W. F. M. S. with the great advantage of her experience and devotion. To her it was an obligation in which she took great interest and pleasure; which she discharged long and faithfully. But by a strange providence she has been called by her Heavenly Father in the prime of life and usefulness. What an unuttarable loss to our home! But with a subdued pleasure I took her place by request till a new secretary was elected at the annual meeting.

Precious mother! She has carried her message to the mansions above where the pure in heart see the King in his beauty and join the triumph of the skies.

> "Servant of God, well done!
> Rest from thy loved employ;
> Thy battle fought, the victory won,
> Enter thy Master's joy."

Until last June she discharged the duties of District Secretary. During the month of May she made her last visit to the district meeting at Myers, though then quite feeble. Many private letters speak of the inspiration and quickening that her presence was to all who attended the meeting.

Since July I have by order of the President, received reports from the various auxiliaries.

The report of the Bartow district is very good, although I live so far from it that it has been impossible for me to visit any of the old or to organize any new auxiliaries.

One or two societies have suspended for a time, a little encouragement I think will bring them back to new life and vigor. The greater number of auxiliaries are still doing well, and although the stringency of the times has reduced the receipts still there is a general interest and zeal in the work.

The auxiliaries at Key West deserve special notice. The O. B.'s there are doing well also. First charge O. B.'s is the largest and most energetic society in the district.

The little societies at Ft. Ogden also are doing well, and the Secretary sets a good example to others by always reporting promptly and well. I might mention others but my space forbids it.

The general outlook under the circumstances is encouraging, still there is great room for improvement.

The new district secretary may be able to visit some societies and organize others, and it is hoped, will be abundantly successful. I think she will find a wide and rich field for work, and trust that the district will prosper under her supervision.

Respectfully,

MIRIAM W. FRAZEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF ORLANDO DISTRICT.

The returns do not show increase in the past as compared with the previous year, but this district suffered greatly from the freeze, and many of our best workers moved away; let us hope to aid the cause in their new homes.

There are in the Orlando District nine adult societies and six juvenile, making in all fifteen; with a total of three hundred and six members. A juvenile society was formed at Titusville during the District Conference, but it has not prospered.

Amount of money raised, $215.91.

41 W. M. Advocates taken. 43 little workers taken in the district.

Delegates from our societies were invited to attend the District Conference at Titusville, where we held a public service, the preachers in charge kindly giving particulars of our work in their churches, and reading the report where no delegate was in attendance.

We shall begin the new year with cheerful hope, because the Lord is our helper.

Respectfully submitted,

M. J. BRYANT, Secretary.

Dec. 13th, 1895.

TALLAHASSEE DISTRICT REPORT.

A careful review of the District which has been committed to my unworthy hands during the past year, reveals I am sorry to say no advance.

How much of this is due to my own inefficiency I leave you to judge. I have not hesitated to present the claims of Foreign Missions whenever and wherever I had opportunity, no fear of intruding or giving offense has deterred me.

I have realized that every member I could introduce into the connection would be one more soul whose spiritual condition would be deepened whose capacity for religious joy would be increased, whose opportunities for serving herself and others would be multiplied. While I bring my failures to you and to Him, with sorrow, I feel that my efforts however barren of results, as regards others, have brought a blessing to my own heart.

If my work has united me more closely to this band of earnest consecrated workers from whom I have received most indulgent kindness and loving encouragement. I have felt strengthened and sustained by your prayers—my own God whose we are, and whom we serve—bless us every one, and make us true missionaries of the cross and while we may not bare this banner to foreign shores, we may by patient self denial, by systematic giving, by beautiful consecrated lives hold up the hands of those who have gone in your places and in mine to carry the glad light of the gospel across the seas.

Two of our auxiliaries, Miccossukie and Aucilla, have emerged into Parsonage and Woman's Missionary Societies. I gave them up with regret but I rejoice that though in different organizations they are still banded together to work for the Master. Our juvenile work is increasing in interest, I think, which is a very encouraging feature of the situation. We have now in the Tallahassee District eight auxiliaries with 142 members; five juvenile societies 152 members.

Amount raised and forwarded to treasurer $417.12.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. HENRY PERKINS.

GAINESVILLE DISTRICT REPORT.

As we glance backward over the year 1895 how many unfulfilled aspirations, how many thwarted desires we see. Had we even imagined, a second freeze, could we have gone to our homes one year ago with such strong ambitions for this year. I am afraid we would "have faltered and fallen out by the way," but what a blessing is the ignorance of future days and how wonderful the promise "sufficient unto the day" is Gods rich grace.

On looking at my District Secretary's book, I find we opened the year with seven auxiliaries, we close with nine; opened with five Orange Blossom societies, closed with six. This we realize to be but small gain, yet is something, the something we dared not hope during the early months of the year. We see where dime by dime have come in until the total shows $156.76. While we are far behind last year, was not this worth striving for? We shall take up a new year with braver hearts.

Our District Convention was held at Anthony July 6–10, in connection with the W. P. H. M. S. and a most interesting season was passed. Our President was with us to inspire and aid us, and all felt the inspiration. A number of new subscribers to Little Workers, W. M. A. and "World for Christ" were obtained.

The great desire of our heart, is that each charge in Gainesville District may have a W. F. M. S. before the close of 1896.

Humbly begging the co-operation and prayers of the pastors, I am yours in the work.

Mrs. E. H. Swain,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION OF WORK.

Resolved, 1. That we extend the work by consecrating ourselves more fully to it, taking the counsel of our Bishop to give more "knee work" and remember the promises to those who ask.

2. That we favor the use of mite boxes, encourage thank offerings, birthday offerings and use the Missionary Programme, Missionary Teas and all laudable means, consistent with our Holy religion. Also recommend the use of the enrollment card light bearers, etc.,

3. That we sustain our President and do all in our power to raise the $400 special promised by her at the annual board meeting.

4. That we exert ourselves more to extend the circulation of the Woman's Advocate and Little Worker. That we encourage house to house visitation among members of our church not now interested in missions.

5. That we endeavor to secure the co-operation of our pastors and that we express our appreciation of same.

6. That District Secretaries be advised to ascertain each church where no auxiliary has been formed and correspond with members, distributing by mail literature, leaflets, etc., and at all times to "sow beside all waters."

7. That where it is not practicable to have an Orange Blossom Society the children be invited to the adult societies.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. J. B. Johnston,
Miss E. B. Tydings,
Mrs. T. S. Daiger,
Committee.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

1st. Knowing that hard times makes retrenchment necessary with most of us, yet believing it to be both disloyal and dishonoring to begin such retrenchment at His house, we, the women of the Conference Society, do pledge ourselves to increased effort to pay and collect dues of members; more especially as appropriations are based on the membership.

2nd. That we urge the payment of 10 cents or more per month, by each member, to constitute a Conference contingent fund, which if inadequate may be supplemented by honorary member's dues.

3rd. Attention is called to the fact that we have two girls in our State who will soon be ready for the Training School, and we plead for an increased Easter offering which will be appropriated towards paying expenses for these candidates for Foreign Mission Work.

4th. If we love the Lord Jesus Christ and the advancement of His kingdom over the earth; we must get upon a higher plane of Christian giving to this end, we urge upon our officers, District Secretaries and auxiliary officers to educate our people upon the subject of systematic and proportionate giving during this year.

5th. That our President be requested to appoint a committee to solicit advertisements for our Minutes.

MRS. J. H. PERKINS,
MRS. T. J. WATKINS,
MRS. T. C. BRADFORD,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUVENILE WORK.

WHEREAS, Being cognizant of the fact that our juvenile branch of the Missionary work should be inspired with more zeal, and should be induced to take a greater interest in this work. We, as a commlttee beg leave to report as follows:

1st. That we should as far as practicable secure the younger members of the church as lady managers of the juvenile societies; they being more in sympathy with the children are better qualified to interest them. But above all other considerations, they should be consecrated entirely to the Lord and the Missionary cause.

2nd. That the lady managers should have the hearty cooperation of the parents and the interest and sympathy of the pastors, for with their assistance the society must be greatly encouraged.

3rd. That we urge the children to subscribe for and read the little juvenile paper the "Little Worker."

4th. That mite boxes be used generally, and particularly for birth days.

5th. That entertainments of an innocent nature be given as frequently as possible to inspire the interest of both boys and girls.

Respectfully suhmitted,

MRS. J. J. JONES,
MISS FRANCIS BLOCKER,
MISS MIRIAM FRAZEE.
Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

We beg leave to submit the following:

1. Resolved, That we esteem it a great privilege to have with us Miss Ellie Tydings, our beloved Missionary, who has given the past six years to faithful work among the Mexicans, and we pray that her health may be fully restored.

2. Reeolved, That we deeply regret the absence of our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Louise T. Philips, and that we tenderly sympathize in the family affliction which has detained her.

3. Resolved, That we miss the presence and help of our other officers, who have been prevented from attending this meeting.

4. Resolved, That we extend sincere thanks to the citizens of Gainesville for their hospitable reception of us, for the Master's sake, into their homes and hearts; and also to the "Daily Sun," whose reporter has so obligingly made record of the proceedings of our meeting.

5. Resolved, That we cordially thank the Pastor, Rev. T. C. Bradford, for his kind attentions, and for the use of the beautiful church in which to hold our sessions.

6. Resolved, That the Society tender thanks to the railroad companies, for courtesies and favors to the officers and delegates in attendance at this, the 14th Annual Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. M. J. BRYANT,
MRS. J. J. HARRIS,
MRS. E. J. HOLMES,
Committee.

REPORT OF TAMPA DISTRICT.

As I survey the field of labor assigned to me and reflect upon the year's work, I find some encouragement in the fact that the work is growing, that we haxe lengthened our cords in some directions, and that Missionary zeal is on the increase. Since January 1895, eleven auxiliaries have been added to our list and we have suspended work, making now thirty-two. There are several weak societies that need much nurturing; they are in thinly populated districts, and in places where people are unsettled through the disastrous results of last winter's cold.

I had set my heart on being able to report 40 societies; there ought to be that many, according to my map of the Tampa District; but I did not reach the point at which I aimed. I have been trying, however, to sow seed beside all waters, and I hope there may be germination growth and fruit in some places before our next annual meeting.

We feel that the Master's holy hand has been directing the work, and we hope and pray for a continuance of His guidance and blessing. We pray that Missionary zeal may so spread and grace so increase that ere long every woman in our church may bear her part in the cause of Foreign Mission.

There was a good representation of the Missionary work at the District meeting at Bushnell, there being 18 delegates in attendance. It was a spiritual and profitable occasion to me, affording opportunity of getting better acquainted with the work and the workers. Our zeal was increased; meeting so many of those enlisted in the same holy work, enlarged our sympathies and strengthened our bond of union.

There are 22 adult societies, and 10 Juvenile Societies with a membership of 510; money raised $504.00.

MRS. J. B. JOHNSTON.

(Read by Mrs. E. H. Swain before the Annual Meeting of W. F. M. S. at Gainesville, Fla., Dec. 13th, 1895).

OUR IDEALS.

Every young woman has her ideal life. Every older woman has had her ideal life. Are you realizing the dreams of girlhood or early womanhood? As we look around us we cannot believe you are. Why have you failed to reach the ideal of girlhood days.

Was it too hige? Wendall Philips once said "God never permitted us to form a theory too beautiful for His power to make practicable." Then where lies the secret of your failure?

We fear in many instances, we have made unto us an ideal that excluded God's aid. Was our ideal life for God's glory or our own. If the latter dare we rely on His power to make it practicable.

Sister, has your ideal of life been the fulfillment of the vows, to renounce the vain pomp and glory of the world and covetous desires of the same. A life full of work for Him who did so much for the elevation of womankind?

We have wondered again and again what the ideal Christian life of some of our sisters could be.

We find in so many of our churches only the smallest majority who are striving for the prize of the high calling of Christ Jesus if we can judge by their fruits.

God's plans for women was the highest ideal of noble happy womanhood, and to inspire and aid us in attaining this. He has placed the means within our reach whereby we may grasp this ideal.

In looking over our Conference Record we find that at least 15,000 women and children are enrolled in the army of King Imanuel. No king ever sent out an army without the requisite equipments. When we enter the ranks, fighting in the name of our King should we not use the weapons of warfare provided for us.

The enemy who is everywhere, the evil that surrounds us on every side, is constantly attempting to tear down the ideal structure of our lives and if we are truly loyal subjects to our King shall we not take up the specific duties He lays down for us?

Where are the 12,000 who have not taken up this specific work. Enlisted yet not drilling—enlisted yet using no weapons—enlisted yet giving no encouragement to the 3,000 who are so valiently attempting the work laid down, only one in five working. Sister on which side are you? Are you the one or one among the four.

We are nearing an important part of our year's work, the closing up of the old, the beginning of the new. What is your ideal for the new year. Have you built a castle in the air, without foundation, or is it an ideal structure founded on the Rock Christ Jesus and a desire to be and do whatever He would have you be or do.

There is with some what might be termed, a peculiar fascination in the round of daily duties, and the tempter continues to check or silence the constant desire that will rise for something better, something higher, some way, some how. Not long ago I found this verse.

"We take the pure ideals of our souls,
And lock them fast away
And never dream that things so beautiful,
Are fit for every day.
So counterfeit we pass current in our lives,
And stones we give for bread,
And starvingly and fearingly we walk,
Through life among the dead,
Tho' never yet was pure ideal
Too fair for us to make our real."

Sister is your ideal life locked away and its inspiration withholden from your children, your friends. Why are you not rising above the duties that come to you, not neglecting them but making them the power that will make you more happy and your every day lives more beautiful?

Are you giving your own loved ones stones for bread and starving your own souls? I am here before you to-night to offer you in the name of our King and our church that work which can bring to you a high ideal life and which "God's power can make practicable."

In the woman's work of our church we find an opportunity for development of every talent so many of which are now lying dormant.

"Thy early dreams which came in shapes of light,
Came bearing prophecy,
Commissioned sweetly to fulfill Thy possible to thee."

Think you my sister God gave you those early dreams, this high ideal, bearing prophecy of much fruit and then turned away to have you to go starvingly on through life?

Was Wendall Phillips mistaken concerning the power of God to make practicable these dreams and are we to be doomed to disappointments?

Was Paul mistaken concerning the power of God when he said I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me? No.

"God will make divinely real

when it is for His glory and done in His strength.

To aid us in reaching a high ideal our King has placed before us the methods of work, whereby we may in ways not antagonistic—listen, not antagonistic—to our daily duties, whereby we may not only fight for our King but feel that we are adopted into the kingdom and the work is ours, that we are co-partners in the cause, co-workers with our Lord and King, and in the work that is now such an acknowledged power in this land of ours.

In this work are we trying to "shine for Jesus?" Can you have a higher ideal than this? The ideal of many seems to be to shine at the card table, to shine in the ball-room, to shine in the parlor because of lovely costumes, but these cannot be members of our army, so we pass by to discuss this work given us by which we can enter into co-partnership with our King, and whereby we may learn how to find something that may aid in uplifting and enlarging our lives.

It is the privilege of every woman to enroll herself in one or both branches of the church work for woman. The Woman's Foreign Mission, and the Woman's Parsonage and Home Missionary Societies. The conditions of membership being so simple it seems strange that any one should hesitate for one moment.

Are two afternoons each month too much time to give to this work, so grand so far-reaching in which we have only to invest ten cents each meeting? These two dimes mean an interest in two great financial works which are bringing in large dividends and an interest in two great civilizing and elevating powers that are making themselves felt from our own homes to the ends of the earth.

Sister, do you want no interest in these things? Too often the lack of knowledge is the cause of lack of interest. Knowledge must precede interest. How can people become interested in things of which they know nothing. Hence a requisite is the printed monthly statements of how the work is progressing. How the men in business circles eagerly watch the statements of the banks to know the dividends to expect, or the footing the business is upon. But how many of our sisters are eagerly watching for the sure success that is following our work along all lines. These papers, The Woman's Missionary Advocate and Our Homes (costing but 50 cents each per year) would be an inspiration and a revelation to many of our sisters if they would but read them. In these we find for the too often weary house-keepers, the story of the depths from which our noble workers are struggling to rescue our sisters, across the seas, across the plain, over the borders, in our own continent, yea even in our own fair home land, free land of United States. Can these be read and the heart not go up in thankfulness for the home that she was permitted to keep? Can she read of the sacrifices of the few who have gone forth as ambassadors for our King, without a thrill of self-condemnation and a resolve to not shrink from duty, nor sacrifice or labor in our home land?

I could cite many instances where some of our grandest workers were aroused by the papers and literature to ideal Christian lives wonderful in their results. Lives that had lain in apathy for years. Talents that had lain dormant for so long, but now their lives have been seen to—

"Star like gleam through time,
Those who boldly lived out their thoughts sublime,
These truths to them more beautiful than day,
They knew would quicken men.
And deeds at which the blinded gazers sneered,
They dared to practice them
Till those who mocked their young ideal
In meekness owned that it was real."

Can you recall such incidents as the building of Faith Hall by Miss Holding at Laredo.

Can you recall such trust as Miss Haygood in the building of McTyeire Home in Shanghai.

Can you remember the perseverance of Miss Watts in the Brazilian Capital and behold the grand new school at Petropolis or can you see the perseverance of our own Mrs. Wolf, and her noble efforts in behalf of the Cubans and her success, and not realize the truth that

"God will make divinely real
The highest form of thine ideal."

We may not be called to leadership in this work, as was our sainted Mrs. Hayes, or our loved Mrs. McGavock now so near her reward, but we are co-workers with them and without us they would have failed. Great responsibility rests on each sister in the church, and we who have been tempted to become faint-hearted must rally, bring in new recruits and resolve that as partners some of the dividend must reach us. We can not all expect to be stars, but we can have a diadem resplendent with the stars that mean each one a soul saved, a soul from sin and darkness to God and eternal happiness.

Oh my sisters will you not all arouse to your privileges and trust "God to make divinely real the highest form of thine ideal."

So many ladies wait until they are old and decrepit almost before they are willing to say "Here Lord am I."

Come to Him now. Give Him the strength of your strong womanhood, so that it may be yours to hear the grandest testimonial of an ideal life. "She hath done what she could."

Young ladies, girls—God needs you. He needs your talents, your influence, your labors. Who will this day consecrate herself unto this "Woman's Work for Woman?"

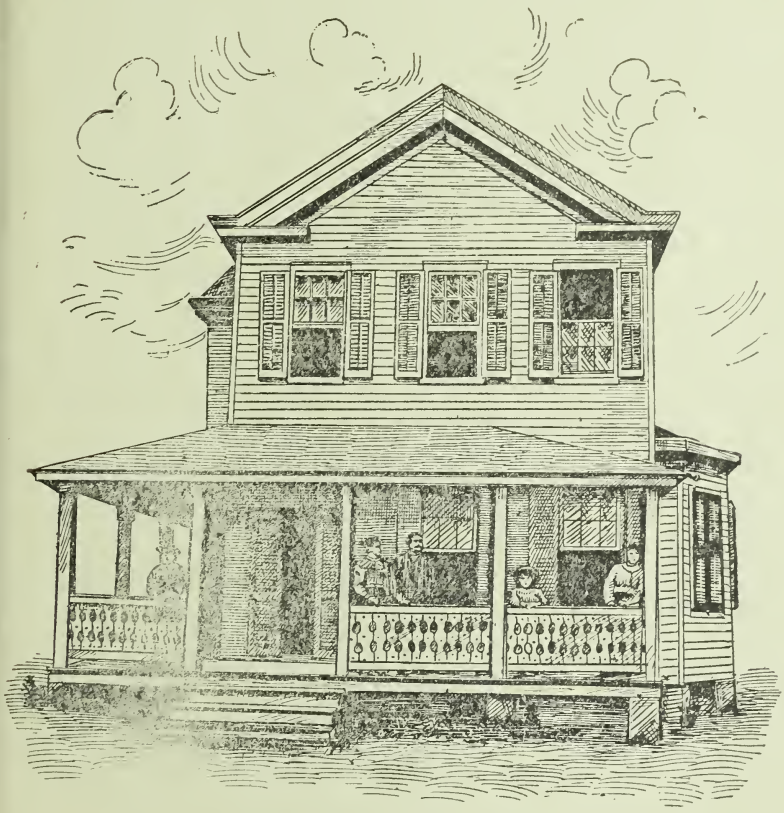
"Fear not to build thine aerie in the heights
Bright with Celestial day,
But trust thyself unto thine inmost soul
In simple faith alway,
And God will make divinely real
The highest form of thine ideal."

WOMAN'S PARSONAGE AND HOME MISSION SOCIETY OF FLORIDA CONFERENCE.

The first efforts made to introduce this branch of our church work into the Florida Conference was done by Mrs. A. J. Phares, of Yalaha, who served for several years faithfully as Conference Secretary. In 1891, feeling she did not have the co-operation of pastors, she resigned her position which Conference assigned to Mrs. M. J. Bryant of Leesburg.

At the Conference in 1892, the present Conference Secretary, Mrs. E. H. Swain, of Anthony, was appointed. The work up to this time had been designated as Woman's Department of Church Extension, now being made a regular arm of church work, by general Conference. The new Secretary took up the work in God's strength and under divine guidance, and did what she could to introduce the work to the Conference, feeling that it was a much needed work and would be a benefit to pastor and people. The burden of household cares compelled the work to be done by pen instead of personal appeals, but the Lord blessed her efforts unto the formation of the Conference Society at Citra during District Conference in May, 1892. The officers then elected were as follows, most of whom still are serving although one, the Recording Secretary has passed from her earthly labors:

President—Mrs. E. K. Griffith.
Vice-President—Mrs. T. J. Watkins.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. W. S. Richardson.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. E. H. Swain.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. S. Kells.



Parsonage at Key West, Fla., M. De Lofeu, Pastor.

DISTRICT SECRETARIES.

Tallahassee—Mrs. C. T. Carroll.
Jacksonville—Mrs. W. A. Mahoney.
Live Oak—Mrs. E. C. Hildreth.
Gainesville—Mrs. H. W. Long.
Orlando—Mrs. A. J. Phares.
Tampa—Mrs. C. F. Kemp.

A glance at the table of increase will show how God did bless the labors of these faithful women, and many a pastor can bless God for the W. P. & H. M. S. The work is divided into three departments—general, local, special.

GENERAL.

The parsonage work is sustained by dues of members. One half is sent to general treasurer, one half retained by Conference treasurer for Conference work. Of this fund the Conference society have made apppropriations as follows:

Kathleen	$50 00
Midway	100 00
Marion	25 00
McClenny	25 00
Pierson	16 00

Appropriations by Central Committee, Louisville, to Starke, Wildwood, Cedar Keys, Key West, Bloomingdale, Fernandina.

LOCAL.

Almost every auxiliary has done local work, that is, aided its own parsonage and pastor.

	LOCAL.	DUES.
1892	$1,158 82	$ 73 60
1893	1,488 08	174 30
1894	2,357 14	254 90

SPECIAL.

As a special, the Cuban work seemed to be sent to the Florida Conference Society, as well as to the general society. During its second year, 1892, in response to earnest appeals for aid the Cuban Mission Parsonage at Key West was adopted as a "Special," although weak financially and numerically they knew on whom they trusted and started forth in June, 1892, to raise $1,000. The Central Committee also adopted the work and donated $300 and made a loan of $600 on lot, which was purchased immediately. By faithful perseverence the small sums have been gathered in, and through Dr. C. T. Kemp's kindness there now stands on the lot a fine nine room parsonage including bath room and study, all completed, the first Cuban parsonage in the world, occupied by Rev. DeLofeu. There remains on this house the small debt of $75, which it is hoped the readers of this will help to clear away. (See picture of building.)

The Cuban Mission schools at Tampa, under the supervision of Mrs. M. A. Wolff, of St. Louis, a member of Central Committee is fast assuming vast proportions. These are situated in Ybor City and Cuba City, suburbs of Tampa, and taught by Mrs. and Miss Valdez formerly of Key West, Miss May Lockhard, a graduate of the Scarrit Bible and Training School, and Miss Jennie Smith, of Baltimore; these ladies have had under their instruction this year more than 350 pupils. The Central Committee recognizing its importance made an appropriation of $2,600 for the Ybor City school, which is being erected under Mrs. Wolff's supervision. The Cuba City school being taught in the house built by Mrs. Valdez and consecrated to this purpose.

Mrs. Wolff, by her untiring energy and devotion, is accomplishing much, and with Rev. H. B. Someillan and the Tampa ladies' aid will soon have an institution of which not only Tampa, but all Florida will be proud.

A number of "Boxes" have been sent to preachers this winter in our Conference by neighboring cities and many hearts gladdened.

Hundreds of sick and strangers have been visited, hundreds of garments been given out, hundreds of good papers and books distributed and other "Home Mission" work. Will not every member of the Florida Conference, every member of the Methodist church ask God's blessing on this branch of our church work?

The work has been faithfully kept before the Conference and people by Mrs. Watkins in the column so kindly donated by Dr. Anderson.

The Conference Secretary's report for 1895 shows how God has blessed the labors of the many faithful laborers in this cause, and we believe all christians can join in prayer that they may soon realize the fulfillment of their motto, "a comfortable home for every pastor," and may the Florida Conference find in the W. P. & H. M. S. many blessings to the spiritual and temporal.

REPORTS.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Your committee is deeply impressed with the duty of the Conference to look at her responsibility in regard to our young members; if to see they are converted be of all admitted as of primary importance, how can their religious education and preservation to our Church be less important? In the medical world the nurse is as important as the remedy. It would be a sad day for the bodies of men if physicians were to disregard the nurse and value of hospitals. It would be a sad day in our homes if, after the birth, no further care and no more motherhood should be given.

The Church will cease to be a Church when conversions cease. Is it wise to divorce faith and works in the lives of our young membership, and expect results the equivalent of the abilities of the entire church?

In 129 charges—already we have reports from fifty-two Leagues—some brethren used blanks ante-dating the establishment of the League with a membership of 1,544, which have no place in this report.

An increase of forty-five per cent next year in a hundred Leagues would show our appreciation of the Church's requirements as expressed in question 3, paragraph 87, and again in question 5, paragraph 81, of Discipline. Should we not tire of answering "no, no," in quarterly, Church and annual conferences upon Epworth Leagues?

Your committee regrets that rival organizations for young people present decoys and temptations to our own children to leave our own for alien organizations. Loyalty to Church and duty to our own people require of us much repentance and greater diligence.

The Wise Pastor, sustained by His true membership, will so pilot our Ship of Zion to a safe landing with every one of our children without knocking off of any other ship her own rightful crew; but even this precaution should not prevent our outstretch to receive, in passing by, our beguiled ones sorry of their thoughtless mistake.

Resolved, That we will co-operate with our Epworth President, Brother Carpenter, and with hearty thanks to Brother Honiker for gratuitously editing the League Department in our Advocate, we pledge ourselves afresh to the full work of Methodist preachers.

1. We heartily endorse the Epworth Era, and pledge our support and untiring efforts to increase the circulation of this paper.

2. We recommend the co-operation of all the presiding elders with the State organization in the extension of League work, and especially in the holding of Epworth District Conferences. We approve the holding of District and State Epworth Conferences. G. D. TURNER, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance offers the following report: We regard the Sabbath not only as divine in its origin and perpetual in its obligation, but as an organic law which underlies man's physical, intellectual and moral well-being, upon the perpetuity of which depend our civil and religious liberties.

It is of the first importance to us as Christians and as citizens of this great commonwealth that the Sabbath be kept as a sacred day.

We deprecate any tendency toward the European Sabbath, and wish to keep ourselves on record as decidedly opposed to Sunday excursions, base-ball games, and everything which tends to render less sacred this holy day; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in our ministry we will keep this subject prominently before our people, preaching on it as occasion may demand; and that we will not use the Sunday trains as a means of conveyance except in cases of necessity.

2. That we emphasize the importance of the strict observance of the Sabbath in the Christian home, and urge all parents to use their authority and influence to have the day properly observed in their households.

3. That the Fourth Commandment be greatly stressed in the Sunday Schools, and we call upon the officers and teachers of the same to co-operate with us in maintaining this benign institution, which lies at the foundation of all that is dear to our hearts and homes.

J. R. TAYLOR, Chairman.

R. A. HOLLOWAY, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Dear Brethren—One of the greatest agencies of the General Church is the American Bible Society of our own beloved land. In it we feel a national pride. Being totally undenominational, it becomes a great helper to all branches of the Christian Church. We find as the years come and go it keeps pace with all the improvements of the age in its mechanical construction, and to-day is a peer in this respect of any similar publications from any land.

We note with pride the spirit that animates this Institution in its benevolence in freely donating to all who can not purchase it. Some of our fields have baen supplied without cost, and it has gone on its way as a silent messenger and aid of the Church in bringing the world to Christ.

There comes to us this year the fact that the contribution of the people in its aid has not been as generous as in the year immediately before this. The house is now making urgent appeals to the Church and people to guard with care any diminution from their former generosity, so that it will not be compelled to restrict in any measure its annal output.

There are several depositaries within the bounds of our Conference, and from the best evidence obtainable we find they are well patronized. We hope that there will be a sufficient amount obtained to maintain these depositories in all their completeness.

We would most earnestly recommend that the organizations already in operation may be strengthened by new members, and in counties where none are in existence, that they may be established as soon as possible.

Respectfully submitted, HENRY HICE, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee are at a loss for aught to say in addition to the many strong deliverances of our church on this subject.

Intemperance in its many hideous phases has been so oft discussed and the attitude of our church so clearly defined, that we scarcely know what language to employ, what form of resolution to adopt. Suffice it to say, we are painfully aware that the hydra headed monster is neither dead nor asleep. It is here, it is there, it is everywhere, in highway and by-way, in the homes of the lowly to make poverty and its attendant suffering deeper and more terrible, and irremediable.

In the palatial residences of the rich, the cultured, the refined holding the relentless mortgage, of its fiendish grasp, the peace and prosperity, temperal and eternal of that sacred precinct. Sooner or later to foreclose leaving only the abomination of desolation to reign in their stead. Like a vampire it sits on the body domestic, social, political on the material and intellectual resources of our blessed land, blighting paralizing and destroying all with ruthless insatiate greed.

It feeds upon the fairest and the best, and strews the track of time with the carcasses of its victims.

In the face of these awful facts we can only reiterate, the strong expressions embodied in the reports of previous committees.

We pledge ourselves as a conference, as ministers, and as laymen, to increased diligence, and zeal in the inculcation of temperance sentiment, in the use of every means in our power as Christian ministers, members and citizens to the banishment of this curse from our homes, and from our land, from the world. J. A. HENDRY, Chairman.

T. BISHOP, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

After carefully examining all of the District Conference Records we are pleased to report that they have been faithfully kept.

It is very evident from the accuracy and neatness of the work, that each book has been in the hands of one who was in every way equal to the task committed to him.

MAHLON H. OUTLAND, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We are glad to state that help has been given twenty-seven schools during the year now closing. A number of schools which hitherto have helped our work have been aided by this Board during the year. We regard this as a part of our work, and we cheerfully respond to all calls made upon us by needy communities in our Conference. We trust that the schools we have helped will not fail to observe Children's Day, taking the collection which is required by law.

We commend the system of Home Study, prepared by the Sunday School editor, and request our pastors and workers to foster this enterprise among our people. Full particulars of this plan may be obtained from Barbee and Smith.

We urge the use of the publications provided by our own church, and we specially stress the importance of placing in the hands of all teachers our Sunday School Magazine.

"The Visitor" deserves to be extensively circulated, as it is unequaled by any yonng people's paper published on our continent. Indeed, the general excellence of all our publications calls for unqualified commendation.

At the request of Rev. James Atkins, D.D., Sunday School editor, we ask that the second evening of the Conference session be hereafter set apart as a Sunday School anniversary occasion.

The following are the statistics for the year: No. of schools, 287; No. of officers and teachers, 1,881; No. of scholars, 12,-335; Receipts, $77.31; Disbursements, $114.10.

For the Board.

G. D. TURNER, Chairman.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The happy selection of our connectional officers and the editors of our greater periodicals suggests the propriety of confidence in the judgment of our general deliberating assembly, if not in the Providence of God over our Methodism. The election of Dr. J. J. Tigert to his present position as editor of the Bi-Monthly Review is a conspicuous instance.

His consummate ability is evidenced in his own articles, editorials, and reviews, and in the fruits of other minds he garners into his pages.

We observe with a just pride the extraordinary prestige which our Review enjoys in the higher literary circles of universal Methodism, and note the appearance in a recent number of the Review of Reviews one of its articles as the leading attraction.

We view with pleasure its increasing circulation not only as the vindication of our General Conference in the selection of an editor, but as a testimony to the enlarging intelligence of our people.

The Christian Advocate, our connectional organ, easily ranks with the half-dozen greatest religious journals of the world. Dr. Hoss is on the editorial tripod, and to this end he seems to have been born.

This noble periodical flawlessly reviews the character and spirit of our Methodism. It stands for us faithfully and manfully. Its record in the past is the earnest of its victories for us in the future. This voice from the South is the defense and the advocacy of our policy and the integrity of our ecclesiastical history "gone out into all the earth."

We commend to the patronage of our people Our Homes, efficient organ of our Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society. We congratulate the Church on this new factor in its destiny, and bid it Godspeed on its neeful mission.

While your committee may not unanimously approve the unbroken record of our Epworth League organ, they scarcely believe the Era an "error," and devoutly wish it extensive circulation.

We cannot dissemble a feeling of pride in our Conference organ, the Florida Christian Advocate. It is as indispensable to Florida Methodism as our connectional organ is to Southern Methodism. God seems to have got his man, Dr. Josephus Anderson, ready for this work. And his name is not legion.

If the propriety of patronizing our Publishing House and making our orders through our Conference Colporteur, Rev. R. H. Barnet, was not so obvious, we would emphasize the obligations.

T. G. LANG,
For Committee.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Your committee congratulates the Conference on its reasons to thank God and take courage. Notwithstanding the widespread financial depression, nearly all the reports before us show a large enrollment of students in the institutions they represent than in many years of their previous history, and in one of them a larger enrollment than ever. Emory College is enjoying a prosperity unprecedented in the annals of this noble institution, and its future is bright with promise.

Wesleyan Female College is bravely confronting the perils that beset it in competive institutions, and its present perspective is more commensurate with the demands of these closing years of the nineteenth century of grace.

The report from the Florida Conference College indicates universal prosperity for this institution, and gives assurance of an ultimate fruition of our hopes in the establishment of an institution of learning to meet the demands upon Florida Methodism of the youth within her borders.

For a very able and exhaustive report on our several educational works, we refer the members of this Conference and all our people to that of Hon. W. N. Sheats in our Souvenir Year Book and Minutes of the Fifty-Second Florida Annual Conference, edited by Revs. F. Pasco and J. B. Ley.

Your committee recommend:

1. That the assessment of $2,000 be made upon the Conference, and apportioned upon the districts and several changes in the basis of the assessment for Conference claims, and the money raised to be divided between the trustees of the Conference College and the Conference Board of Education in the ratio of three to the former to one to the latter.

2. That the sum of $200 be assessed in like manner for Paine and Lane Institutes.

3. That our preachers and people be requested to continue the observance of Children's Day.

4. That our preachers be requested to preach at some suitable time at least one sermon in each congregation upon the subject of Christian education.

5. That Rev. E. F. Ley be elected Secretary of Education.

6. That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. F. A. Taylor Professor in the Florida Conference College, and Rev. F. Pasco to Duval High School.

T. G. Lang, for Committee.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

Thirty-five missions have been under the supervision of our Board during the year 1896. All of these fields are hard! Many of the places are strategic and of special importance touching the future of Methodism in Florida. The men who have served the works are heroes after the pattern of the New Testament. We honor them!

Tallahassee District.

Moseley Hall and Taylor	$ 50.00
Wakulla	50.00
Midway	50.00
Carrabelle	40.00
Total		$ 190.00

Live Oak District. $100.00

Hamilton	40.00
Waldo	60.00
High Springs	90.00

Pasco	60.00
New Church	150.00
Chuckaluskee	75.00
Total		$345.00
Grand Total		$2,160.00

The following are the assessments for 1897:

Districts.	Foreign Missions.	Domestic Missions.	S. S. Special.
Tallahassee	$ 625.00	$ 525.00	$ 100.00
Live Oak	600.00	500.00	100.00
Gainesville	725.00	625.00	100.00
Jacksonville	725.00	625.00	100.00
Orlando	750.00	650.00	100.00
Tampa	775.00	675.00	100.00
Total	$4,200.00	$3,600.00	$ 600.00

The assessments simply show the minimum that each charge is expected to pay. The absolute needs are expressed in the assessments, and therefore every dollar ought to be paid. We would call attention to the Disciplinary provision for the organizing of every Sunday School into a Missionary Society, and for holding a Missionary Massmeeting in every charge. Let all our pastors take their collections very early in the year, and by systematic effort secure a contribution from each member. Circulate our literature; The "World for Christ" ought to be in every home and the "Review of Missions" in the hands of every preacher.

MEMOIRS.

MRS. ESTHER REBEKAH GATES.

This lady, to whose memory we pay this tribute of Christian esteem, was born in Harrisonburg, Virginia, April 15, 1869; she gave her heart to God and her life to His service at the early age of nine years; removed to Florida with her parents in 1882; was married December 23, 1891, and entered upon the rest of the saints at Palmetto, Florida, June 2, 1896.

In the beauty and strength of womanhood Mrs. Gates was summoned to leave the activities of a minister's wife for the higher pursuits of a holier sphere. The character of the illness which seized her gave little opportunity for combating its rapid progress, and almost before its seriousness was learned, the end came.

To wait with 'bated breath the final hour when life shall fly away to fairer lands and noble things; to sit in shadow, fearing that the night will soon drop down and hide with raven wing the faces of our loved, is agony indeed. There is no shelter 'gainst Death's ready shaft; his poisoned arrow waits upon the string; in a brief moment it is sped, and piercing in the heart, the tide runs out, and all the sacred beauty of a life dissolves, and fades, and goes—we know not how. But Christian faith declares it is not lost; nor does it wander aimless or unfriended in the vacuous air, for where the perfect flower of love consumate blooms on ever vernal shores of bliss, it finds a blessed resting place with all the radiant ones who wait the coming Resurrection morn.

The life our sister led while with us here bore fragrance of the unseen world above, and heaven distilled rich fragrance from her. Her gentle nature yielded up its best for others' good, nor did she count her efforts vain so she might help, and cheer and bless the weary or the sorrowful of heart.

God has His jewels gleaming everywhere, and when their lustre satisfies His thought, He sets them in the Crown His Son shall wear. Heaven bade her ready soul to mount up and enter upon those purer joys which thrill the bosoms of the saints, and, yielding to the call, she passed within the Veil, to be forever with our Lord.

MRS. LINA GWYNN BLACKBURN

Was born in Miccosukie, Florida, January 6, 1870; was converted and admitted to church membership in 1880; married

November 1, 1894, and entered upon her heavenly rest September, 2, 1896, in Oxford, Ga.

Such is the brief record of this saint of the Lord, but on the imperishable tablets of eternity is written the story of a faith and consecration which only will be known when the Book of Life shall be opened on the last day.

Left an orphan early in life, God led her step by step. Of a meek and quiet spirit, and yet of a persistence in goodness, her influence was acknowledged in the lives which came in contact with her own, and doubtless many will confess that the beauty of her character led them to seek the blessings which complemented and satisfied her heart.

To our human sense there seems an incompleteness in a life so early closed, and were it not that Christian faith enables us to view the transitoriness of life as an argument that there must be a realm where the inequalities of this are rectified, we should be inconsolable. The good are taken hence when there is so great need they should remain to help this groaning world find its way back to God.

It has been said by one who knew her well that she chose the pleasures of religion rather than those proffered by the world. Buoyant and bright in disposition, it can not be charged that she could not find pleasure in the things which delighted others; but she preferred those rational pleasures which befit immoral natures. To her there were compensations in a holy life which outweighted all else, and in this decision she was sustained by the highest and most joyous experiences.

There are no tears in heaven, for there are no sorrows there. To those who weep beside Earth's graves there comes from the blessed Book of God words of consolation which bid the stricken and bereaved refer the settlement of every question, and the unfolding of the mystery of death to a tribunal whose decisions illumine the darkness of human woe. Death is the only lesson life can not but heed. From every form of calamity the human heart may turn with front of steel; but death throws down and shatters all defenses. There is no philosophy that heeds not the appeal of a white face turned up to the skies and eyes closed forever, and before this fact the world kneels.

It is a comfort to the sorrowing to believe that the voices of the loved ones are joined with the angels' song in a grander Te Deum than the world has heard since the star still above the Manger in the centuries gone by. Those who best loved her will meet her again in the matchless dawn of a cloudless day, and then, when sorrow is laid aside, light will stream in clothing in immortal beauty those whom for a while death had hidden from our longing gaze.

And we can well afford to wait a season,
Till all that now is dark shall be made bright,
If not with earthly, then with heavenly light;
And we shall come at last to know the reason
Of all the toil, the seeming loss, the pain,
The silent vanishing of some dear face,
The weary gazing at the vacant place—
All this, and more, shall in God's time come plain.

For the Committee,

R. L. Honiker,
C. A. Fulwood,
Thos. Griffith.

Note.—Memoirs of Revs. J. M. Sweatt and W. G. Booth were not furnished by the Committee to the editor for publication.—J. B. Ley.

EDITORIAL.

The minutes are before you—not so elaborate as last year nor so complete, but we published everything furnished by the Secretary, Brother Pasco. In view of the stringency of the times it was thought advisable to do the work as cheaply as possible, hence we omitted the "daily proceedings," which are sometimes published.

Some mistakes will be found. There will be discrepancies between the reports of Statistical Secretary and Treasurer of several boards. This is unavoidable under our present cumbersome, unbusiness like methods. Some reports are omitted simply because they are not furnished the Secretary in duplicate. The work is out much earlier than usual, which may in some measure compensate for any manifest defects.

ERRATA.

The assessments on the Districts for Conference Claimants and Education as made by the Board of Finance were as follows, and not as they appear in body of report. The schedule appearing there was suggested, but the board adopted that given below, and by error I got the wrong list in the hands of the printer.

APPENDIX.

[The following report reached me January 7th, when last form was about to go to press, and to get it in Minutes at all it had to come in here as an appendix. If brethren would write reports in duplicate at Conference and furnish one to Secretary for record and one for publication, Minutes could be gotten out in a very few days after adjournment.—Ed.]

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Extract from the report of the Florida Conference Board of Church Extension.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 11th, 1896.

The policy of the General Board of Church Extension has been very liberal to the Florida Conference. The annual report of Dr. Martin in May last, shows that during the fourteen years of the Board's existence, ninety-six churches in the bounds of the Florida Conference have received aid from the General Board of Church Extension amounting to $21,606.00 in donations, and $18,650.00 in loans. During the same period the contributions of the Florida Conference to the General Board amounted to $8,983.27, making $31,272.00 in excess of our contributions.

Dr. Morton in his communication to this Conference also says: "The pressure of hard times continues to interfere materially with our work. We expect you to remember that the pressure is greatest upon those who are looking to us for help, and to double your diligence in their behalf. If our modest assessment were paid in full we could do an incalculable amount of good, and relieve much distress. With the limited means at the disposal of the General and Conference Boards 407 churches were relieved during the year ending March 31st, 1896. An average of $180 each being paid them. Had the $100,000 asked for in the assessment been given us, 240 other churches could have been paid each a like amount."

During this Conference our work has been directed to the relief of those churches damaged or destroyed by the disastrous storm that visited a portion of our State.

During the war between the States, the forces of the Union army occupied our publishing house in Nashville, Tenn. After the war was over our church through its book agent made claim against the United States for losses sustained by damage to our property and publishing interests, through this occupancy.

This claim has been before Congress since 1875, and notwithstanding the efforts of its friends little progress has been made towards its collection, until the session of this Congress when through the efforts of our Senior Senator, the Hon. Samuel Pasco, the amount of $288,000 was approved by the Committee on Claims and placed on the appropriation bill where it is now.

When Senator Pasco was made Chairman of the Committee on Claims, unsolicited, he studied thoroughly the grounds of our claims, reaching the conclusion that they were valid; he gave his influence and time to the collection of it; and

WHEREAS, He has made such strenuous and successful efforts to place this matter properly before Congress; and

WHEREAS, The amount of this claim will enable us to enlarge our publishing interests;

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Florida Conference in its own behalf, and on behalf of the Church tender our thanks and acknowledge the obligations to Senator Pasco of Florida, for his fidelity in striving to secure the settlement of this claim.

THE TAMPA CUBAN MISSION.

To the Florida Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, Convening in Tampa, December 17th, 1897:

BISHOP AND DEAR BRETHREN—Under God, this Mission has had a most prosperous and successful year, notwithstanding the many hinderances and peculiar trials under which we have labored, the Lord has graciously helped and blessed His servants in the performance of the arduous duties devolving upon them. Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness." Amen.

During the Conference year now closing, we have received 19 members, the most of whom have been born again and are daily growing "into the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ,"

A Boy's Juvenile Society, "La Entrella Solitaria (The Lone Star), has been organized with about 25 members, under the W. P. and H. M. Society, We have now three Juvenile and one Woman's Auxiliaries, all of which are doing excellent work. The annual dues of these societies are about $75.00. Steps are being taken to organize an Epworth League. This has become an urgent and pressing need in our mission work, and, by God's help, it is our determination to effect the organization of a League as soon after the adjournment of this Conference as may be practicable.

We have endeavored during the past year to impress the minds of our people by frequent admonition and loving exhortation, the importance and duty of self-support. There is reason to believe that our effects in this direction have been blessed of the Lord, since quite a number of our members have contributed systematically to the support of the various institutions of the church.

Owing to very limited missionary funds, it was doubtful at the beginning of the year whether Rev. E. Diaz, assistant missionary, could be sustained. How to do without the valuable and indispensable assistance of this earnest and consecrated Christian worker, we know not. The diminution of our missionary appropriation did but little harm, but a retrenchment in our already meagre forces, just at that time, would have certainly proved disastrous to the work. Realizing this and having no funds at our command, we presented the matter to the great Head of the Church, and in earnest and importunate prayer, sought humbly to know His mind and will concerning the same. Prayer is a precious and inestimable treasure; very much so, indeed, to the missionary whose peculiar trials, whose doubts and whose fears, are known only to his God above.

> "Are we weak and heavy laden,
> Cumbered with a load of care,
> Precious Saviour, still our refuge,
> Take it to the Lord in prayer."

And thus, blessed be His name, relief came in our hour of great need. To the Epworth League and various individuals who have sent us a contribution for the support of Brother Diaz, than whom there is not a more earnest and thoroughly consecrated worker in this Conference, our Cuban Mission feels deeply indebted.

We sincerely hope that, as the entire amount of the missionary debt has been secured, the Parent Board realizing the need of this valuable worker, will not fail to again provide for his support.

It was our privilege to preach to the Cuban population at Fort Meade during the most of July. The service was well attended and the sermon listened to with marked attention and interest. We respectfully suggest that steps be taken to supply the Cuban population at Fort Meade with at least one monthly preaching appointment in the Spanish language. The school department under the auspices of the W. P. and H. M. Society continues to prosper under the wise management of Miss Mary Bruce, Superintendent. This consecrated servant of the Lord has taken hold of the work committed to her hands with an ardent zeal and enthusiasm that already begins to tell in the rapid growth and development of the same. Miss Marcia Maroni, daughter of our lamented Bishop Enoch Maroni, is in charge of the sewing and fancy work department. Her missionary zeal is of the very highest type, and her labor, both in the day and Sunday Schools, are most acceptable and successful. Mrs. and Miss Valdes, teachers in the West Tampa school, are as faithful and zealous as ever in the discharge of their duties. Miss Maude Fisher and Miss Minnie Perin of the Wolff Mission School and Bro. E. Diaz in charge of the Boys' School at Ybor City, deserve also great credit for their zeal and activity in the work.

The erection of a school and chapel building (jointly) in West Tampa cannot be neglected any longer without serious injury to the work. The crowded condition of this school demands immediate action. Our Presiding Elder, Rev. C. A. Fulwood, D. D., and Miss Bruce are making strenuous efforts in this direction, and we are glad to report success in the enterprise. The cost of the work will be about $550.00, and it is to be hoped that before the adjournment of this Conference the sum of two hundred dollars, at least, will have been contributed by those who feel an interest in this movement.

Our Baptist brethren have established mission work among our people in this city. Their convention will follow this Conference in the course of three weeks. Judging by their ever increasing liberality in the past in providing for their Cuban work both in Cuba and elsewhere, we have reason to believe that the same will be done for their new field in Tampa. We are quite sure the Florida Conference will do all in its power to make the Cuban Mission under its care and protection a glorious success.

Since the founding of the Cuban Mission in Key West, more than twenty years ago, my heart has rejoiced over the many conversions and several calls to the ministry which have occurred among my countrymen. I have tried frequently to express my gratitude to this Conference for its noble efforts to liberate my people from the thralldom of papal intolerance and despotism, yea, from spiritual darkness and death. Thanks to you, brethren, and above all, thanks to God, for such gracious results; but, dear brethren, I bring to you to-night the glad news of the conversion of my own precious aged mother. Oh, the saving power of God's grace! A conscientious Romanist from her youth, raised by Catholic parents under the strictest rules of that church, carefully taught to discard and even to despise all other forms of religion, as well as to observe with rigid exactness the prescribed canons and usages of her own church, we do not wonder that for twenty-five years the earnest pleadings and loving exhortations of an anxious son, were listened to with the utmost degree of apathy and indifference. But, blessed be God, prayer is not a sentiment or a theory, but a working instrument which is to do certain things, just as a pen is to write or a knife is to cut. Here is a man on his knees. It is past midnight. The doors of his chamber are closed. A servant in the adjoining room hears the sound of a human voice. Quite eagerly he listens. Hark! A human heart is pouring itself out in agonized pleadings before the throne of divine grace. Like Jacob of old, for several hours, perhaps, has this man been wrestling with God in prayer. But now, want and supply have come together. The all consuming desire of John Knox's heart has reached its utmost degree of intensity. "Give me Scotland or I die" moves the hand that moves the world, and fair Scotland is redeemed from Romish intolerance and slavery. Ah, there is a tremendous meaning in the words, "He that seeketh findeth."

And thus, dear brethren, in answer to the pleadings, earnest and importunate of burdened and seeking hearts, the mother of your humble Cuban missionary was gloriously saved on the morning of the 10th day of May, 1897. May the Lord be praised forever and ever. Amen!

H. B. SOMEILLAN, Missionary.

KEY WEST CUBAN MISSION.

To the Annual Conference, Convened at Tampa, December 17, 1897:

DEAR BRETHREN—Last year we held 140 meetings; had 68 members in full connection, and 46 candidates on trial. This year we have baptized 68, 15 adults and 51 infants; 22 marriages, 88 members in full connection, and 63 candidates on probation. We have held quite a number of children's services, and also several meetings for the instruction and explanation of our discipline, and a series of revival meetings conducted by Rev. Someillan which have been highly beneficial in the building up of spirituality among our brethren.

These meetings have resulted in several conversions, and many have been graciously led by the Holy Spirit into more rapid growth in the grace of our Lord. Among the many precious souls saved none caused more rejoicing than the conversion of the mother of Rev. Someillan, who was also admitted into our church during that gracious revival. Our services have been very spiritual and the congregations so large that sometimes our church has been completly full. At this time our city is going through much misery and suffering on account of it being the veritable "city of refuge" for Cubans who are escaping from Spanish persecution. They are glad to be with us; far away from the outrages of Spanish soldiers they feel secure. They are making their homes with us, and while being safe themselves yet their hearts are bleeding with anguish on account of their relatives who are still in Cuba and are endangering their lives while fighting for Cuba Libre. But thank God their hearts are being consoled by the influence of the gospel. They attend regularly our services, for they feel like the poor pilgrim eager for peace and rest, eager for the consolations of the spirit. We have four societies of the church, two children's societies, called Star of Bethlehem, with twenty-one members. They have collected $10 to aid in the expenses of beautifying the church. The "Methodist Little Laborers," with eighty-six members, have collected $7.76. "The Home Missionary," with thirty-seven members, has collected $3. The Ladies Foreign Society, with eleven members, have collected $5.40.

My daily school has eighty-six scholars with an average in the daily attendance of fifty. They receive all branches of a primary instruction, and there is annexed classes of needle work, melodious singing and drawing.

Among the samples shown to this Conference of needle work and painting, some have been performed by little girls from five years to older age.

Our Sunday School has six teachers, 119 scholars, and collected $5.80 as stated before.

The Lord has been so beneficient in grace and mercy that the human mind can not conceive in regard to the protection of our children, for besides what has been related, we have the following which is worthy of consideration:

Sister Manuda Alvarez, who died in 1894, was an unwearied worker and contributed to great extent to accomplish the actual condition of our church, and now a grand-daughter of her's has come to participate in the instruction of our daily school, and besides, this precious child has been converted in the revival meetings by Rev. Someillan at the early age of about ten years.

The Lord has rewarded the efforts of the grand-mother by the allowance of the treasure of salvation to her little grand-daughter who she loved so much.

The little girl, Josefa Cabrera, of nine years old, had a dangerous disease, prayed to the Lord for the remission of her sins, and now she enjoys good health, and she gives her testimony of the Lord as her only Saviour.

In our daily school the blessings of God have been so profuse that seven of its children have become members of our church, and they are shown in the picture I exhibit in this Conference.

Brethren, I beg you not to forget that there is in this small corner of the territory of this Conference, multitudes of Cuban children, for which your prayers are needed, begging the Lord that he may grant them the privilege of knowing the blessed Saviour who loved so much all children.

I call the attention to the mothers and little sisters and all pious hearts towards those poor Cuban children in want of spiritual benefits that the gospel may be bestowed in their souls for the preparation of a future life of salvation.

Respectfully your brother,

TRUSTEES CONFERENCE COLLEGE.

To the Presiding Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

BRETHREN—The Board of Trustees of the Florida Conference College beg leave to submit to you the following report:

They find themselves confronted with difficulties, to the successful meeting and overcoming of which they recognize their inability, and which they desire to present to the Annual Conference for its consideration.

The finances of the school are at a low ebb; the patronage of the school is not increasing; the revenue derived from the patronage is entirely inadequate to meet the demands of the school, and no other source of revenue is in sight,

To add to the difficulties of the situation, some of the forces that should be harmonious and active for the welfare of the school are antagonistic. We have endeavored to administer the sacred trust placed in our hands by this Conference to the best of our ability, for the good of our people and for the glory of God.

This Board has always been ready and willing to hear and consider anything concerning the welfare of the school, or affecting the character of the teachers. But the Board has already reserved the right to decide all such matters, believing that it was constituted for this purpose.

In only one instance has anything affecting the character of the teachers of the late administration been brought before the Board. The complaint was patiently heard. The matter was fully investigated. In the judgment of the Board the evidence to support the complaint was wholly insufficient to affect adversely either the official or personal standing of any members of the faculty. Since that investigation was had no complaint has been brought before this Board against any teacher by them elected. No complaints against the character of any of the officers or teachers have ever been made to any of the properly constituted tribunals of the church whose duty it is to hear matters affecting the character of individuals serving the church. The Trustees have acted upon all the facts that have been presented to them. They have had no desire, and now have no desire, to cover up anything or to shield any one.

This action of the Board was concurred in with but one dissenting vote.

The Trustees feel their utter inability to cope with the situation, unless a more harmonious and united action of all the forces in Florida Methodism can be brought to the rescue of the Conference College from what seems to be imminent failure.

The Board hereby wish to refer the whole matter to the Conference for such action as it deems best to take.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your committee begs to report great gratification upon the receipt of Dr. Atkins' Second Annual Summary of Sunday School progress. His statistics give increase of pupils, 24,096; total circulation of literature, 1,012,000; increased circulation of "Magazine," 4,000 copies; Senior Quarterly, 18,000; Intermediate Quarterly, 11,000; Illustrated Lesson Paper, 5,000; Little People, 10,000; Monthly and Senior Monthly Visitor maintained last year's circulation. Indications are that one-half of our schools used Children's Day programmes.

Collected on Children's Day, $162.36; expended in aid of schools, $136.15; amount on hand, $26.21. We are much encouraged with these results.

Your committee has considered the memorial from Gainesville District, and asks Committee on Sunday Schools at Nashville to publish Children's Day programme in the April issue of our Quarterlies, each year, if practicable.

Our literature of every grade is of high character. The Young People's Hymnal should be in every Sunday School and no other.

We pledge continued loyalty to every interest of this branch of our church, and urge every pastor, superintendent and teacher to renewed efforts to co-operate with the church through the Parent Board so wisely and successfully led by the Sunday School editor.

G. D. TURNER,
For the Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF EPWORTH LEAGUES.

From the report of the General Secretary we learn of a very gratifying condition of our League work. There are now on roll in the Secretary's office 3,675 chartered Leagues, with an aggregated membership of 165,375. Doubtless these figures would be greatly increased if the local organizations would secure charters and be enrolled at headquarters.

The report of the Secretary recommends that the League be put in the same relation to the church that the Sunday School sustains. We think this wise, and heartily concur in the suggestion.

The Epworth Era has about 6,000 subscribers at this time. There was a falling off of 1,500 subscribers during the past year. This publication should be better patronized by the young people of the church. It may not be as interesting now as it was a year ago, but it is ably edited and merits our support.

There have been 3,000 sets of the books of the reading course sold the past year, which shows that our young people are, to some extent, appreciating the value of good books. To make this work permanent it must be allied with wholesome intellectual culture. We would most earnestly urge upon our preachers and people the great importance of putting these good books into the hands of the church.

The work in our own Conference has made a most gratifying growth the past year. The people are coming to understand the value of organized effort among the young, and are pushing the work with commendable zeal. Our State and District Conventions have imported a wholesome impetus to the organization, furnishing information concerning methods of work, and resulting in a general toning up of those who have come under the influence of these conventions.

W. J. CARPENTER,
For the Committee.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals report as follows: We find that our Publishing House is still prospering. Messrs. Barber and Smith, agents, report a net gain of 6 per cent. on the whole capital of the house, which result is particularly gratifying from the operations of a year so unfavorable to its attainments.

The Methodist Review, since its present editor, Dr. Tigert has had control, has steadily increased its circulation until it has become self-supporting, and is recognized as one of the very best periodicals of its kind published.

The Christian Advocate, our connectional organ, under the editorial management of Dr. Hoss, is a great paper of which the whole church should be proud, and to which she should give her earnest support.

The Review of Missions is filled each month with choice articles giving interesting and helpful information from the various mission fields.

If this splendid periodical and "The Word for Christ," were taken and read more generally, the missionary conscience of the church would be greatly quickened and the work of foreign missions would advance. Our Sunday School periodicals are excellent, and seem to improve each year. All the periodicals of the house have paid their way this year, except the Epworth Era.

The Florida Christian Advocate, our Conference organ, has added 401 names to its list during the year, and is in a better condition for more successful work in the future.

Dr. Anderson, the venerable and able editor should receive the earnest co-operation of every Methodist in Florida, When patronizing the Publishing House, let all the preachers and laymen make their orders through Rev. R. H. Barnett, our faithful colporter.

F. E. SHIPP,
For the Committee.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Reiteration is all that is left your committee after what has been written and said by our church on this subject through the years.

Yet as long as the injunction, "Line upon line, precept upon precept" stands in holy writ; as long as the skeleton remains behind the door in our homes to mar and blast their happiness and enthrone suffering and wretchedness and woe; as long as the hideous curse plants itself in our highways and by ways, seizing and devouring the fairest and the best soul and body; so long is it incumbent upon us to "cry aloud and spare not" against intemperance in all forms against the man.

ufacture, sale, importation, exportation, transportation or use of ardent spirits, whether of domestic wines "falsely so called" (for this wild beast can never be domesticated), or in any form.

Therefore Resolved, 1st. That we as a church and as a ministry rejoicing in what has been achieved, yet with aching hearts for the deadly doings of alcohol still going on under our eyes, pledge ourselves anew to devote ourselves more fully to temperance effort and teaching.

2d. That we will in administering the affairs of our church stand more faithfully by the plain requirements of our discipline in the matter of temperance, demanding conformity to its high standard among our people.

T. W. Moore,
T. Bishop,
Committee.

The minority respectfully reports in favor of the resolution under consideration, and presents the following:

MEMORIAL.

To the Bishops and Members of the General Conference, M. E. Church, South:

Dear Fathers and Brethren—The Florida Annual Conference do hereby memorialize the general Conference to make such change in our book of discipline as will provide for the use of unfermented juice of the grape in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. and we hereby direct our delegates-elect to that body to present the same to the general Conference.

T. Bishop.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance submit the following report:

We recognize the Christian Sabbath as a divine institution essential to the prosperity of both Church and State. In view of the many temptations to Sabbath desecration which surround us, it is necessary to emphasize continually the importance of a proper observance of God's holy day. The moral obligation to keep the Sabbath holy must be taught in the family, the Sabbath School and the pulpit. The many forms of Sabbath desecration must be clearly pointed out and condemned as occasion requires.

Resolved, 1st. That we will continue to keep the subject of Sabbath observance prominently before our people by both public teaching and private admonition.

2d. That we call special attention to the great evil of desecrating the Holy Sabbath by Sunday excursions, base-ball games and such like.

3d. That we will discourage by example and precept the practice of riding on Sunday trains, except in cases of necessity.

4th. That we urge upon all parents the duty of magnifying the Lord's Day in the family.

T. J. NIXON,
Chairman.

B. F. MASON,
Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

"The fiscal year which closed March 31st, 1897, was in the main, a prosperous one for our cause, considering the financial condition of the country. While there was some decrease in our receipts it was not unexpected and brought no discouragement, because it did not indicate any diminutive of interest in church extension." It is encouraging to learn from the above extract of Dr. Morton's communication to the Florida Conference of the prosperous condition of our work throughout our connection. We are also gratified to learn there is an increase amount reported to this Conference for the past year in our Conference, showing to us the churches' confidence and appreciation of this important branch of church enterprise.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee respectfully submit the following report:

It is with sorrow we report the American Bible Society is about to be forced upon a very radical retrenchment in all departments, and that the work at home and abroad must be greatly curtailed. This statement should arouse the energies of all protestant Christians in the United States in its behalf. The Bible Society representing interests that are common to churches of every name, can not carry on its work without generous support. Retrenchment in its work means disaster to all who look to it for aid, in the evangelization of the world. We would therefore request all our pastors to bring this cause before their congregations. We would also invite the superintendent to visit our District Conferences the coming year that this interest may be brought more prominently before our people. No amount was asked of our Conference The following has been paid:

Tallahassee District	$ 27 14
Live Oak District	30 15
Gainesville District	20 84
Jacksonville District	12 45
Orlando District	13 25
Tampa District	13 67
Total	$ 117 50

Respectfully submitted,
T. S. ARMISTEAD,
Chairman.

Memoirs.

REV. CLARENCE F. MELLOR.

The Reverend Clarence F. Mellor was born at Clarence Hollow, New York, August 15, 1865, and died at Weatherford, Texas, December 15, 1896.

Brother Mellor was educated at Clarence Academy, and graduated from Lima Seminary in his twenty-first year. Entering the ministry shortly thereafter he was stationed at Lockport, N. Y. Realizing the need of the highest equipment possible to be secured he entered, the following year, Rochester University. While pursuing his studies at the University he was attacked with a serious illness which speedily developed into pneumonia. This laid the train which was to eventually end his useful life. Recovering sufficiently to travel, he went to Kansas, and there for three years served a circuit in that Conference. Thinking that his health was now re-established, he returned to New Jersey and completed his theological course in Drew Theological Seminary, graduating from that institution in 1893. So devoted was he to the work of the ministry that, while a student at Drew, he served as pastor at Anderson, N. J.

Again, admonished to seek a milder climate, he came to Florida in the winter of 1893. Our Conference was in session at Palatka, and he was received on trial among us. His first appointment was to the Interlachen and St. John's River Mission. This charge he served with great acceptableness for two years, building a church at the first named place, and remodeling and beautifying the church at Francis. During these two years his health greatly improved, and he cherished the hope that many years of usefulness lay before him as a minister of our Lord Jesus Christ.

His next appointment was to the Callahan Mission. Here he contracted malarial fever. Soon his strength was exhausted. At the late session of our Conference at Tallahassee, Brother Mellor was granted a supernumerary relation. It was hoped that a year of rest would result in his restoration to health, but, alas, he went out from the blessed fellowship of that occasion to wrestle with the last enemy. His vitality was so depleted that he was unable to throw off the malady which attacted him; but thinking that a colder climate might eliminate the malarial poison in his system, he went to Texas, only to realize that no earthly refuge can avail when death storms the fortress of a human life. Dying among strangers, as he did, we have every right to believe that his unseen Lord sustained him in the last agony, wiping the dew of death from his face, and Himself bore His servants spirit to the changeless and sorrowless land of eternal life.

Thus early in the struggle did our brother hear the command, "Come up higher!" and obedient to the voice of his Master, laid down his sword to receive the earnest of his heavenly knighthood. There are no accidents in Providence —nor are there graves in Heaven. We, in our poor way, misunderstand the divine methods of promotion. When one has wrought with valor and made many captives whom our King enfranchises, we think he has earned the right to a long and glorious life of warfare. But our view is hampered by many limitations. Beyond our horizon stretch vaster fields of enterprize and conquest. Who knows but the Soldier of the Cross—the Knights of Calvary—are promoted for more strenuous and noble effort in the land beyond the reach of mortal sight.

It must be that this incomplete life is to be endlessly vivified in higher sphere, so that the divinest thing for which the spirit can aspire is bound up in the words "His servants shall serve Him; and they shall see His face, and they shall be like Him."

For those who are so grievously smitten in this visitation, no human sympathy is adequate. In the life where death makes havoc only God can minister comfort. Vain seem the most beautiful tributes of respect and affection when the harp strings of a life are broken, but it comforts us to know that the Lord thinketh upon us. We sorrow because we are men, and mortal; there is no sorrow to those who have entered upon the rewards of immortality.

REV. E. L. T. BLAKE, D. D.

This eminent servant of Christ and His Church went in and out before the people of Georgia and Florida for many years illustrating, and illuminating the gospel he so effectively and eloquently preached.

Never of robust constitution, the labors of the itinerant ministry often seemed to threaten his life, but amid the vicissitudes of his condition he remained devoted to the work he had from his youth accepted as his mission. After a restful period as a superanuated preacher, which his enfeebled state demanded, he was made effective at the Conference of 1871. From that day he zealously met the duties of his ministry until failing health and the accession of infirmities, in 1892, announced that the eloquent minister and devoted pastor could serve no longer amid the clash and strenuous endeavor of the battle field, and with chastened and resigned spirit he accepted a place on the Roll of Honor among the "Old Guard," to be thenceforth held in perpetual remembrance by his brethren, for the life he had illumined and the trophies he had won for the kingdom of our Lord.

One who knew him long and well and loved him truly, thus speaks of him: "Dr. Blake was naturally of a quick temperament, but patiently educated himself into due self-government. Beginning before manhood to train himself to implicit obedience to the commands of the Master, and the sacred duties of the pastorate, as a pattern of holy living, a leader of sinners out of depravity into the way of righteousness, and a teacher of the profound philosophy of an inner spiritual and outer active life of godliness, he disclosed the developed judgment, advanced intelligence and ripening devoutness and humility that led him to measure his position, and enabled him to line up his high responsibilities with the life of the sanctuary. During this long and varied church work, his humility of spirit and just estimate of a preacher's life and responsibilities were often made observable to intimate friends. He never rose from his seat to the sacred desk without showing a disturbance of his physical nature, but the trained habit, self-mastery and intense absorption in the subject he was opening dispelled confusion, and he advanced to an impressive calmness of aspect and resonance of voice in mystic harmony with his exalted thought."

A great man is God's best gift to men, and if to-day we look back upon this man, it is not that we may glorify him or raise him to a false eminence, but that we may glorify God in him. Not to recognize God's gift in manhood is to be unworthy the bounty of the grace of God. It were as easy to blot out from a landscape a mountain that rears its snowy crest beyond the clouds, as to forget or ignore the presence of great men in God's earth and in Christ's Church.

Again, we quote from an appreciative tribute to the memory of our brother: "In the pulpit he rarely failed to absorb the attention and sway the intelligent reason, or uplift faith, or brush away despondency, or open the fountain of emotion, or stir to penitence and conviction. He possessed the electrical power to bring himself and his hearers into full sympathy, and thus produce unusual results. This power often displayed itself in a procession of 'thoughts that breathed and words that burned,' opening floods of joyful tears or irrepressible shouts of gladness. This magnetic gift in him was closely joined to an indescribable simplicity of movement, aspect, thought, language and tone, that shot over the nerves of his hearers like the vibratory motion of electricity, too strong or too sweet to offer any resistance. Not want of alertness of thought or delivery, but an obstructive form of disease, made his utterance at first unnecessarily slow, but the intruder soon relinquished the field."

Married, in his twenty-fourth year of age, to an ideal woman, his home life was sweet and beautiful. As a husband he was attentive, considerate, sympathetic and devoted to his wife. As a father he was firm, yet kind, thoughtful of his children, and, planning for their highest interests, they recognized in him a nobility of soul they longed they might possess. His life was an inspiration to them, and they realized that, as Enoch walked with God, their father enjoyed like blessed experience and companionship.

The strifes and frets of theological neophytes disturbed him not; his faith in God and his assurance that Christ was a perfect Saviour, inspired him in his ministry to preach a whole gospel. He honored the Holy Spirit in His divine offices, and amid the restlessness of these unhappy times, his soul was kept in perfect peace because it was stayed on God. He insisted with the might of an irresistible logic that the doctrines of the church, in relation to the cardinal experiences of salvation on the part of the personal believer, did not need meretricious definitions or extraneous aids. And so, repentance, regeneration, the witness of the Holy Spirit, and constant growth into the image of Christ, were the themes upon which he expatiated with thrilling voice and kindling eye and gold-tipped winged eloquence.

And to-day we recall the life-work of our venerable and glorified brother. We would not shut out from our mental vision his personality. By so much as he made the world brighter, God's thought clearer, man's duty simpler, life's sufferings easier to be borne, in that measure he was an incarnation of God's helpful love. And we think of him to-day, and we glorify God for him, and we pray that the apostolic and saintly succession of God's great and gifted sons may never cease until this groaning earth has passed through its travail and discipline, and is merged in the shadowless light of the love of God.

> "Placid completeness: life without a fall
> From faith or highest aim, truth's breachless wall.
> Surely if any life can bear the touch,
> His will say 'Here' at the last trumpet's call."

Edwin L. T. Blake was born in St. Marys, Georgia, June 26, 1823, was converted at home through the instrumentality of his pious parents and his beloved little sister in Nassau county, Florida, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in June 1835.

He was licensed to preach at Newnansville, Alachua county, Florida, November 21, 1842, received on trial in the Georgia Conference, at Savannah, Georgia, in January 1843, received into full connection at the first session of the Florida Conference in Tallahassee, and ordained a deacon by Bishop Soule, February 9, 1845, and was ordained elder by Bishop Capers, at Quincy, Florida, February 14, 1847.

He was married to Mary A. Myers, January 11, 1848, and died at Ocala, February 9, 1897.

In 1851 he was left without an appointment on account of ill health.

In 1852, 1853 and 1854 he was designated by the Bishop "Agent or the American Bible Society for Florida and Southern Georgia."

In 1855 he was superanuated and continued in that relation till January 1871, when he resumed the pastoral work.

The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him by Emory College in 1877.

He was elected a member of three general Conferences, viz.: those of 1850, 1870 and 1878. The first and last he attended. In 1850 he was a member of the "Committee on Itinerancy," in 1878 of the "Committee on Episcopacy." In 1870 the illness of his wife prevented his attendance.

While always profoundly grateful for any expression of confidence and good will on the part of his brethren, he never directly, nor indirectly, sought honors or preferments of any kind. He was not present at the Conference in Tampa which elected him to the General Conference of 1878.

A phrenologist advised him, in 1846, when he was twenty-three years old, to cultivate what he called the organ of "love of approbation." Said he: "You care too little of what other people think of you!" Perhaps he was right. At any rate, he never consciously tried to be popular, but simply endeavored to do his duty as he saw it.

For the Committee. R. L. HONIKER,
Chairman.

HON. J. WOFFORD TUCKER.

Your Committee on Memoirs having been instructed by formal resolution of the Conference to prepare a suitable paper upon the death of Judge J. Wofford Tucker, submit the following, which appeared as the leading editorial in the Nashville Christian Advocate of December 9. It is in all respects so just, so free from fulsome eulogy, and at the same time so appreciative of the noble character and exalted worth of our sainted friend and brother, that your committee adopts it as their report. It is as follows:

A GREAT LAYMAN.

The death of Judge J. Wofford Tucker was announced in this Advocate some weeks ago, with brief comments upon his character. But it seems eminently proper that such a man should receive larger notice. It is far within the limits of the truth to say that he ranked with the noblest laymen ever produced by American Methodism. He had a massive and commanding frame, and a face in which benignity and strength were blent together. In any company in the world he would have attracted attention. His manners were simply perfect, and yet there was nothing artificial about them. It was as natural for him to be courteous as it was to breathe. His range of knowledge was wide and deep. He knew men and books. What a charm there was in his conversation! When he talked everybody was glad to listen. His faith in God was perfect, and his life flawless. A simpler, purer, steadier Christian we have never known. As he passed through the world he left a luminous track behind him. His early and middle years were full of secular honors. He mingled in the great strifes that agitated the country, and won recognition as a leader of his fellowmen. But when Providence shut him up to a narrower sphere he neither murmured nor complained, but retained his cheerfulness of spirit and his dignity of bearing to the last. The innate greatness of his soul was such that nothing could disturb it. Gradually withdrawing from all worldly cares he waxed riper and riper for the coming change. Those who knew him best do not doubt that when he slipped away from his clay tabernacle on October 6th last, he was instantly "present with the Lord."

Judge Tucker was born at Spartanburg, S. C., October 4, 1822. His education was received at the old Cokesbury Academy. After leaving that institution he studied law in Charleston, S. C. In 1844 he married Miss Emily A. Burry, with whom he lived most happily to the time of his death. After practicing his profession till 1854 he became one of the charter members of the Board of Trust of Wofford College, which had been founded by a gift of $100,000 from his great uncle, Benjamin Wofford; and he was also elected President of the Spartanburg Female College. This last position he held until 1857, when he removed to St. Louis, Mo., and resumed the active practice of law. In the stirring days of 1861 he was editor of the "Missouri State Journal," a daily of great influence and extensive circulation. Owing to its pronounced Southern views it was suppressed by the Federal authorities. Judge Tucker then went South, and threw himself heart and soul into the cause of the Confederacy. At the close of the war he temporarily expatriated himself to the Bermudas, but soon returned to the United States, and became the first settler at the new town of Sanford, Orange county, Fla. There he spent the remaining years of his life, revered by all his neighbors, and wielding an influence for good as wide as the State. Through all the changing years his devotion to the church of his youth never faltered. He was the right-hand man of the pastor in his own town, frequently represented his district as a delegate to the Annual Conference; more than once served as a delegate in the General Conference, and in 1881 was one of the eighteen laymen chosen by the Bishops to attend the Ecumenical Methodist Conference in London. He excelled as a writer, and often appeared in the public prints. His contributions exhibited every substantial quality of good style, being freighted with sound and edifying thought, and expressed in clean and wholesome English. The most intelligent people in every part of the church read all his utterances, and found help and blessing in them.

When shall we see such another man—so serene in spirit, so grave in deportment, so stainless in character, so devoted to God? Peace to his ashes, and let his memory be ever blessed!

REV. JAMES T. NOLEN.

Rev. James T. Nolen, A. B., D. D., late President of the Florida Conference College, was born in Western North Carlina, December 22, 1863, and died at Leesburg, Florida, November 27, 1897.

Early in life he entered the Christian's heritage, becoming a member of our church. Having formed no bad habits and being industrious, he was able to enter Emory and Henry College, graduating at that college he won three medals for excellence in mathematics, natural science, and for the best essay upon a given topic, from the Hermesian Literary Society.

After leaving college, he taught school for two years. Marticulating at Vanderbilt University, he graduated from that foundation in 1891, winning first honor, and taking his degree of Bachelor of Divinity. While in the University he won three prizes for best work: The Elliott F. Shepherd prize for the best historical essay; the Owen prize medal in systematic theology, and the Founder's prize medal for scholarship. Teaching for a time in his native State and also in Mississippi, he was shortly afterward elected President of the Florida Conference College, and entered upon the duties of that position at the opening of the fall session in 1894. He became a member of the Florida Conferenc in December, 1896.

Of a genial and magnetic temperament, he drew to himself his pupils, and from his well stored mind, enriched with the treasures of classic lore, he poured out pearls of thought which were worthy to be mounted in the pure gold of manly character. It is rare that so young a man possesses the aptness of the teacher as did he. One of his students remarked at the late commencement, "One cannot help learning from Professor Nolen."

Coming to the college at a critical time, when the hearts of its Trustees were grieved and burdened over its condition, he began the delicate and difficult work of unifying sentiment in its behalf and composing differences. That he succeeded, illustrates his fitness to be a leader of men. Always optimistie in the best sense, because his faith was anchored on the great teacher, he went over the Conference inspiring confidence and winning friends to the institution, until the bright star of hope was discerned rising on the horizon of the school.

The work committed to Professor Nolen was no sinecure. The upbuilding of a young church educational institution in a sparsely populated section, without endowment, without strong and influential friends, with antagonisms to be reconciled, and the daily problem of support confronting him, he yet wrought manfully and well. So much gratified were his brethren of the Board of Trustees that they accorded him honor for the faithful work he had done for God and Methodism in the Conference College. He had, by the force of his personalty, attracted to the school an excellent corps of teachers, and, despite the financial stringency of the past two years, had secured for the college a commanding position as an educational foundation.

The death of President Nolen came as a profound surprise. We knew of his illness, but believing that his youth and vigor would prove victorious over disease, felt that he would soon be restored to health. There are no words with which to express our sense of loss at his departure. Christian faith assures us that God's hand is in this dispensation. It were well, however, that we recognize it, and if the sacrifice of a useful life, such as was his, means anything, perhaps God aims to bring our reluctant sense to realize that, useful and valuable as he was, he could dispense with his service; no man is so important that God depends upon him to carry on His work.

We can never know the darkness of his Gethsemane; when tried and hampered and well-nigh overborne by the difficulties of his position, he went forward with hopeful words and winning smiles, and, for aught we know, with a breaking heart. Yet in the lives of his pupils the inspiration of his faith and devotion to duty, like a subtle power, was leading them to lay broad and deep foundations for future usefulness and blessing to the church and the world. And so, he did not live in vain, though in the glory and strength of his manhood he laid down the work entrusted to him, and ceased to live among us in the flesh.

We pour out our thanks to God that his grace so mightly reinforces our spiritual natures that no labor is too difficult that he wishes us to undertake, and we thank Him that, undaunted, Professor Nolen took up the heavy burden his brethren proffered him, because he believed he could serve God and his generation in the work of education for the church of his love and choice.

R. L. Honiker,
Chairman.

Editorial.

The following brief sketch of our honored and beloved president, Bishop W. W. Duncan, is taken from "The Little Methodist" of January, and will be read and valued by all into whose hands a copy of our Year Book may chance to fall. We are indebted to Dr. H. Baer, of Charleston, for the main points in the sketch, who kindly furnished it for our paper:

Rev. William Wallace Duncan, D. D., was born at Randolph Macon College, Mecklenburg county, Va., December 27, 1839. His father, Professor David Duncan, in 1854 exchanged his Virginia chair for one in South Carolina, having been elected to the professorship of Greek and Latin by the Trustees of Wofford College. Young "Wallace" entered the Freshman class, the first one in the new college at Spartanburg, S. C., in 1854, and graduated four years afterwards. He returned to the land of his birth, and there was admitted to the Virginia Conference in 1859. He served as chaplain in the army during the war, both in Virginia and in South Carolina; and in the ten years that followed, he did a Methodist preacher's work in the pulpit and on the pastorate, on circuits and stations ranging from the peaks of O'Her on the Blue Ridge to the surf beaten shores of the Chesapeake.

In 1875 he obeyed the summons of his Alma Mater, and delivered the commencement oration, and to use the phrase current at the time, he "swept everything before him." He was at once elected to a professorship in Wofford College. He showed great aptitude for handling crowds, and the South Carolina Conference accordingly set him to work to raise money for their college. This mission brought him in contact with every part of the state; and although professional beggars are not usually favorites, the Methodist people of South Carolina were always glad to have Brother Duncan talk or preach to them. The great trouble was that down in South Carolina they usually only have fifty-two Sundays in a calendar year, and never more than fifty-three.

Dr. Duncan was a member of the general conference held in 1878 and 1882, and in 1886 at Richmond, he headed the delegation from his conference, and here he was elected Bishop.

The choice of the conference gave great satisfaction, and Bishop Duncan took his seat upon the bench the peer of the college. For nearly twelve years he has since labored abundantly in our vast Southern vineyard. He has visited every annual conference of our church on this continent, and he has given great satisfaction everywhere. He is a fine, forcible preacher, and he has the attention of his congregation from the beginning to the end of his sermon.

He is plain and practical, and disdains the use of meretricious eloquent glitter. He is original very often, and always striking; but he does not pose in learned pedantry, nor shoot off theological skyrockets. He is orthodox and evangelical, and his pulpit labors are edifying and profitable.

In the chair he is master of assemblies. He wields the gavel gracefully but firmly. In point of fact, it may be stated, however, that he rarely ever makes any use of the gavel. The word is here used merely as the emblem of authority. A look from the Bishop's eye, a few words from his lips are quite efficient. Bishop Duncan is a man of business and the work of the conference runs along smoothly and with dispatch under his efficient guidance.

We were all delighted to have him with us for the third time at Tampa, and only regretted that on this occassion the session was so hurried in order to get through without too close an infringement upon the holidays, that little or no time could be spared for the usual social amenities incident to conference gatherings. We hope, however, our dear Bishop will carry away with him pleasurable recollections of his recent stay in the land of sunshine and flowers, and be always glad for an opportunity to return to Florida.

OUR CONFERENCE JOURNAL AND YEAR BOOK FOR 1898

Is before you, and we think in some respects an improvement on most, if not all, of its predecessors.

The arrangement of subject matter, and the general character of the mechanical work speak well for the printers and binders. The printing was done by the Floridian Book and Job Office, and the binding by Bryan Bros., whose bindery has the reputation for first-class work as wide as the State. In our editorial service we have tried to exercise the utmost care that no errors should be found. With what success we leave our critics to judge. Reports are all in full and published without abridgment.

The Conference is under obligations to the varous boards for promptness in furnishing their reports for publication. The usual discrepancies between statistical secretary and treasurers of boards continue to appear while we continue to pursue our unbusiness-like methods. Our work is out in good time—just one month from the day we adjourned, and when it is remembered that Christmas and the holidays intervened, the dispatch will be more apparent. We trust the data furnished will be in time to be of service to boards of stewards. If any brethren should discover errors in their reports, the editors will esteem it a favor to be apprised at once of such error, so that if the fault be theirs, proper or pub ic correction may be made. J. B. Ley.

Emory College,

OXFORD, GEORGIA.

This famous school, the joint property of the Florida and Georgia Conferences, is in the midst of the sixtieth year of its history, and more prosperous than ever. Its enrollment of students for the current year has already gone beyond 300, and steadily increases, the patronage coming from every Southern State.

The endowment has been increased by over $100,000, and the equipment in every way improved.

Oxford, the home of the College, is high and healthy. The scale of living is that of cultured people who live in Christian simplicity. The expenses of a college course at Emory are thereby made very low. Equal advantages at a cost so small can hardly be found at any other first-class institution in the country.

Wesleyan Female College,

MACON, GEORGIA.

The college was incorporated in 1836.

On the 7th day of January 1839 its doors were opened to the public. On the first day ninety young women were enrolled, and during the term the number increased to one hundred and sixty-eight.

The first president of the college was George F. Pierce.

From the beginning it has had a most successful career, and thousands still living throughout the South have had the benefit of its instruction.

In 1896 the trustees abolished the lease system under which the college has long been run, placing it under their own immediate control as representatives from the conferences of North and South Georgia and Florida.

Extensive repairs have recently been made. Important changes have been made in the method of instruction, and the curriculum is being advanced so as to equal those of the best colleges for young men.

An academy has been established in connection with the college where those not ready to enter college may receive preparation.

Provision has been made for the best instruction in Music and Art. Special attention is given also to Elocution. Typewriting and Stenography are provided for special pupils.

The location of the college is high and healthy. The grounds are large, and every facility is afforded for the health and happiness of the pupils.

The Spring Term opens January 26, 1898, and the following Fall Term about the middle of September.

Welch's Grape Juice

The pure, unfermented, undiluted juice of the choicest Concord Grapes, pressed, sterilized and hermetically sealed in new glass bottles by the cleanest possible methods. A trial proves it to be just what is claimed for it—a Grape Juice unequaled in aroma and true grape flavor. Without a drop of water or a particle of alcohol, it is a tonic, the invalid's hope, producing a vigor from which there is no reaction. It is not a stimulant.

FOR THE SACRAMENT.

Welch's Grape Juice is so properly the fruit of the vine, that consumers using it are delighted. It is uniformly pleasant, never muddy in color, always without sediment. It is so rich that, if desired, two tumblers of water may be added to each quart of juice, and with this dilution still be rich and palatable.

Does Your Church Use It?

If not, see if your local druggist has it. He either keeps it or will be glad to get it for you. Write to us—a postal card will do—for our booklet.

Two-ounce Sample FREE to Ministers and Physicians. Every Bottle Guaranteed.

REPORTS.

Annual Report of the Tampa Cuban Mission for the year ending Dec. 14th, 1898.

BISHOP AND DEAR BRETHREN:—The year now closing has been graciously blessed under God in the development of this field. We began our work immediately after the adjournment of our last Conference session with a protracted meeting in San Marco's church. The results were most satisfactory and the influence of the meeting has had a salutary effect throughout the entire year.

We have received nineteen new members and fifteen have removed by letter. One of our Stewards Bro. J. Volmey, whose christian character and consecrated life was a benediction to all who knew him, fell asleep in Jesus on the 15th day of October.

We have had several bright conversions during the year. That of Ygnacio Riera, a young man of twenty years of age, should be briefly noted. His parents are Roman Catholics and he was a student of theology in the Havana Seminary, preparing for the priesthood. A sermon on the text "He that believeth not is condemned already," made a deep impression on his mind and heart. At the close of the service an invitation was given to those who felt the need of pardon and would then surrender their lives to Christ, to signify the same by giving their hand to the preacher.—This was unhesitatingly acceded to and four days after, while relating his religions experience in the love feast, he said with deep feeling: "Brethren, once I was in darkness but now I see light all around me. I can see Jesus and am happy in His love." Thank God for such clear testimony.—

On the 16th day of June, we organized an Epworth League, "La Esperanza de Cuba," (The Hope of Cuba,) with twenty-five members. The results achieved through this branch have been most pleasing and satisfactory. The religions feature of the League has received our special and most careful attention, to which fact, is due, we believe, the wonderful success attained. The meetings are conducted by the young people and other members of the League. The services are very spiritual and well attended. We have a Bible class of young people which meets weekly at the Mission House and is faithfully taught by Miss Bruce. We have two Sunday Schools with fourteen teachers and one hundred and fifty pupils. Both the Wolff and San Mateo Mission Day Schools, under the wise and judicious management of Miss Bruce,Supt., are in a flourishing and prosperous condition. The Boy's School is now taught in the Wolff building to which two spacious and comfortable rooms have been added during the year.

The West Tampa School House which is also used as a chapel, has been completed. The Woman's Home Missionary Society deserves great praises for its generous gifts and noble efforts in behalf of the Cuban School work. It is to be hoped that the Island of Cuba being now open to the Gospel, our Woman's Missionary Societies will enter the field at once and establish their most excellent School Work in connection with such missionary movements as the General Board of Missions may inaugurate.

My recent visit through some of the principal cities and towns of Cuba, and especially my labors in Santiago for more than two months, have brought to light wonderful possibilities. the existence of which I had not dreamed before. For instance, the establishment of a free republican government in the Province of Santiago resulting in the steady growth and rapid development of its interests, has caused an earnest desire and disposition in the hearts of our people to readily accept that form of religion which, though not clearly specified, is suggested and encouraged both in the letter and spirit of its laws. There are many other encouraging features that might be mentioned showing very plainly the most favorable auspices and conditions under which our Mission work in Cuba can be sucessfully inaugurated. God grant that we may see these wonderful possibilities and providential openings, and, realizing our duty, may we in His name enter and conquer the beautiful Island of Cuba for our blessed Lord and King.

Thank God the door which for more than 400 years had been bolted against the glorious Gospel of His Son. is now open wide and, with floating banners and joyful hearts our beloved Methodism may enter in and occupy till Christ shall come in the glory of His Power!

As far back as I can remember, the M. E. Church, South, has been on her knees praying that the day might speedily come when "a great door and effectual" should be open to the Gospel and the pure Word of God preached "without let or hindrance" to the inhabitants of Cuba. Thank God for such earnest pleadings, many of which have ascended the Throne of Grace from the Florida Conference! The great giver has graciously heard and in due time answered your petitions. Blessed be God, the shackles of a most abject political slavery have been broken. The minds and consciences of a million and half of human souls over whom the scepter of proud Rome has swayed more than four centuries, have been set free and gloriously liberated by the Stroke of that Omnipotent (though unseen) hand that rules the world! Brethren:—Your prayers are answered. The whole Island of Cuba is open to the Gospel and your own great and noble country has been the instrument chosen of God for the accomplishment of these blessed results. Women of America:—the redemption of Cuba was, under God sealed by the shedding of your loved one's blood on the beautiful green hills of Santiago:—will you not help finish the noble work by them begun? Shall the sacrifice of the precious lives of those who fell on San Juan Hill and the unselfish efforts of those who survive, have been made in vain because of your indifference and lack of sympathy and energy in the prosecution of one of the grandest movements that shall ever be recorded in the future history of the Christian Church? Let me say to one and all that the freedom of Cuba is but fairy begun and will not be completed without the liberal help and co-operation of the Christian Churches of America.—I care not how proudly the flag of national independence may wave over the Queen of the Antilles; as long as Cuban consciences remain under the yoke of spiritual slavery and opression, and until the radiant light of Jesus' love shall have illumined the minds and hearts of our benighted people, there will be sadly lacking in the Cuban home that Christian influence which is the only element of its real happiness and our country will be deprived of the highest civilization that is the privilege of every nation to enjoy. May God help you and me and every true Methodist to do our whole duty and it shall not be long when "the wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose"

Respectfully Submitted.

H. B. SOMEILLAN.

WAR CLAIM.

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following. In view of some of the methods used for the collection of the claim of own Publishing House against the United States Government pending the consideration of the matter in the Senate, and in view of the well established rule that the acts of an agent become the acts of the principal unless they are disavowed, and of the fact that the Florida Annual Conference, is in the position of principal in this transaction hereby resolves.

1st. That the conduct of E. B. Stahlman in this case is in our judgment entirely indefensible.

2nd. That we disavow the evasion and misleading statements made by our Book Agents to certain Senators, although said statements in no wise effected the justness of our claim, believing as we do that the Church of God should not secure its rights by any methods not entirely candid and open.

3rd. In the interest of the peace of the church and that the future settlement of the matter may be free from all embarrasment, we believe that the Book Agents should resign and also those members of the Book Committee who voted to approve the conduct of the Book Agents.

4th. We approve the proposal of the Bishops that the money be tendered back to the Government, and we trust them to protect the good name of our Church by such farther steps that may be necessary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

The report of tne General Secretary shows an exceedingly healthy condition of the Epworth League work. The League occupies a large place among the working forces of the church. The more than 200,000 young people associated together in this organization should be a potent agency for good. The church cannot too carfully train, or to jealously watch over over, this young and growing child.

It is gratifying to note the enlargement and improved character of the "Epworth Era." It now has a circulation of almost 13,000 copies. We earnestly commend it to our preachers and people.

Your committee cannot too strongly urge the pastors to make as large a use of the League as possible. It is loyal to the pastor and the church. Use it to help you in your work. In securing your collections, looking up strangers, visiting and caring for the sick, it may be made exceedingly useful. Some Leagues are dying for want of some special work to do. We commend to you the living and vital questions of missions and education, in which the young people can be interested to the good of the church. Upon these question our young people should take advanced ground. Our work in this conference has moved forward with satisfactory results during the past year. The State Conference, at Lake City last year, was an occasion of great profit, Only one District Meeting has been held within our bounds. Your committee feel safe in saying that the District Meeting is worth much more than it costs to thou who attend, and to the place where it is held. We urge these meetings upon your consideration.

The reading course furnished by the general Board should be in the possession of every league in the State. To keep this work on a permanent basis it mnst be well furnished with proper mental food and training.

The minutes of the last State meeting contain much valuable information which should be in the hands of our young people. We trust the pastors will aid us in circulating this puplication therby increasing the efficiency of the League.

W. J. CARPENTER,
For the Com.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We recognize the successful labour of Rev. R. H. Barnett as Colporteur and commend him for his good work.

Our central organ, "The Christian Advocate" we commend to our Church and her People, as well as the Quarterly Review. They are both able, and doing a good work, helpful to preachers and layman.

We also commend the Epworth Era, a good paper, for a good cause.

It is gratifying to learn that our Sunday Schools are using our own Sunday School literature very generally. It is certainly the best, as well as the cheapest, and we hope to see the time, when none other be used in our Sunday Schools, except that which we furnish. The "Sunday School Visitor" is commended as a Young People's Paper, and trust that it will be brought up to as high a standard as others of like publications.

It is a matter of regret that we find in the Christmas Catalogue of our Publishing House, books offered for sale, which we can not commend to the Public, and while we omit the titles and authors of same we deplore the fact that they are offered, and trust that our Publishing House in the future, will be very careful in making up such catalogues.

We recognize that the Florida Christian Advocate has been of great service to the Church,and we recommend our people to partronize it, and our preachers to work for it. And that the Conference select Dr. J. Anderson as editor for the ensuing quadrennial.

We further recommend that thePresiding Elders of the several districts of the Conference be constituted a Committee on Publication of the Florida Christian Advocate, that by reason sickness, resignation or death of the editor, that then, and in that event the said committee be empowered to continue the publication of the Advocate, by appointing an editor and publisher, who shall continue in said office until the ensuing Annual Conference.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We believe the Methodist Church to be a temperance society than which there is none better we devoutly thank God for every victory won, but so long as body mind and soul are wrecked home blighted, society contaminated, and nation corrupted by this dread enemy so long are we called upon to put forth our best energies for its extermination.

Therefore, Resolved, 1st. That we as a church rejoice that light or wine counties of our State have gone dry this conference year and, congratulate those brethren who have laboured so diligently for the success achieved.

2nd. That we pledge ourselves to a more diligent and systematic warfare upon this foe of God and man.

3rd. Believing the seeds of intemperance to be sown largely in the home by use of domestic wines and such like drinks, we will do all in our power to discourage the manufacture and use of such liquors.

4th. That we hereby request the pastors and laymen of our church to circulate among the people for the purpose of getting as many signatures thereto as possible to a petition, directed to the Legislature of the State of Florida requesting proper legislation to submit to the election of the State of Florida an amendment to the constitution of the State so as to prohibit the manufacture and sale of alcohol or intoxicating liquors within the State of Florsda.

5th That a committee of three be appointed to prepare and have printed a sufficient number of petitions for the purpose aforesaid and distribute the same among the pastors of our Conference.

S. W. LAWLER. Secretary. T. C. BRADFORD, Chairman.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We find that the Record Books of the Orlando, Tallahassee Live Oak,and Jacksonville Districts have been well kept. The minutes of the Gainesville District Conference have not been recorded. which indicates gross neglect. A lengthy report has been pasted in the Record Book of Tampa District, which, in the judgment of your Committee, is a serious defect.

Committee.

ON COMMUNICATION FROM PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

While we deeply deplore the lax Divorce laws of our country it is the opinion of your committee to whom was referred the petition sent to this Conference for its consideration by the Protestant Episcopal Church that no real good would be accomplished by the enactment of the proposed amendment to our State law.

REPORT BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Board of Education be authorized to pay $500. out of the seventy-five per cent of moneys to be collected in 1899 on the Educational assessment to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Florida Conference College for the use of the Faculty of the College.

Resolved, That our preachers be requested to take the Educational collection as early in the year as practicable and forward the money to the Treasurer of this Board.

F. E. Shipp.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Our Board has helped during the present year 33 schools, at an expense of $121.74. Many schools which formerly contribueed to this cause are now being aided by us, and though the outlook is hopeful for help from them for several years, the belief is cherished that eventually they will resume their contributions to this work.

The observance of Childrens' Day is becoming more regular, and the pastors and Superintendents are beginning to to realize the importance of the work this day is designed to help and forward.

We congratulate our Conference on the work this fund is enabling the Board to do among the needy in our bounds, and we respectfully urge our pastors and Sunday school workers to make the annual celebration of Children's Day an occasion of great intsrest and profft to all concerned.

We commend the excellent publications of our Church for Sunday schools, and urge our people everywhere to introduce our own literature wherever it is practicable to do so.

We are gratified to announce that programmes for the observance of Childrens' Day will be furnished gratuitously by our Publishing House to all schools needing this aid, and we trust our needy schools. Total collection, $128.83.

Reespectfully,

G. D. Turner,

Chairman,

The Board of Education of the Florida Annual Conference submit the following report:

The present administration of the Florida Conference College has made a record during the year for a happy discipline and thorough instruction most creditable to our church in Florida. We are happy to be able to commend the College to the patronage of our people. We thank God and take courage when we review the record of the year.

More than a third of the college debt has been paid off. All of our obligations have been met, and the faculty tided through a year of great financial depression. The outlook for the college seems brighter than ever in its history. We are happy to report also that the institution is now being placed upon a solid financial foundation and commend the plans of President Long to the confidence of our people.

The treasurer of the Board has received $980.54 from the various charges of the Conference as follows:

BIBLE CAUSE.

We are glad to report the financial condition of the American Bible Society better than last year, but still not enough to maintain the work which is continually expanding.

The society is not endowed but depends upon gifts to maintain the work, From last years report, we find that the total amount from the living is $86,536.63, Of this amount $30,148.84 was contributed by the churches. With Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippines now open to us, it it will require at last $300,000 to successfully carry on the work. We would, therefore urge upon our pastors to bring this cause before their people and take this collection. Rev. T. H. Law of Spartanburg, S. C. field agent for the society, will gladly send any information needed. The society now has field agents in place of District Superintendents who will work directly with churches, thus leaving responsibility of support entirely on church contributions.

As we are dependent upon the Bible for religious freedom and true civilization, we feel that it is obligatory upon us to do all we can to supply all the people with this precious Word of God.

MEMOIRS.

MEMOIRS.

REV. WM. C. JORDAN.

Rev. Willliam C. Jordan was born in the State of Alabama in the year 1833, and was spiritually born in the seventeenth year of his age; became a minister in 1855, and died in Polk county, Florida, June 20, 1898.

The last charge which he served before his translation to the joy of his Lord was the Kissimmee station. Entering upon the work with great hopefulness and zeal. at the beginning of the year, he prosecuted his labors with fidelity and success until a short time before the meeting of his district conference, when he was prostrated with the illness which closed his useful and devoted life, terminating a ministry of forty years, blamelessly and honorably.

The greater part of his ministerial life was spent in southern Florida, serving the Church as pastor on missions, circuits, stations, and as presiding elder. In every sphere in which he labored he met the demands of his position and fulfilled the expectations of his brethren. To few men is it given to make larger increase in the wisdom of God than did he, and it may be said that he improved his talents to the good of his fellowmen and the glory of God.

He was an earnest-spirited man and Christian. Believing heartily the great cardinal doctrines of the Bible he preached clearly and forcibly on the themes which move men. His style was sententious—packing his thoughts in good plain English words—he delivered the truths upon which he descanted with a vigor and insistence which arrested the thought, inspired the mind and stirred tne conscience of the listener. It is not strange, therefore, that his ministry was fruitful in saved and sanctified sonls.

His faith was simple and beautiful. There were no "caves of gloom" in the book which was his mentor and comfort. He knew how to draw water from the wells of salvation. Often, in private conversation, his face would shine with the soft luminance betokening the presence of the Holy Spirit in his heart. The wrangling voices of higher critics did not mar the deep and abiding peace his soul possessed.

God has His uplands: only there do elect spirits walk, and there our departed comrade found his highest and holiest companionships. He underwent the crucifying of his fleshy nature, and as "gold is tried by fire and the heart is made pure by pain," so he experienced the blessedness of those worthy ones "who walk in white raiment."

His family life was even, consistent and beautiful. While other lives are conspicuous by the brilliancy of some elements, his was as the clear shining of the sun—"shining more and more unto the perfect day." He cherished humble views of his attainments in grace. but so luminous was his life that all beholding him, realized that he had been with Jesus and had learned of Him.

He loved to converse with his brethren on the sbject of personal religion. His talk was of God and His goodness, and he expatiated with tear-dimmed eye and tremulous voice upon the salvation which delighted his soul and enabled him to realize his heirship with our Lord in the kingdtm of His love.

Of course, he passed away in holy triumph! A life of lowly devotion was crowned with a victorious ending, and while we mourn his departure from the militant Church, we rejoice that he was faithful even unto death. and has entered into "the rest which remains for the people of God."

The closing years of his life were marked by great and sore troubles. Failing eyesight interfered with the freedom of his movements, but he used all the light his enfeebled eyes received in pursuing the vocation into which he had been called. He often said that he "rejoiced that, while he could see material objects only with difficulty, the eyes of his soul were so clear that he could gaze upon Jesus." The death of his wife was a sore grief to him, but he believed that heaven held in store greater joys in the reunion which he felt would not long be denied him. And so he waited until the Master he loved and served called him to the glad surprises of His heavenly home, conscious that for him to die was to gain Christ, and thus we would be "ever with the Lord."

While he think of the words of the apostles, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," the Sun of our souls struggles out from behind the clouds of sorrow, and picks out every letter of the apocalypse in gold?

R. L. HONIKER.

MRS. SUSAN HICE.

Mrs. Susan Hice, second daughter of the celebrated Judge Doak, the beloved wife of our brother and fellow-laborer, Rev. Henry Hice, was born in Shelbyville, Kentucky, in 1859: was born again and received into the Church in her twelfth year; married in 1880, and departed this life at Jasper, Florida, November 12, 1898. Such is the brief record of an ascended saint whose life among us only the recording angel can reveal.

Modest and reserved in demeanor, her presence was, nevertheless, felt in every sphere in which her influence was exerted. As President of the local aid society, and Vice President of the Womans' Foreign Missionary Society of her Church, her labors and her counsels were recognized and respected. Filling a delicate position as the wife of the pastor. her ready intelligence was at all times competent to aid and guide in the work of the Church. She was never obtrusive, but always gentle, womanly, and discreet; never allowing the work she loved to lag through any indifference on her part

It is a comfort to her bereaved household to remember that no harsh word ever proceeded out of her mouth. No unkind thought of others found utterance through her lips. The memory of her quiet and gentle nature remains like fragrant perfume to cheer the hearts made sad by her departure.

Loving God supremely, she delighted in the work of the Church. Just one week before she left these earthly scenes, she was kneeling at the altar, during a revival in her husband's pastoral charge, praying with, and pointing penitent souls to, the Lamb of God which taketh away the ain of the world. Ready to labor or to rest, her only wish was that she might be spared to guide her household, comfort and cheer her husband, and rear her boy, if it were God's will for her. But, not so! Her work was done, and in the vigor and beauty of her mature womanhood she laid down the Cross that she might wear the Crown. No doubt, she rests in the Paradise of God.

There are no words our lips can utter that can soothe the broken hearted, but in our helplessness a voice divine may be heard, saying, "Let not your heart be troubled: where I am there also shall my servants be." Safe and blest are the dead who die in the Lord, and they die to earth that they may live with Christ forevermore.

Fire Insurance on Church Property.

Southern Stock-Mutual and Underwriters Insurance Co's. of Greensboro, N. C.

THE PLAN. 1. In North and South Carolina where the business is under the personal supervision of the Managers and local agents of the companies, a general business is done, subject to rigid restrictions.

2. In other Southern States the churches are dealt with directly and church property exclusively is insured, that is, church buildings and furniture, parsonages, ministers' furniture and library. In these States the assured (the church) receives a cash discount of 15 per cent commission, and this with the policy-holders annual dividend of 20 per cent. (see below) makes a saving of 35 per-cent on every church policy. (3) The usual established rates of insurance are charged.

(4) All profits except the Charter Reserves and fixed stock-holders percentage are returned annually to policy-holders. (5) Policy-holders assume no liability whatever, are exempt from liabilit by charter.

Combined assets to policyholders $219,162.78, $12,410.72 in Dividends to Policy-holders on business of 1895-96-97, being 20per-cent. each year.

Five Thousand Testimonials like the following can be Furnished.

We are personally acquainted with most of the officers and directors of the Southern Stockmutual and Underwriters Ins. Companies and know them to be, not only prominent as citizens, but recognized financiers and successful business men. The Companies have had a remarkably successful history, and so far as we have been able to learn, have given great satisfaction to their policy holders.

20 Per.Cent Dividends to Policy-Holders.

Greensboro, N.C., July 25th, 98.

We have been carrying since Jan'y 1896 on our church building, a policy in the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company of Greensboro, N. C. We believe that our insurance is as good as the best and it is costing us much less than other companies charge. This is a strong, safe, solvent, successful company. The people of Greensboro think there is no better.

We have been carrying for the past three years a policy on our banking house in the Southern Stock-Mutual Ins. Company. Our dividends amounted to $21.00. We commend this excellent Company as strong, safe and deserving the patronage of our people.

Propmt Payment of Losses.

Newton, N. C. March 10,96.

On March 5th 1896, the Presbyterian Manse at this place was destroyed by fire. The building was insured in the Southern Stock-Mutual Ins. Company and we have to-day received a check for the amount of our policy without deduction or discount.

We have never known an insurance loss to be settled more promptly or more satisfactorily.

Reports.

COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We record our profound gratitude to Almighty God for His presence in and His blessings upon, the educational enterprises of our Church and Conference. During the year now closing our institutions of learning have been, as of yore, fountains from whence have issued healing and blessing both for those in contact with their gracious opportunities as well as for those within the sphere of their influence. The Bible and the text book constitute the palladium of both mental and spiritual enfranchisement, and only as we are true to the purpose of Jesus Christ in these may we hope for the results for which our prayers are offered, our labors given, and our means laid upon this altar of devotion.

The report from Emory College shows gratifying results. This institution has been more fortunate in securing men eminently qualified in head and in heart to fill the various professorships. With the best equipments and a constituency of over 200,000 Methodists, it commands the admiration of all our people. We are glad to learn from the report of the President that the enrollment for the Fall Session is 286. Of this number thirty five are sons of ministers of the gospel, who are receiving without charge for tuition, the advantages of this school of uncorrupted learning. We commend this institution for its adherence to this honorable tradition, and trust our people will patronize, more and more, this generous institution which has done so much for our Methodism and for the spread of the gospel around the world. Those who feel constrained to educate their sons out of our State will find unsurpassed advantages at Emory College.

We note with pleasure from the report of the President of Wesleyan Female College that this grand old foundation is in a prosperous condition. Its usefulness increases with its years, and a long honorable past is the guarantee of still greater efficiency in the years to come. The pressing need of the Wesleyan College is an ample endowment; this once secured, the way will be open to perfect the plans which are in abeyance until this shall have been secured. This institution is to be congratulated that it owes no floating debts—the total amount of its indebtedness (which is in bonds,) being only $44,000. The assets of the College, stated in round numbers, are $259,000. This is most encouraging, and we congratulate the Trustees upon this excellent showing.

To those Florida Methodists who feel that they must educate their children out of this State, we suggest, may recommend, that under such stress of conditions which may make this an imperative, that they give their patronage to our own approved institutions. They want and need the best education to be had for their children—then let them see that their patronage and influence are given where the best results are to be secured. Long may this venerable foundation of learning remain among us to bless our land with its labors in behalf of a consecrated and fully equipped womanhood.

The Florida Conference College, our own institution, and specially dear to our hearts because of the value of its work to our Conference and people, commends itself to the Methodists of Florida, as well as to Christians of other communities. At this fountain of knowledge the youth of our State, as well as those from the more rigorous climate of the northern portion of our country, may receive a full equipment for the serious and practical duties of life. The Faculty has been selected with care and discrimination, and the work done at this institution is self evidencing by its reality and thoroughness. Hampered by a lack of endowment and by a meagre patronage, it has, nevertheless, gone on from the day of its beginning with increased usefulness. Just how such splendid results have been secured as mark its history only God and the faithful men and women know who have wrought in the heat and burden of the day of its necessity. Nevertheless, we congratulate the Conference and the College that, despite the disasters of the past year, the patronage has gratifyingly increased, and the release of all claims against the institution has been secured. Our thanks are due President Lang for his efficient and successful work in bringing this result to pass.

With feelings of pardonable pride we note the opportunity afforded our people to give expression of their appreciation of the best and highest and most productive education by the Twentieth Century Thank-offering Fund. As yet, the returns from this providential movement have been below the dignity and resources of our great Church, but we are constrained to believe that the signs are favorable for awakening to the value and importance of this enterprise which shall fill our treasuries with the means so much desired and so greatly needed.

We request the Bishop presiding at this Conference to appoint T. G. Lang and H. A. Bardwell to The Florida Conference College; F. Pasco to the State Institute for Deaf and Dumb Children; J. R. Walker and J. S. Tilley, students in the Conference College and in Vanderbilt University and Rev. T. G. Lang Conference Secretary of Education.

The following resolution is published for the information and benefit of all concerned:

Rseolved, That we look to each presiding elder for a thorough canvas of his district early in the year in the interest of the 20th century educational movement, and suggest the appointment by him of one or more men in his district to co-operate with him in distributing literature and arranging for educational meetings within the district.

That we especially recommend to our pastors the holding of circuit or inter-circuit educational mass-meetings.

That we look to our College President to arrange for educational mass meetings in our centres; for suggestions as to plans and methods as to carrying out our part of the movement; for literature to be used in forwarding the movement; and we will welcome him among us as far as he can visit us to help us in this work.

J. DODWELL, President.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your committee on temperance notes with pleasure that the Methodist Church is relentless in her warfare upon strong drink, the enemy of God, the Church of his Son, our homes and civilization.

Since our last Conference the saloons in some places have been closed, but in their places have sprung up the domestic wine shop, which wine under our present law is manufactured and sold without restraint.

So great is this evil becoming, so potent upon the morals of our state, be it ordained—

1st. That as pastors we will be more diligent in the administration of the Discipline at this point.

2nd. That we will preach at least once during the year upon this subject and in any other way possible endeavor to create public sentiment against the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquors.

3rd. That we hereby request the pastors and laymen of our Church to circulate among the people for the purpose of getting as many signatures thereto as possible, a petition directed to the Legislature of the State of Florida requesting such legislation as will place domestic wine under the same class as other intoxicating liquors.

S. W. LAWLER, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Never has there been such wide-spead and deep interest in the Book of God as we now find among his people; and as also is shown by those who, hitherto, have been blind to its truths and unmoved by its wonderful power. While the Christian preacher and teacher go forth using it as the sword of the Spirit, the sin-sick soul among the heathen and lost sinner at home are finding it to be the balm of Gilead, which restores them to life and health. In the plentiful and cheap supply to us of the Word, we are apt to forget that millions are yet without it and strangers to its blessed teachings. The printed Word is a necessary instrument in all successful Christian work, lies at the base and is the source of all Gospel preaching and teaching; and no missionary effort can succeed or be permanent where it is not disseminated, read and obeyed. This turns our thoughts to the human agency which is, to us, the source of supply for the Book—that great fountain from which is pouring the streams that are refreshing and gladenning the world—The American Bible Society.

We have not time to recount the blessings it has brought the world and the help it has given the churches in its nearly sixty six millions of books put in the hands of the people, often free of cost; in the thousands of destitute homes visited, supplied and helped by its workers, and its efficient corps of colporteurs and missionaries sent into cheerless home and foreign fields during its eighty-three years' existence. This past year alone, it issued 1,380,000 copies of the Word and to foreign fields made grants amounting to $156,509. What would missionary effort be without this help? Especially would we call attention to its work in the recently opened fields of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Phillippines, where its past and present efforts have made missionary success possible. Do we, as a church or conference, appreciate this great institution and are we helping it in any fitting degree in supplying the needy with the Word of Life? This year, in the Florida Conference, only fifty pastors have reported amounts raised for the Bible Cause, and only $23.21 contributed. Do we let our people know of its work and give them opportunity to help it?

The Field Agent, Rev. T. H. Law, D.D., Spartanburg, S. C., stands ready to supply pastors with literature concerning the work of the Society; to aid in securing grants of books to supply destitute persons, and assist in putting a Bible in the hands of every Sunday School pupil at half the regular price. Shall we not put ourselves in communication with him and the Society, and thus not only help him and it, but let them help us? Shall we not inform our people as to the work of the Society and give them opportunity to contribute to it? In order to further this great cause we present for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we rejoice in the increasing prosperity and continued usefulness of the American Bible Society;

Resolved, That we will heartily co-operate with it in its efforts to supply the destitute with the Word of Life by bringing the cause prominently and specially before our people; by taking annual collections for the Society, and by hunting out and supplying with the Word those who are without it.

Resolved, That we constitute the present committee as a permanent one for four years, to consist of one from each district, the chairman, Rev. H. E. Partridge, being authorized to fill vacancies during the year, so that each district be represented, said committee to do all in its power to promote the interests of this great cause during the year.

H. E. PARTRIDGE, Chairman.

COMMITTE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The report of the General Secretary shows a most encouraging condition of this department of the work of the Church. Five hundred and eighty new chapters have been organized this year, adding 24,440 new members, which bring the aggregated membership to about 300,000. With proper attention to this work and more activity upon the part of the ministry this membership could be increased another 100,000.

We would recommend that the pastors use their Leagues to aid them in securing any deficits that may occur in their Conference collections. This is known as the "Holsten plan," and commends itself to our judgment. This matter will doubtless receive further attention at the State Conference.

The Epworth Era has a circulation of nearly 14,000. It is a clean, well-edited and deservedly popular paper, and should be in the hands of all our young people. The paper occupies a large place in our work and is almost a necessity to the advance which we should make in our work with the young.

It is the judgment of the committee that a Southern conference of our Leaugue would inure to a better understanding of the work and to any advance movement that may be enterprised.

We would respectfully urge our presiding elders to co-operate with the district chairmen in holding and magnifying the district

League meetings. Experience has clearly shown that these meetings are the most important of any we hold In this connection the committee would take special pleasure in commending the State Conference and ask the hearty co operation and attendance of our pastors and presiding elders.

W. J. CARPENTER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE.

We, the committee on Orphanage work in the Florida Conference, beg leave to submit the following report:

That we have at present six orphans in the Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga , from Florida

That the sum of $65.40 has been contributed by this Conference this year for the Orphan's Home above referred to, by the following charges:

Total	65.40

This amount has been paid to Rev. W. A. Huckabee, Agent.

We have adopted the following as the basis of operations for the committee:

First—This committee shall be known as the Orphange Committee of the Florida Conference.

Second—This committee shall consist of the following members: R. M. Evans, H. Hice, W. N. Sheats, I. S. Patterson, B. F. Mason, J. A.

Hendry, E. A. Harrison, H. E. Partridge, W. B. Fresca, and their successors in office, all vacancies being filled by the Conference, on the nomination of this committee.

Third—The officers of this committee shall be president, vice president secretary and treasurer, to be elected annually by the committee.

Fourth—Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Fifth—It shall be the duty of this committee to look after the orphans between the ages of two and ten years old, getting the helpless ones, if possible, into our home, and devise means for the collections of funds for their support. They shall also study the interests of the hundreds of helpless orphans in Cuba, and as soon as possible devise means whereby they may be helped. They shall also have in view the establishment of a home in Florida whenever practicable.

Sixth—This committee shall make an annual report to the Conference of their work during the year.

R. M. EVANS, President.

COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The records of the Tallahassee, Gainesville, Jacksonville, Orlando, Tampa and Live Oak District Conferences have been submitted to the committee, as the law requires and it affords us pleasure to report that they have been well kept. The record of the Key West District Conference has not been recorded, neither has it been recopied.

F. R. BRIDGES, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Inasmuch as our people are thirsting for knowledge, and whereas there is such a vast amount of light and trashy literature, calculated to poison the minds of our young people, filling them with false and dangereus conceptions of life, we hail with gladness the interest that is being manifested in the church to supply this want in books and periodicals suited to sowing the seeds of gospel grace in the hearts and consciences of our young people.

And inasmuch as oftentimes the poison is concealed under the adornment of beautiful language and rounded periods, we your committee, would urge our brethren to press the use of our own publications which have passed under the critical eye of our own book editor, that our children may not be poisoned.

We note with pleasure the fact, that the Publishing House, amid so many disturbing circumstances, shows such a good financial balance and also for the hopeful prospects for the incoming year.

In this connection we note with great pleasure the vast good done by our worthy colporteur, Rev. R. H. Barnett, in distributing so many good books from our Publishing House, by his untiring zeal in this worthy cause.

We would suggest, if it be possible, that our publications be reduced in price, so as not only to compete with the cheap literature of the day, but even at a lower price, as christian character is of far more value than money.

In view of the fact, that our business men are so engrossed in this fast age with worldly affairs that they do not take time to read good and useful books, but use the daily papers and magazines for their mental food, and consequently carry to their homes some of the secular dailies filled with scandals and sensational items, which ought not to be published, your committee thinks if the central organ of our Methodism could be made a daily, it would overcome this evil, and we would cease to see our homes defiled with these instruments of death.

We would especially call your attention to our central publications: The Christian Advocate, carrying the news from all our connections; the Methodist Reviews, devoted to religion and philosophy, science and literature, which should be read by our preachers and laymen that they may keep abreast with the times; the Review of Missions, which we can not see how a Methodist preacher can do without; the Epworth Era, which should be in the hands of all our young people.

And above all, we would call your attention to our Sunday school literature, so fully adapted to the wants of our children, and especially the Sunday School Magazine, as being the best of its class.

We come now to notice that publication which is dearest to the hearts to our Florida christians. Somehow or other we always appreciate the most the touch of the gentle hand of our dear ones at home, so we think the Florida Christian Advocate is the best paper of all the papers for the Florida conferenceman, and we heartily endorse and submit the editor's own report, as follows:

"To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Conference:

"Dear Brethern—As the Publisher of 'The Florida Christian Advocate,' which is your paper, it is my duty to submit to you an annual report, and I do so now with special gratitude to the great Head of the Church for grace and providential help through the year. It is a great privilege to work for my Lord, and it is with thankfulness that I record His blessing upon my labors. The testimonies of a great many show how greatly the "Advocate" has been blessed to their souls.

"This has been a year of much financial depression in this state, Many have left the state and many have have moved from one place to another, the result of disappointed hopes in business; and it was feared that the 'Adocate' would suffer more than in former years But on the contrary collections have been better, and the "Advocate" stands higher than for some time past.

"In July a serious illness, brought on by exce sive labor, prostrated the Editor, but it pleased God to raise him up and restore him to health, and the paper has continued to make its weekly visits. There is an increase of new subscribers and renewals, and a considerable falling off in discontinuances. The receipts since December 9, 1898 from subscriptions and advertising have been $2,888.15; and the expense of getting out the paper and mailing it has been $2,312.36, making a net gain of $575.79, which is the salary of the editor and publisher for the year; a better result than was obtained last year, but still small.

"In conclusion, your servant, the publisher, begs leave to remind you and the Church of that part of the contract which promises moral support and working assistance in obtaining subscribers and looking after the interests of the paper. Let this be fulfilled and the Advocate will succeed.

"Respectfully submitted,

"J. ANDERSON, Editor and Publisher."

T. W. MOORE, Chairman.

MEMOIRS

Memoirs.

REV. W. S. RICHARDSON.

Rev. W. S. Richardson was born on Cape Fear River, Bladen Co., N. C., January 21,1833, and finished his earthly pilgrimage at Key West, Florida, Sept. 14, 1899. In early life he was deeply impressed on the subject of religion, and, while yet in his boyhood, he was much given to private meditation and prayer. Of this peroid he writes:

"I was from childhood strongly impressed on the subject of religion. I have distinct remembrance of the conviction for sin, and earnest desire to be a Christian. I felt a mysterious tendency or drawing toward the Christain ministry."

When, in the presence of God, death invades our circle and removes a friend, our thoughts naturally turn back upon the life that is closed, and comtemplating that life across the the chasm of the grave, we are likely to see its characteristic in a clear and truth revealing light. This fact may have given currency to the poetic aphorism—"Blessings brighten as they fly." There are, however, some lives of such noble mould, and transparent purity as to compel recognition and elicit the commendation of all good men. Such a life was that of your late pastor, Rev. W. S. Richardson.

His supreme desire was to be and do good; and through riches of grace in Christ Jesus, this desire was fulfiiled in large measure. He was distinctively referred to among his brethren—both clerical and lay—as "eminently pious, thoroughly consecrated; a man full of faith and the Holy Ghost."

He was fortunate in being sent, at a critical period in life, to Bingham school, in Orange county, N. C., where he was surrounded with excellent educational and religious influences. It was here, when nineteen years of age, at a revival meeting that he found pardon and peace in believing. Of this experience he says:

"I retired to a grove near by before school hours and while engaged in prayer, a holy calm filled my soul, and peace reigned within. All nature seemed touched with supreme beauty and all praised God. While sitting quietly and peacefully contemplating the scene, I realized a distinct and unmistakable call to preach the gospel. How glad I would have been to have responded obediently to the Divine call; but being very timid—excessively and painfully so—also possessing no confidence in my ability. I kept the knowledge of the call to myself alone I felt it would be presumptuous even to acknowledge it to any one. The idea of my preaching was too much for my bashful, self-distrusting nature."

After the lapse of thirty-eight years and in the full maturity of his ministerial life and usefulness he recurs to his first distinct call to the ministry. Of it he writes:

"Looking back to that happy morning, I am filled with regret that I was not obedient to the call. Every advantage lay before me. All to gain and nothing to lose—if I could have so seen it."

And then adds this reflection: "How much better for the young—the old—all—to submit their all ways to Divine guidance."

Failing to get full consent to avow his call to the ministry and commit himself to the work of preparation, he gradually drifted back to a worldly life.

A few years later an event occurred which, under God, settled his future course. He was married to Miss Annie E. Foxworth, of Sumpter county, South Carolina, a woman of superior qualities of mind and heart, and withal, devotedly pious. It was not long after this union before, at a gracious revival meeting, he was wonderously reclaimed and the joy of salvation restored. With restoration to the conscious favor of God there came a distinct renewal of the call to preach the gospel; and now again, as the first instance, he was involved in a conflict—a struggle. His exalted conception of the sacred office and the work of the Christian ministry on the one hand, and the humble views which he entertained for himself and his abilities on the other, greatly discouraged and depressed him. Nevertheless, he was firm in adherence to the purpose formed—to follow what seemed to be the guiding hand of Divine Providence. He at once fell into line of such church work as came to hand. He rendered efficient service as steward, class-leader and Sunday-school superintendent and meanwhile thought, studied and prayed with reference to that broader field of Christian activity and usefulness which he was destined to occupy.

In due time he was licensed to preach. As a local preacher he was earnest, diligent and faithful. Having been (as he considered it) tardy in beginning the work to which he was divinely called, it appeared as though he would, if possible, make amends for misspent time and lost opportunities by extraordinary zeal and activity. A year or two in the ranks of the local ministry convinced that in that relation he could not make full proof of his ministry. He could not preach effectively and at the same time give attention to secular business, and besides, he felt that his call was to the work of pastor as well as preacher. After prayerful consideration he decided to seek the pastoral relation, and it seems to have been his original purpose to apply to the South Carolina Conference for admission into the traveling connection, but that body was overcrowded at the time, and in the good providence of the great head of the church, his attention was turned to Florida.

His first wife having died in 1892, he married Miss Mattie Blalock, July 31, 1895, with whom he lived in an ideal union until the close of his useful and devoted life.

Learning that Florida was a field "white unto the harvest" and that more laborers were needed, he responded with eager haste and a burning zeal, and took his place as one of the prerchers of the Florida Conference.

He was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference at Gainesville, Nov. 15, 1878. Having stood approved examinations on the courses of study from year to year, he was duly elected and ordained to the eldership in 1882.

From the time of his admission on trial into the Florida Conference in 1878 to the close of his life as a pastor, his walk and conversation were in harmony with the sacredness and dignity of the ministerial office. His pastorate—first and last—embraced a large number of charges. They all with one accord bear testimony to his worth as a man and Christian minister. In every field in which he labored believers were won to Christ. The church were he is known will honor his name and cherish his memory.

C. A. FULWOOD.

LAURINDA McCLARY RHODES.

Mrs. Laurinda McClary Rhodes was born in Yorkville, S. C., August 26, 1822, and died in Jefferson county, Florida, April 16, 1899.

During the second year of her residence in Monticello her husband, pastor of that charge, passed from earth to the joys of the redeemed in heaven. A stranger, widowed and alone, God raised up friends to her and her children, and she realized the fulfillment of the promise that the righteous should not be forsaken, nor should their seed beg bread.

A friend who knew her long and intimately writes: "Truly sister Rhodes was a blessing to every one that knew her, and her loyalty to her friends, her church and her God was beautiful beyond description.

Blessed with devoted friends and loving children, her last days were crowned with many marked blessings—special outpourings of the Holy Spirit which were foretastes of the home beyond where she fondly hoped to meet the loved ones gone before."

This brief record portrays but feebly the worth of this pious life on earth. It is the prerogative of nobler natures that their departure to higher realms exercises a no less blessed influence than did their abode in the flesh. They shine upon us from above like stars, by which we steer our course to the heaven of the good on high. Of this departed saint it may well be said, she pleased God and was beloved of him. When the obscurity of death shall be done away we shall awake and remember and understand that we shall be ever with the Lord. Those who have gone from us in the faith that saves have planted the seed of future harvests, and in the glad day of resurrection their labors shall appear in the souls won by their patient continuance in well-doing. And they, for a time, rest from their labors, and their works shall follow them and abide.

MAGGIE B. CARPENTER.

Mrs. Maggie B. Carpenter was born at Quincy, Missouri, April 13, 1858, and died at the Methodist parsonage in Orlando, Florida, December 20, 1898.

She was converted to God in her eighteenth year, and became a member of her mother's church, commonly the New Light church She was married to Rev. W. J. Carpenter, August 20, 1880, and for more than eighteen years shared with him the burdens, hardships, privations and pleasures incident to an itinerant minister's wife.

As a wife, mother, friend and neighbor she was tender, loving, affectionate and kind, beautifully illustrating in her daily life the religion which she professed.

She was a useful worker in the church, and a faithful follower of the Lord. Out of the fulness of her motherly heart she expressed a desire that her children be not separated, and that they might be raised for the Lord, that they might make an unbroken family in heaven.

(The foregoing tribute to the memory of Mrs. W. J. Carpenter was prepared by one who had known her since her coming to this State, and who was also present at her funeral.)

Books and Periodicals.

To the Bishop and Members of the Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—We, your Committee on Books and Periodicals, beg to make the following report:

We congratulate the managers of the Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn., and the Church whose institution it is, upon the prosperous condition of its affairs. Its sales, as well as its assets, are largely in excess of last year, and it has a good working capital with which to do business. We regret to learn, however, that there is a loss to the House on two most important publications, viz., The Methodist Review and the Epworth Era. Brethren, this ought not to be so. They are both excellent periodicals, full of the best thought and research in their respective fields. We are unpleasantly surprised by the information that the Epworth Era is being supplanted to some extent by other publications professing to cover the same ground, but issued by other denominations and sometimes containing sentiments obnoxious to us. Our Epworth Leaguers and their friends owe it to themselves and to their Church to give their own literature the preference over all others, especially when it is inferior to none in contents and make up. Let us rally, as loyal Methodists, to these, our own products, and do all in our power to increase their circulation and efficiency for good.

We further urge upon our brethren that they use our own Sunday School literature in preference to any other, particularly when it is of the best quality and of reasonable cost. This is due to ourselves and to those interests we are bound to promote. We also commend to the most liberal patronage of our brethren the general organs of the Church, the Christian Advocate and the Review of Missions, both indispensable in their respective departments.

In this connection we heartily commend the faithful and efficient work done by our Conference Colporter, Rev. R. H. Barnett, and request our brethren to make their purchases through him.

We find that our own Florida Christian Advocate is worthy of a much larger patronage than it receives. Its editorials are of the best quality, both in matter and spirit, and the material contributed to its columns by others, under his wise discretion, is usually excellent and satisfactory to the Church. Its loyalty to our doctrines and traditions is most commendable. Recognizing the Advocate as our organ, which is to defend the doctrines and uphold in all things the policy of our Church, we solicit for it that loyal support and liberal patronage it deserves.

We earnestly beg our brethren to procure for themselves, and for their children, the literature issued by our Publishing House at Nashville, the titles and prices of which may be obtained from our Colporter, and thereby counteract, as far as possible, the trashy and pernicious literature sown broadcast over our state, to the ruin of the bodies and souls of our young people, in many cases who fall, oftentimes, easy victims to its blighting influence.

In conclusion, we beg to append to this report that of the editor of the Advocate, and recommend its serious perusal and careful consideration by those to whom it is addressed, and by others who ought to be interested in its contents.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. Harrison, Chm.
W. H. F. Robarts, Sec.

Florida Christian Advocate.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—As the editor and publisher of the Florida Christian Advocate, which is your property and organ, I make this my thirteenth annual report to your body, rejoicing that God has brought us through another year and granted strength for work and blessings of Providence and grace for enjoyment.

The Advocate has never missed an issue, except during Christmas week, when the printers take their annual holiday. Everything has risen in price and made the expenses of the office much greater, and many subscribers have failed to pay, but the paper has paid its way and is free from debt. The necessity for making out this report in time for this issue of the paper renders it necessary to count to December 1st as the end of the Advocate fiscal year, and we report the total of receipts from all sources $2891.24, and the total of expenses $2420.10, making a balance for editor's salary of $471.24 for the year.

This is a very small compensation for the whole time and work of your servant, who has resorted to no other means of support, but given all to God in your service. But there has come the evidence of God's blessing on the paper, making it the means of converting, edifying, comforting, encouraging, strengthening and removing difficulties; and this makes my compensation very large and precious.

The management of the paper has not given entire satisfaction to every one, because of two facts: First, I cannot see and think as every one does, but I have acted in all things according to my best judgment in the fear and love of God, after careful consideration and earnest prayer for Divine guidance. I have done what I was convinced was the very best for the cause of Christ. Second, some wish the editor to visit all parts of our field and personally work up the interests of the paper and preach to the people. That would be an excellent plan, if I could carry it out, but it cannot be done by any one without sacrificing the character of the paper or disabling the man who tries it. I have tried it sufficiently to know that, and once came very nearly killing myself in making the experiment. The making of such a paper as we need requires the time of an editor every week in the year, and his attendance at District Conferences and the Annual Conference is as much absence from his office as should be required of him. But a much inferior paper does not call for such close attention, and that would not give satisfaction.

Although the time for which I was last elected has not expired, I wish to say to the Conference that I do not wish that to be in the way of any change that may be desired. My free and full consent is hereby given to the selection of another in my place. Self must not stand in the way of the general good. I sincerely want God's will done, whatever it may be, and I will stand aside if you so desire.

Respectfully submitted,

J. ANDERSON.

Church Extension.

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—In behalf of our Conference Board of Church Extension, I beg leave to submit herewith the annual report of our Board.

We rejoice in the indications of an awakening to the great importance of the work of Church Extension throughout the bounds of our connection.

The Secretary of the Parent Board reports as follows, for the year ending March 31st, 1900:

Collected on 17th assessment, $64,579.86, being an increase of $6,929.46. Of the forty-four contributing Conferences only five paid less than the year previous. Four hundred and thirty-eight churches were aided during the year to the amount of $108,911.00. The Florida Conference has paid to General Board, in the seventeen assessments, a total of $11,419.60, and has contributed to the Loan Funds $37.56, making a total of $11,457.16. We have received, in the bounds of our Conference: Donations, $27,831.00, and loans, $20,600.00, making total received $48,431.00; more than four dollars for every one contributed. Add to our contributions the sum of $404.52 for the present year, and the total from our Conference for the 18 years reaches a total of $11,824 12 to General Board. The total Loan Fund administered by the General Board has reached the sum of $182,933.14, being a net increase of $9,011.60 during the past year, yet calls are more numerous for loans than can be met by the Board. During the brief history of this Board 4,461 churches have been aided by donations amounting to $811,241.00 and loans amounting to $345,760.00, making a total of $1,157.02. There are still in our connection 3,584 societies without houses of worship, and many others need to build new and better than they have now. Our General Board has agreed to make special efforts to raise the sum of $15,000 for the rebuilding of our church in Galveston, Texas, which was wrecked by the disastrous storm. In the bounds of our own Conference the past year we have raised, for distribution by our Conference Board, the sum of $404.52, being an increase of $70.38. Previous collections and donations by Conference Board amount to $11,419.60, making total of of $11,824.12. We have granted donations this year as follows:

1 —Apalachicola	$ 150.00
2 —Mayo	100.00
3 —Old Town	50.00
4 —Morriston	35.00
5 —Wildwood	24.22
	$ 359 22
Minutes	10.00
Secretary Expenses	4 00
Total	$ 373 22

Finally we would call attention of this Conference to the fact that sixty per cent. is the average amount collected on the small assessment in our conference. Demands upon us call for a much larger fund than you place at our disposal. Apalachicola has suffered severely by a disastrous fire, and our church building was swept away. We need special help to meet their needs.

Respectfully Submitted,

IRA S. PATTERSON, Sec'y.

Sunday School.

Many, but not all, of the charges have observed Childrens' Day with appropriate exercises. These days are growing in favor with our Sunday Schools, and yield a fund much needed in some parts of our territory.

We heartily favor the holding of District Sunday School Conferences, as they result in increased zeal in teachers and superintendents and knowledge of best methods of work.

As good singing is the life of the Sunday School we recommend the Young People's Hymnal as suitable for use in our Sunday Schools. Also the use of Sunday School literature published by our own House.

The organization of Union Schools is to be discouraged, as they lead to confusion and strife.

We note with satisfaction that the General Board reports an increase in pupils and schools. However, the reports from the various charges of the Florida Conference show a net decrease for the year: No. of schools, 266; No. of officers and teachers, 1,704; No. of pupils, 12,642.

Epworth Leagues.

The report of the General Secretary shows gratifying progress. Five hundred and seventy-seven new Leagues have been chartered, with an increase in membership of 24,670. The present membership of the Leagues is 251,785.

The League Reading Course is more widely circulated than ever before, the increase being nearly fifty per cent. over last year.

We regret to learn that the Epworth Era is not paying expenses. It deserves a wider circulation, and seems essential to the training of our young people.

We urge that the pastors use their Leagues in securing any deficits which may occur in the Conference collections. It will not only increase the collections, but train our young people in the grace of liberality. The "Holston Plan" has worked well and might be adopted to good advantage. The Tampa District has given a practical illustration of its utility.

We further recommend that our Presiding Elders, in consultation with the District Chairman, hold, in connection with the District Conference, an Epworth League Conference.

W. M. POAGE, Chairman.

Temperance.

Your Committee recognizes the impotency of Conference resolutions to stem the tide of corruption flowing from the legalized traffic in strong drink, yet desires to restate the position of this body, representing, as it does, more than 20,000 Methodist citizens of the state of Florida.

The liquor traffic is still the great power for evil in all the land, the blight of domestic happiness, the degradation of manhood, the damnation of souls; the corrupter of cities, the overthrower of political integrity, the nullifier of the laws of the land; and

WHEREAS, God's holy word has pronounced woe upon the drunkard and upon the drunkard-maker, and

WHEREAS, Our disipline speaks plainly against the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and against any participation in its manufacture or sale, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, 1st, That we will pray, labor, and vote for the overthrow of the saloon, whether legalized or of other sort.

RESOLVED, 2d, That we will emphasize the teaching of our church on this matter, and do all in our power to educate the public conscience against the traffic.

RESOLVED, 3rd, That we will labor for the enforcement of our present laws against the sale of cigarettes to boys or for boys.

HOWARD DUTILL, Sec'y.

Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance, believing the Christian Sabbath to be a sacred and holy institution intended for all mandkind, and in all ages to be used for man's spiritual and moral growth, note with sadness the growing tendency in some sections, especially in our larger towns and cities, to neglect the sacred use and even desecrate this holy day, by recreation and business, would affirm our unqualified conviction to be that the Sabbath must be preserved as God's Word teaches, and as our Church has always held and as history has testified, and that we, as a Conference, do defend, by word and example, the day as set apart for holy purposes, and that we discourage and oppose any efforts which may bring the Sabbath into misuse and destroy its power in our communities. We recommend that the ministers preach upon this subject and warn the people against the growing evil; that they encourage all proper means and agents which are being used and working to this great end. We especially recognize the work of the Sunday League of America, represented at this session of our Conference by Edward Thomson, L. L. D., of Atlanta, Ga., its agent, and that we co-operate with this inter-denominational organization in its efforts to preserve the old tried American type of Sunday. We learn that Dr. Thomson has arranged to devote the month of January next to this state, and having examined some of the literature and methods used by him, we believe it advisable to assist and encourage him in this work, so far as possible, by co-operating with him in public meetings and by circulating the Twentieth Century Series of Sunday League Leaflets.

R. V. Atkisson.

Bible Cause.

The American Bible Society has done and is doing a great work for God's cause; and is not only helpful, but necessary to the work of our particular church. Besides the supplying of our own people with the Word, it has done an increasing work in foreign fields. The amount of $192,000 has been expended by the society in foreign fields. Notwithstanding this fact, the income of the society has decreased from $100,000 in gifts and $176,000 in legacies for 1899, to $95,000 in gifts and $56,000 in legacies for 1900.

It is evident that unless the church rallies to this cause and the preachers bring the matter prominently before the people, this great institution must abridge its operations, and the needy millions starving for lack of the Word go unfed. From the twenty thousand of Florida Methodists during this year only $108.31 for the American Bible Society has been paid.

In view of the importance of this work, the general neglect of its claims, and our own responsibility and privilege in relation to it,

RESOLVED, That this Conference request the preachers to bring this claim to the attention of every congregation and take a collection for the American Bible Society in it.

H. E. PARTRIDGE, Chairman.
W. C. NORTON, Secretary.

Florida Conference Orphanage.

DEAR BISHOP AND BRETHREN:—We, your Committee on Conference Orphanage, beg to submit the following as our reports:

We note with pleasure the increase of funds over last year of $21.17, making a total of $86.67, but we feel that it should be much more. We have at present in Macon Orphanage thirteen children from Florida.

We recommend that every pastor be diligent and prompt in presenting this claim, and do it in the early part of the year. We also ask that Brother A. M. Mann be added to this Committee in the place of Brother B. F. Mason, resigned.

Respectfully Submitted,
J. A. HENDRY, Sec'y.

District Conference Records.

The records of the District Conferences have all been presented, and after a careful examination, we are glad to report them in good condition, well kept and nicely arranged.

We heartily recommend the Secretaries of the several District Conferences for their careful and painstaking work and for the neatness, beauty and accuracy of their records.

CONFERENCE MEMOIRS.

William C. Collins.

Rev. William C. Collins was born in Brownsville, Tenn., Oct. 6, 1837, and was called to his reward in heaven from Salem church, in Gadsden county, Fla., Nov. 8, 1900.

Brother Collins was converted in his twelfth year, and was admitted on trial in the East Texas Conference when 20 years of age, in the year 1857. He was married to Mrs. Perryman the 23d of December, 1864, with whom he lived happily until separated by death. Four children—three sons and one daughter—survive their father, to be a stay and comfort to their lonely mother in her declining years.

Brother Collins was a member of the East Texas Conference for seventeen years, and of the West Texas Conference two years, from which he transferred to the Florida Conference in the year 1875. The minutes show that he labored in the following fields while a member of the Florida Conference: Leon, 1876 to 1877; Columbia, 1878; Waukeenah, 1879; Madison, 1880, 1881 and 1882; Sumter, 1883 and 1884; Marion, 1885 and 1886; Anthony, 1887; Blue Springs, 1888; Cedar Grove, 1889; Lady Lake, 1890 and 1891; Sumter, 1892 and 1893; Bowling Green, 1894 and 1895; Newnansville, 1896; Waukulla, 1897 and 1898; Concord, 1899 and 1900. From the above appointments it will be seen that our departed brother did a great deal of hard work without any hope of earthly reward; having never possibly in his entire ministry received much above a mere living. Yet uncomplainingly he went forward until he finished the work with joy that was given him to do.

The unanimous testimony of his brethren is that he was a man of great sweetness of spirit, gentleness of manners, of entire devotion to his ministerial duties, and wholly devoted to God.

After groaning for years to be made perfect in love, he entered into that blissful experience.

The thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians was his ideal of Christian character, and he realized his ideal as few men have done. The writer has seen him when his face fairly shone with light from the upper world. He was a faithful, earnest and successful preacher of the Gospel.

There is much to be desired in the manner and, time and place of his passing away. On the Sabbath, and in the house of God, where he had so often preached Christ and Him crucified, with only a few moments of pain, "he ceased at once to work and live." It is still true our people, and, I will add, our preachers, die well.

What a transition for our brother from the toils and hardships of earth to happiness and holiness in heaven!

"Oh, may we triumph so,
When all our warfare's past,
And dying, find our latest foe,
Under our feet at last."

B. K. Thrower.

A. Johnson.

Rev. A. Johnson was born near Savannah, Ga., March 18, 1822, and departed this life at Live Oak, Fla, January 2, 1900. While yet a child, his parents moved to Appling county, Georgia, and while there his father died, leaving a widow and six children dependent upon him. From this time the support of the family fell upon his boyish shoulders, but nobly did he meet the responsibility. From Appling county he removed to Thomas county, Georgia.

Embracing religion at an early age, he grew in grace and usefulness. The Church, recognizing his sterling worth, conferrred upon him the work of an exhorter. In this field of Christian activity he continued for several years until his removal to West Florida, when, in 1856, he was received on trial in the Florida Conference. He was ordained deacon and elder in 1858. In 1860 he was married to Miss Martha Bachlott.

His health becoming enfeebled, he took a superannuated relation in 1867 or 1868, and moving to Live Oak, he began farming, which pursuit he followed to the close of his useful and holy life. In 1874 his wife died, leaving to him the care of eight children, all of whom, save one who died in infancy, he reared in piety and honor, and they now survive him.

Our departed brother possessed many noble traits of character, an abhorrence of debt being very conspicuous. It is said by one of his honored sons that his father never owed but ten cents in his life, and this debt was contracted while he was yet a boy. He lived up to that wise rule of the Discipline: never buying anything on credit, nor countenancing the doing of it by any of his family.

As a preacher, Bro. Johnson was said to have been plain and direct, and while his ministry in the Conference extended over but a few years, the influence of his godly life was as good seed sown in good ground, and it abides until this day. Humble and modest and retiring, one could only know him after long acquaintance. He was one of those men who "grew upon his fellows." Always and everywhere he stood for the right, and men knew where to find him upon any question agitating the public mind.

Those who knew him intimately avow their perfect confidence in his purity of life. His consistent walk and godly ministrations gave power to his words. Now that he is gone from us we recognize the void his departure has caused. His end was peaceful: in the blessed hope of a glorious immortality "mildly beamed his glowing eyes, and gently continued a member until December, 1899; thus giving thirty years of unbroken labors to his Church and to its great Head. He was an industrious and conscientious co-worker with Christ in the spread of the Gospel. He served some of the hardest appointments, as well as some of the best, including Gainesville, Tallahassee, Tampa and Live Oak Districts.

Brother Phillips was no ordinary preacher. He was a man of firm natural ability and of considerable acquired learning. Many of his sermons were of a high order—they were master-pieces of strong, orderly thinking.

Brother Phillips was a good man, and quite given up to his heavenly calling from the beginning of his ministry, but during the latter part of his life his religious experience was greatly deepened and enriched, so much so that, as observed by his friends, he was an entirely consecrated man, enjoying the abiding presence of the Comforter. Our learned brother contemplated re-entering the Conference at this time, having located December, 1899, for which he had been recommended by the Live Oak District Conference; but his work was done, and from his home in Lake City, Fla., after a brief illness, he entered into rest, November 6, 1900.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Earnest prayer is solicited for his widow and children.

REPORTS.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board begs to report that it has considered the interests which was before it, and we note with gratitude the prosperous condition of Emory and Wesleyan Female Colleges. The enrollment of students at the first-named institution amounts to 279, with fourteen professors. The report of President Dinsmore is full of encouragement, and we rejoice in the work being done there for the higher education of our young men.

One of the pressing needs of Emory College is a modern up-to-date Science Hall. This, we hope, may soon be secured. A generous layman, Capt. J. P. Williams of Savannah, Ga., has proffered $15,000 for this purpose, provided the churches in the patronizing Conferences will raise a like sum. The North Georgia Conference in its recent session pledged $5,000, and the South Georgia Conference promised at its last session $2,000 toward securing the proffered donation of Capt. Williams. There still remains about $2,000 yet to be collected in order to obtain the sum promised.

Wesleyan Female College pursues its shining way. The year now closing has been one of great prosperity. Roberts' Hall, the new building, is crowded, and the difficulty now before the trustees of this institution is to find room for those seeking admission therein. The enrollment is greater than ever, and could room be made—as it must be—it would not be difficult to chronicle an attendance of five hundred pupils.

It is hoped a new building, the equal of Roberts' Hall, may soon be erected at Macon. The need is great, but the people of the patronizing Conferences are prosperous, and their liberality may be depended upon to bring this desired end to consummation.

We commend these institutions—Emory and Wesleyan—to the consideration and generous patronage of the Methodists of Florida. We wish the best for our children—then let us patronize these time-tried and worthy colleges, as they are prepared to do for us the work needed by our young people.

We were pleased to have with us at this session of our Conference Rev C. E. Dowman, a former member of this body, and now Presidest of Emory College. We assure him a warm welcome whenever he may come among us,

We request the Bishop to appoint Jos. F. Bell, Conference Secretary of Education; F. Pasco, Superintendent East Florida Seminary; L. D. Lowe and J. I. Tilley, students at Vanderbilt University.

The following are the assessments for Education for 1902:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS, No. 2.

We have considered the report of the Book Agents of the Church and notice that there has been a net increase in the sales of the house over last year of $16,954, and a net gain in assets of $37,426, while the liabilities of the house are only $17,181. The Methodist Review and Epworth Era have been published at a loss of $7,696. Whether the increased sales are from other periodicals published, or from book sales, is not stated, nor of what nature is the increase of assets. If these items were more definitely stated, we could better judge if the house were doing the business that might reasonably be expected of it. It is a matter of regret that its business or profits are so diminished, from causes not definitely stated, that no longer is there paid a dividend to our needy Conference claimants. In a business amounting to $400,700, it seems that the profits should be sufficient for all the expenses of the house and a good dividend to said claimants.

The Review is worthy of a larger subscription list; the Epworth Era should have double or treble its circulation among the young people of the Church; while that most excellent and well-edited religious paper, the Christian Advocate, should enter thousands of homes where it does not, and remove the reproach of being able to "live on its own means by close watching." These ends can be reached only by a larger interest being taken by our preachers in their circulation. Only in the dissemination of the best religious literature can we counteract that which is vicious and hurtful: and a first-class Methodist paper is essential to build up an intellgent and sturdy Methodism. We commend these papers to our people. Let us also try to induce them to buy and read some of the many excellent books, new and old, issued by our house. In this connection we highly commend the labors of Rev. R. H. Barnett, our Conference Colporter.

We trust that by January 1 our Conference organ will have started out anew on its career of usefulness and blessing, and under new auspices and with new hopes shall receive a liberal and enthusiastic support from all our people.

The committee offers the following for adoption:

Resolved, That the Conference accept the proposition of the Hill Printing Company, of Gainesville, Fla., for the publishing of the FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADNOCATE under the terms of the appended contract:

FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

In no case shall any agent take subscriptions at less than full rate in order to secure said commission.

8th. That all advertisements inserted in said Advocate shall be of unexceptional character. No advertisement shall be admitted that would not be taken by religious publications of the highest class.

9th. If any questions arise as to the character of advertisements between the editor and publishers, said questions shall be referred for settlement to the Publishing Committee, whose decisions thereon shall be final as to the differences at issue.

10th. That said Advocate shall be changed in form to a sixteen (16) page paper, stitched and cut, eleven and one-half by eighteen (11½x18 inches in size, printed in first-class manner and on first-class paper.

11th. That this contract shall continue for a period of six (6) years and shall become operative as soon as executed by the first part and by the Publishing Committee of the second part.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto subscribe their names and affix their seals in duplicate the day and year first above written.

Resolved, That if, for any unforseen cause, the basis for a contract this day adopted does not result in securing the publication of any Advocate for the Florida Conference, the Publishing Committee provided for in said contract shall be authorized to arrange as they may be able and shall deem best for the publication of the paper, with the approval of the Bishop having charge of the Florida Conference.

H. A. HODGES, Chairman.

H. E. PARTRIDGE, Secretary.

2. That the Conference rescind its former action in taking money from certain funds for publishing the minutes, and that the sum of $125.00 or more, if needed for this purpose, be added to the assessment for Conference expenses, the present year's minutes to be paid for as heretofore.

3. That the Conference proceed to elect a Publishing Committee of four preachers and three laymen as mentioned in contract.

4. That R. H. Barnett be recommended to the Bishop for appointment as Conference Colporter.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—From the report of the Secretary of the General Board we learn that there was collected on the nineteenth assessment the sum of $67,815.28, being an increase of $2,235.42. Yet this large sum is not sufficient to meet the demands of our growing church. Its rapid development in Cuba, Mexico and Brazil call for much more liberal contributions upon the part of our people.

The Loan Fund of the General Board now amounts to the handsome sum of $191,096.48, which is in constant use doing the work for which it was contributed.

The growth of our Church in this State is very encouraging, and your Board has many pressing calls for assistance, which it tries to meet.

The collections this year show a slight increase over the last year, the total amount collected being $866.70, an increase of $58.66.

The special collection for McTyerie church, Jacksonville, amounted in cash and subscriptions to $705.80, a total of $1572.50.

The following Churches were aided by the Board this year:

Bristol, Tallahassee District	$100 00
Lloyds, " "	75 00
Madison " "	75 00
Bethel, Jacksonville District	50 00
McMeekin, Gainesville "	100 00

The assessments put upon our Conference for next year is $1250, and is apportioned to the Districts as follows:

Tallahassee	$ 215 00
Live Oak	175 00
Jacksonville	180 00
Gainesville	180 00
Orlando	220 00
Tampa	280 00

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. CARPENTER, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

There has been a gratifying increase of interest in Sunday School work in our Conference. We note the holding of District Conventions and the increasing fund for the observance of Children's Day, and trust the increasing interest will be fostered by our presiding elders and pastors everywhere.

While no communication has come before us in reference to the newly enterprised work of our church under the supervision of Dr. Hamil, we wish to heartily commend that work. We recommend the formation of Bible Teachers' Study Circles by pastors and superintendents of Sunday Schools throughout our Conference for the better equipment of our teachers and for training of new teachers.

Our Sunday School publications are of the best and ought to be used in our schools to the exclusion of union literature so-called.

We are glad to note our increase in the number of our Sunday Schools and pupils. At present there are 278 schools, 1,788 officers and teachers and 13,474 scholars, being an increase over last year of 12 schools, 84 officers and teachers and 832 scholars.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Epworth Leagues, beg to submit the following:

We note with pleasure that the leagues are growing in numbers and efficiency throughout the connection.

We are glad to learn that the "Era" is fast becoming self-sustaining. We heartily endorse this paper and commend it to our young people and plead for its widespread circulation. We recommend the holding of District Conferences and the use, as far as possible, of the young people in carrying on the works of the league in all its departments.

We here express our appreciation of space given in the Advocate and the efficient work of our department editor. We urge your pastors to organize leagues in all the charges, as far as possible. Reports to this Conference show number of leagues 96, and number of members 2,632 in the Conference, an increase of ——— over last year. J. A. HENDRY, for Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee feels it necessary to enumerate the many and various evils which can be traced directly, or indirectly, to the liquor system as legalized and in practice in our land. These evils are patent to us all. But it would call attention to the power of the Church and urge it to use this power in meeting and resisting this evil in every practicable way. It would suggest that the individual Christian consider prayerfully his own responsibility and that he use his influence at all times against the evil by guarding the ground well which has already been won for temperance, and that he persistently meet the invasions of the foe and keep him from the many counties which have been secured from his grasp. Also it would urge that, in the Epworth Leagues and Sabbath Schools, the lessons upon this vitally important subject be taught with special influence; that the youths and children of the Church may be thoroughly strengthened against the evil, and would further advise that, as far as possible, the pastors use the unfermented juice of the grape at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; and that by example in our homes, by the preached word from our pulpits, earnest prayers from our closets and firesides and the public ballot at the polls, we do all we can to banish this evil from our beloved land. We further recommend that a committee of two clerical and one lay members of this body be appointed to co-operate with other organized bodies of the State in the work of temperance reform.

R. V. ATKISSON, Chairman.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The subject given to your committee is one of vital importance, therefore we cannot afford to make any compromise of the subject. The Sabbath was given for a day of rest and worship, sanctified and blessed by the giver, coming to us with a strong injunction, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

This command is as binding as any of the ten, and if we would have long life and possess the land of promise, we must keep our hands clean from the violations of this law.

We hope the time will come when every business man will claim for himself this rest day, which is so essential to true success and happiness. We should discourage the opening and reading of business letters on the Sabbath day, as well as the selling of goods and the running of trains.

We note with pleasure the work and success of the Sunday League of America, the largest and strongest organization in the world, with one hundred and seventy-five thousand members, and about five million adherents. We not only wish them success, but promise to do all in our power to help on the good work. They have distributed over five million leaflets on Sunday Reform this year; but notwithstanding the reform done by this league and the pulpits, yet there is room for increased efforts on the part of the Church, for in the rush of business and the love of pleasure many of our people are led to violate the Sabbath law. Let us preachers and delegates do all in our power to induce our people to keep the Sabbath day holy.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The treasurer of the American Bible Society very aptly puts the question: Is it not the chief duty of the Church and every individual Christian to promote the spread of the Holy Scriptures, to the knowledge of which we owe our own salvation? And your committee desires, on this occasion, to emphasize as sharply as possible this question, and thus by divine grace to stir up the pure minds and lay upon the hearts and consciences of our preachers and people this great work, its needs and its opportunities.

For nearly one hundred years this mighty agency for good has been sending out to the people of earth great and ever-increasing stores of the bread of life, the pure word of God, without notes and without comment. And its sphere of operations and consequent blessings continues to widen as the years go by. We note not only with satisfaction, but with devout thankfulness, the fact that during the past year there has been an increase in the work of distribution of about 150,000 volumes over the year previous, and that it now requires from ten to twelve millions of copies per annum to supply the demand for the blessed book. "Who can estimate the results to liberty of thought, higher national ideals, truer conceptions of the divine nature and the richer experiences of spiritual life growing out of this vast seed-sowing? What will the harvest be?"

It is a matter which calls for the profoundest gratitude to God that the prayer of the Church for an "open door" is answered, and well-nigh all outward barriers to this introduction and spread of the Holy Scriptures are now removed.

We also rejoice in the fact that these scriptures are now published in about four hundred languages and dialects, thus immeasurably facilitating the work of the missionary as he enters upon his field of labor.

We beg, before closing this report, to call the attention of the members of this Conference to the splendid liberality of the American Bible Society in proffering to relieve whatever absolute destitution may be found on our works, without money and without price, and add that the address of its agent for our territory is Rev. Thos. H. Law, D. D., Spartanburg, S. C.

What a debt the world owes! What a debt we owe this great institution! How shall we discharge our part of it? Certainly not by neglecting to bring this matter prominently before our people and their coming up to Conference with a "one dollar" contribution from one's own pocket. Therefore, in view of the great importance of this work and our hitherto remissness in the premises we offer the following:

Resolved, That our presiding officer, at every annual Conference hereafter, be requested to put to each preacher in charge the question: Have you conformed to the requirements of our Book Discipline in regard to the American Bible Society?

T. C. BRADFORD, Chairman.

ORPHANAGE.

Your Committee on Orphanage, submit the following:

We have in the Home at Macon, thirteen children from Florida. We have raised for orphans, cash, $193.23. and valuable boxes of clothing, the value we do not know. We would remind the Conference that the needs and opportunity for establishing an orphanage has come, and we therefore ask this Conference to delegate to this committee the right of receiving bids and securing place and property for an orphanage home in the bounds of this Conference. They not to involve the Conference or the property with debt.

We appreciate the help and sympathy and help of Mission Societies and Leagues and Sunday Schools and ask their further help in this direction.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. HENDRY, for Committee.

WHEREAS, We believe the enactment of this law to be opposed the good of society, and that it sets aside the authoritatlve teachings of Jesus Christ; therefore

MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The Florida Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Live Oak, Fla., December 12-17, 1901, respectfully memoralizes its General Conference assembled at Dallas, Texas, May, 1902, as follows:

First—That, whereas, the Senate of the United States has declared that our war claim of $288.000 was obtained by the use of deceptive methods on the part of our agents, and whereas a great scandal has grown out of the same, that has caused our church to suffer and greatly disturbed her peace; therefore it is our godly judgment that the General Conference should return the whole amount of said claim to the Senate, thereby satisfying the conscience of our beloved church, by vindicating her honor and integrity, in settling right that which can never be settled in any other way.

Second—That, whereas, it is the mature conviction of this Conference that the order of deaconesses is both apostalic in origin and character and that its reinstitution in our church will be productive of untold good in the addition of another strong arm of service to our already well equipped and splendidly organized system; we therefore request the General Conference to enact a law that will make available for high and holy achievement the latent but potential forces of thousands of our consecrated women.

Third—That measures be taken that will make our Conference claimants fund connectional in its scope, so that the distribution may be made more equitable, thus aiding the weaker and more burdened conferences.

Fourth—It is further the sense of this Conference that as far as practicable that all of our connectional organs be consolidated, thus saving a useless expenditure of men and money.

Fifth—We recommend, that in a way that may be for the glory of God, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Mission Society be united.

(Extract from the report of the Board of Trustees of the Florida Conference College, which follow a recital of the conditions which made it inexpedient to try longer to operate the college in Leesburg, without such release of the property as would be recognized by the donors.)

A committee was appointed by the Board to secure from the original donors a recognized release of their claims, or failing in this, to secure an equitable settlement. Said committee met the original donors at a called meeting on the evening of May 29th and morning of May 30th, 1901, and submitted the following propositions:

1. To continue our work for another year, and longer if the conditions justified, on condition that an acknowledged absolute release of the contract should be given—the college faculty having been elected with this understanding. This they declined.

The committee then requested their terms of settlement. They replied they had no propositions to submit, but would consider further propositions from the committee. Our committee then proposed:

2. To surrender to the donors the real estate, including buildings, in settlement in full. This they respectfully declined.

3. A third proposition was then made by our committee to refer the contract and settlement to arbitration upon the following conditions: The trustees to select a man who was not to be a trustee nor a member of the Florida conference; and the donors to select one not to be a donor nor a citizen of Lake county; these two to select a third subject to like requirements. This they declined, and in answer to the second and third propositions submitted the following resolution:

1. WHEREAS, It was the understanding in 1886, aside from any contract, that the conference should establish and provide upon the ground donated, a college properly equipped and furnished of the requisite grade; and whereas, the conference have never carried out the first condition of the gift; and

2. WHEREAS, In the opinion of this meeting, their failure to do so, or to provide more than a shell of a college, is the all-sufficient reason for the want of success attending the college:

"Now, it is the sense of this meeting, representing all of the original donors present, to release the conditions of the gift within one year after the conference shall have provided and operated at Leesburg a college with equipments adequate for the accommodation of a number of students, sufficient for the maintenance and well-being of a college of the required grade; the scale and expenses of such equipment and provision to be subject of future negotiations between duly accredited representives of the college and donors.

3. That this meeting, having put on record their willingness to release the conditions of the gift upon the conference, doing their part in good faith and to meet the conference in any reasonable manner to enable them to do their part, and seeing no ground for arbitration of a contract which is plain in its terms, relies upon the contract, and calls upon the conference to do their part."

Our committee then submitted their fourth and final proposition, to surrender all of our college property, including real estate, buildings, furnishing, library and apparatus in full settlement of all claims. This they declined.

From the foregoing facts it is plain that the original donors represented in the called meeting, avow that we have failed to maintain a college according to the original contract, and their offer to grant a release demands more than the original contract, and would require upon the part of the Conference a greater outlay of funds than we have been able to make during the fourteen years past. As the original donors claim that we have not complied with the contract, notwithstanding the fact that we have expended all that they invested and a much larger sum raised by the church in founding and maintaining the institution, and as our Board of Education has listed us as a college, and the charter under which we operate so grades us, and the curriculum taught in the school so fixes us, and as the work done has vindicated this claim, we conclude that it is impossible to maintain a school that will meet the demands of the original donors. They having refused all the property invested by them and us in settlement of their claims, should our church make further investment, and any cause or causes prevent the continuance of our work in Leesburg, we would be confronted with the unavoidable loss of all our property and still the donors would prosecute their claims against us.

In view of the above we have discontinued the work

REPORT NUNBER 2.

Mr. President and Brethren:

WHEREAS, The Sutherland Land and Improvement Company and the citizens of Sutherland and vicinity in Hillsborough county are desirous of having an educational institution among them, and

WHEREAS, They offer to this body certain valuable property considerations including concessions on elegant and commodious buildings, five thousand dollars in cash and four hundred and forty acres of valuable land for two thousand dollars; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this Conference accept the same and make provision for the transfer of property.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. HOUSEHOLDER, President.

EDWIN F. LEY, Secretary.

Live Oak, December 14, 1901.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Mary Jane Waters, the daughter of Rev. Dandridge C. and Susan J. Walton, was born in Barren county, Kentucky, September 25, 1836; was married to Rev. John T. Waters in 1860, and departed this life at Viola, Tennessee, March 20, 1901.

Our sainted sister was of Methodist lineage: her father and one grandfather, nine uncles and cousins being ministers of our Lord in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Giving her heart to God in her fifteenth year, she adorned her profession by a godly walk and a pious conversation. Fitted by heredity and early associations, there was a meetness in the life of a minister's wife which she entered and sustained with honor and blessing for over forty years. Four children were born to bless the married life of Mrs. Waters—three of whom preceded her to the world on high—the fourth, a son, lives to illustrate the example and precepts taught by his Christian mother.

One who knew her well, writes: "In all her church relations Sister Waters was faithful; her walk was consistent; her experience was genuine and satisfactory, and her death a triumph."

And it is ever thus! They who walk with God know nothing of defeat. Even in the final conflict they are more than conquerors. The power which sustains the soul in life is never missing when the end is nigh. In holy confidence the saints of our Lord await His coming, and in blessed anticipation of the glory that shall be revealed have naught to do but breathe their lives out on His bosom.

Our honored friend and brother—a superannuate of our conference—is beyond doubt a lonely man, but heaven has unfailing joys for those who sorrow here, and in the hope of a blissful reunion, he awaits the summons which is to call him to his home in the cloudless empire of the saints.

For the Committee,

R. L. Honiker.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Lilian T. Wilson, eldest daughter of Rev. Sylvanus and Anna I. Townsend, of the Baltimore Conference, was born April 9, 1863; married J. Edgar Wilson, October 16, 1883; transferred to Florida in April, 1901, and was translated to her heavenly home from Jacksonville, November 13, 1901.

Mrs. Wilson had long suffered from that insidious and dreaded disease—consumption—and it was hoped that a milder climate might prolong her life even if recovery could not be expected in her case. But the disease was so deeply seated it was soon seen that this hope was vain. Quietly, as sinks the light of day, her pure spirit winged its flight to the cloudless realms of life.

Coming to us a stranger, she soon endeared herself to the people of Riverside among whom she dwelt, and the patience and gentleness she displayed in her last illness made luminous the grace which cheered her passage through the valley and shadow of death.

Her husband and her four boys are indeed bereft by this dispensation, but it is comforting to believe that she rests in a world where sickness and sorrow, pain and death, are felt and feared no more. For her blooms the amaranth; we, alas, must mar the asphodel!

R. L. Honiker,
For the Committee.

REPORTS.

Report of Joint Board of Finance, No. 1.

DEAR BRETHREN: Your Joint Board of Finance beg leave to present the following as its Report No. 1.:

We have had referred to us a communication from the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, relative to the raising of a fund of five millions of dollars for a more adequate support of our worn-out preachers, and the widows and orphans of our deceased preachers, and we unanimously recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we most heartily endorse this great enterprise of the church, believing as we do that no measure more important in its influence, or more far-reaching in its effects, has ever been inaugurated by our Church.

2. That we are gratified at the presence of Rev. A. F. Watkins, D. D., the general agent for the fund; and that we pledge him our most cordial co-operation in the work committed to him.

3. That we request our Committee on Public Worship to provide a time during the present Conference session for a public meeting, at which addresses shall be made in the interest of the cause, and a collection taken for its benefit.

4. That we instruct our Presiding Elders and preachers-in-charge to do all in their power to promote the success of the campaign, making it the duty of the former to give prominence to the fund in their District and Quarterly Conferences, and of the latter to present the cause to every congregation of their pastoral charges, and take a public collection for its benefit, this collection to be taken at an early date, say, during the first sixty days after the adjournment of the Conference session.

Report of the Board of Church Extension.

DEAR BRETHREN: From the Twentieth Annual Report of the General Board, we learn of substantial growth and of continued success in our Church Extension work. During the twenty years of the Board's history there has been raised the gratifying sum of $1,567,536.40. In these twenty years 5,603 churches have been aided, at an expenditure of $1,375,287. During the past quadrennium the collections show an increase of $27,187.90, and the Loan Funds have been enlarged by $28,853.78. The present capital of the Loan Fund is $201,882.46. We are now building houses of worship at the rate of 233 each year.

We would call your attention to a matter of vital importance regarding our church buildings, viz.: their insurance. Acting by authority of the General Conference, the Board has succeeded in making very satisfactory arrangements with the insurance organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By securing insurance in this company we may protect our property at a much cheaper rate than can be gotten elsewhere. We cannot place too much emphasis upon this important matter. Not less than $74,947 worth of property was destroyed during the last four years on which there was no insurance. Your Board is of the opinion that every church and parsonage should be insured without delay.

In our own Conference we have collected the past year $965.00, being an increase of $99.60. Applications for aid have been presented, aggregating $1,325, but we had only one-half of $960, plus $128, balance in the Treasurer's hands, a total of $608, which we have appropriated, as follows:

Fairfield,	Gainesville District,	$ 50 00
Wesley Chapel,	Live Oak District,	25 00
Eureka,	Gainesville District,	50 00
Kingston,	Jacksonville District,	100 00

Friendship,	Orlando District,	50 00
Mulberry (condit'nl)	Orlando District,	50 00
Altoona,	Gainesville District,	50 00

The assessments for the several Districts for the coming year are as follows:

Jacksonville,	251 00

Report on Books and Periodicals.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals report as follows:

First—We are pleased to note an increasing desire upon the part of our people for good and wholesome literature, and that the light, trashy, and corrupting quality is being displaced by that which brings light to the mind and health to the soul. To develope an intelligent and vigorous church, and lead our people to a higher and more heavenly train of thought and feeling, there must be placed upon our center tables the purest and most elevating literature.

Second—As a means for the accomplisment of the foregoing, we recognize the efficient agency of our Publishing House at Nashville, and appreciate the expressed determination of the agents to do their best toward putting good books within the reach of our people. Let us stand loyally by the House in its endeavor to feed us with food convenient for us.

Third—Our Sunday School literature is of the highest order for Methodists, and is improving more and more. For our own church it would be cheaper than all other, even if its price were doubled, and since it requires so small an outlay to furnish our Sunday Schools, it is to be regretted that some of our people will haggle over a small difference in the price of an interior article. Let this be discouraged in every instance.

Fourth—The Christian Advocate, as the general organ of our Church, and the Methodist Review, deserve the undivided and hearty support of our preachers and laymen. As mediums through which are transmitted the best of Methodist thought, they are unexcelled, and the Christian Advocate in particular is necessary to the completion of a Methodist home.

Fifth—The Epworth Era, and our missionary literature, both of the General Board and the Woman's Departments, are of a high order in their mechanical form and the rich contents that appear from time to time.

Sixth—THE FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE as the organ of our own Conference has won for itself a right to the unanimous support of every member of our Church. We rejoice in the improved appearance of the paper, made possible by the better facilities for its publication, and assure the editor of our appreciation of his efforts to fill its pages with such matter as interests the readers and quickens them into life and Christian activity. Satisfaction with the character of the paper is the unanimous verdict of the present list of subscribers. This list contains between 1,900 and 2,000 subscribers, and while we are thankful for this much, it does not measure up to the numerical strength of our Church. Twice the number should be obtained as early as possible.

We hereby express our gratitude to the Hill Printing Co. for the character of their work, and hope that a rich reward may follow any sacrifice made in the publication of THE ADVOCATE. At the same time we feel very keenly the disappointment that prevails on account of the lateness of each weekly issue. The reorganization of the printing company now being reorganized, and the determination of the company to relieve the embarassment within a few days, gives us no little pleasure. Such improvement is necessary in order to hold the present subscribers, as well as to increase the circulation, and in view of the early relief promised we will give the company our hearty support.

Seventh—We express our approval of, and delight with, the faithful work of our ex-colporteur, Rev. R. H. Barnett, and the great good he has done, and at the same time pledge the support of the Conference to his successor Rev. J. P. Durrance, the nominee of the Book Agents, and whom we recommend for appointment.

Respectfully submitted,

C. A. SAUNDERS,
C. W. INMAN,
T. H. SISTRUNK.

Report of Sunday School Board.

DEAR BRETHREN: Your Sunday School Board closes this year its quadrennial service. During this time the Church, by legislation and otherwise, has given increasing attention to the welfare and development of the Sunday School. We note two additional important features in Sunday School polity—the holding of Sunday School Institutes in every District, and the organizing of the T. B. S. C. in all the schools. We urge that Presiding Elders, pastors, superintendents and teachers fall into line with these advancing movements to secure better schools and teachers. It also appears that the Sunday Schools have been more active in missionary enterprise, securing liberal sums for that cause, thus aiding in paying in full the missionary assessments on the charges. Children's Day has been observed by most of the charges. Pastors and Superintendents will take notice that the discipline requires that this day be observed on the third Sunday in May, or near thereto. Forty Sunday Schools have been aided, at an expense of $64.00.

Sunday School secretaries will also note that the new law requires that total enrollment of pupils be reported. This will largely increase the number hitherto reported.

The following resolution was passed:

RESOLVED, That this Annual Conference be requested to set apart a night as early as possible in its session for the holding of a Sunday School anniversary.

We append the following statistics of Conference:

Sunday Schools, 296.

Sunday School teachers, 1,967.

Sunday School pupils, 14,811.

Increase in pupils, 1,337.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Board of Education.

Your Board is gratified to report a growing sense of the importance and value of the work of education, leading us to cherish the hope that our own great Church, born in a university and sent forth as a divine dirrigible force, may continue its leadership in this field, as it does in all others.

The report of the President of Emory College, Rev. James E Dickey, gives substantial evidence of the favor of heaven upon this old and honorable foundation. A large increase in the number of students is noted; the completion of "Science Hall," at a cost of $30,000; and the liquidation of the debt upon the Candler Library building, have marked the year 1902 with a "white stone." We rejoice with the other joint owners of this institution at these evidences of prosperity. The theological students of Florida have been helped in securing an education to the amount of $2,000 from the "Loan Fund" of Emory College. The former President, Rev. C. E. Dowman, and the present head of the institution, Rev. J. E. Dickey, have collected for the work of the College $26,000. We heartily commend this institution to our young men who are seeking a collegiate education.

Wesleyan Female College continues to improve in all its departments. The enrollment of students is greater than ever in its history; indeed, many have been turned away for lack of room to house them. Another building like the "Roberts Hall" is imperatively demanded to meet the increasing patronage of this venerable, yet vigorous, mother of female colleges. No mistake will be made by parents and guardians who may select this institution for the intellectual accomplishment of their daughters and wards.

The Florida Seminary, which was opened September 17, 1902, at Sutherland, has already demonstrated its Providential origin. Its enrollment of pupils has reached 178; its resources—the grace of God and the people called Methodists—together with assets of $63,000, mean that God will do for us all that we dare attempt in His name. This school has been and is, self-sustaining, and its divine mission must be unhindered. We most heartily and earnestly commend this institution to all Florida Methodists.

The Ruth Hargrove Seminary, at Key West, under the care of the Woman's Home Mission Board, is in successful operation. 205 pupils are here receiving instruction. The property is valued at $11,000.

The Wolfe Mission School, at Ybor City, is doing a great work among its Cuban constituency, and the West Tampa Mission School is carrying forward the work committed to it. The enrollment in these two schools is 185; the value of the properties is $8,000.

The plans of the General Board of Education for an advanced movement on educational lines promise large things to the Church provided there is a hearty co-operation on the part of our preachers. These plans look to increased facilities for our educational institutions; an enlarged patronage, and more extensive information disseminated among our people.

RESOLUTIONS.

RESOLVED, That we recommend that the preachers of this Conference be requested to observe the "Educational Month" proposed by the General Board of Education, with such modifications as may be necessary in particular charges; and that the Presiding Elders be requested to direct the movement in their respective districts.

RESOLVED, That we, having received the report of the Board of Trustees of the Florida Seminary, note with pleasure that the instructions of the Conference in regard to this matter have been carried out so successfully and promptly; and that we heartily commend this institution to the favor and affection of all our people, and we urge our pastors to use their best efforts to increase the number of students at this institution.

RESOLVED, That any charge paying $60 on its educational assessment—not counting special—for furnishings, &c., shall be entitled to appoint through its Quarterly Conference, a student to the Florida Seminary for one scholastic year, free of tuition charges.

RESOLVED, That all applications for loans from the Board of Education, by students attending any of our church schools, shall file with their applications from the President of the institution which the applicant is attending, a letter giving the class standing, habits of study, and general attention to duty and deportment of the applicant.

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of this Board shall notify all applicants for loans and the Presidents of institutions where applicants are attending, of this resolution, and that endorsement and such information will be necesary before any further aid will be extended to any applicant.

We respectfully recommend and request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. J. P. Hilburn agent of the Florida Seminary; Rev. S. W. Walker, President of the Florida Seminary; and W. F. Fletcher and J. O. Baker students in same institution.

This Board levies an assessment of $2,748.00 for educational work for the year 1903, and $248.00 for Paine and Lane Institute as follows:

Report of American Bible Society.

The inquiry of the Greeks, "Who would see Jesus?" was not more indicative of the impress of the personality of the Christ than the increasing anxiety for the Holy Scriptures among the nations of the earth.

If the inquiry of this cultivated nation hastened forth more speedily the hour of His glory, certainly the advancing light of His word shall cover the earth with His glory, as the waters cover the sea.

"The time was when the missionary objected to sending the Book among the heathen, as simply casting pearls before swine." The limit of missionary operation was the limit of Bible supply. But the Church has awakened to the fact that the Bible as a means of evangelism is not wholly dependent on the accredited testimony of a living witness to give potency to the truth. The Bible often going in advance of the living teacher, and men and women assembling to read and pray for the coming of the missionary to explain the way more perfectly.

It is an unquestionable fact that the marvellous achievements obtained in the missionary fields by all the churches were made possible by the work of the Bible Societies. A Methodist minister in Korea recently said: "At the lowest estimate, nine-tenths of our successes are the results of Bible Society work." The testimony of another was, "in deed, every encouraging case brought to our notice shows some connection with the colporteur."

The increased circulation of the word of God, which can only be done by an increased liberality upon the part of the Church, will hasten the consummation of missionary activity, and the world-wide dominion of the Kingdom of Christ.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the fact that during the year 1902 special work was inaugurated among the colored people of the South with Rev. J. P. Wragg, of Atlanta, Ga., appointed agent. Under his superintendence colporteurs have been sent out into a number of the Southern States to go from place to place and visit the negro at his cabin door with the Word of Life.

It is gratifying that your Committee reports an increase of more than thirty per cent. advance in the collections during this Conference year for this noble enterprise of the Church.

The total issues of the year, at home and abroad, amount to 1,723,791, an increase of 169,663 over those of last year. Of these, 1,686,755 were distributed in the United States, not counting the Phillippine Islands, and 1,037,036 in foreign lands This means an increase of 63,421 in the foreign field, and 106,242 in our own country. One-half of these issues were manufactured at the Bible House. Of the remainder a large part were printed in China, Japan, Siam, Syria and Turkey.

The total receipts from personal contributions the past year amounted to $109,658.36; from legacies, $115,892.24—showing an increase from both sources over the previous year of $21,950, which indicates a growing sentiment in behalf of this institution of the Church in the mind of the Christian public, the merit of which commends it to all.

Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee desires to emphasize the vital importance of the Christian Sabbath to the welfare of the individual, the nation and the Church. "Rest one day in seven or suffer," is written by God all through the material, mental, social and spiritual realms. History declares that it is fundamental to individual and national liberty and prosperity, as well as to the Christian life. "It is a holy pause that God may have time by his own touch to repair the waste and mischief wrought during six days, and exalt toward His own ideal." We should endeavor in every possible way to preserve God's holy day from becoming merely a holiday. "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy," is the law of Him whom we love and serve. If this holy day, set apart for rest and worship, is debased into a day of mere pleasure and often dissipation, our nation must soon totter and fall to its ruin. Surely the time has come when all Christian peoples should awaken to the danger which threatens us and pray and work for the preservation of the Lord's day. Let us both by precept and example discourage Sunday newspapers, trains, trade, excursions, and all manner of Sabbath desecration. We would respectfully urge all our pastors to preach at least once a year to all of their congregations on this subject. We note with pleasure the work and success of the Sunday League of America. We most heartily commend their work to our preachers and people.

W. M. POAGE,

R. A. ATKISSON.

Report on Committee on Publishing Interests.

DEAR BRETHREN: The Committee on Publishing Interests make the following report: THE FLORIDA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE has been regularly published since January, 1902, under the competent editorial direction of Rev. L. W. Moore. We feel sure his work has met with the almost universal appreciation of his increasing circle of readers. Difficulties incident to a new beginner and a new enterprise have been encountered, and for the most part have been disposed of. We feel safe in saying that the ADVOCATE is perfectly safe in the hands of its present editor, and that the enterprise is on a more solid base than ever before.

We unanimously nominate Rev. L. W. Moore for editor for the ensuing year.

The Chairman of this Committee has been designated to see that proper legal steps be taken with the Hill Printing Company to secure an enlargement of its duties.

W. J. CARPENTER, Chairman.

Report on District Conference Records.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, report as follows: We have very carefully examined all the District Conference Records, and note the following:

Tallahassee—A few mispelled words. In other respects the record is well kept.

Live Oak—Sessions not numbered. Does not state who were present. Reports one "union" Sunday School. Otherwise well kept.

Gainesville—The name of a lady appears as a delegate. A few erasures. Does not distinguish between delegates present and those absent. In other respects the record is well kept.

Orlando—First three pages of Minutes dated "1892," as printed, which should have been changed to "1902." There are some inaccuracies and omissions, also a want of neatness.

Jacksonville—Well kept and very neat.

Tampa—Well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Committee on Orphanage.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South:

Dear Brethren—We, your Committee on Orphanage interests beg to submit the followng report:

There are fourteen children from Florida in the Home in Macon, Ga. There has been reported for their care and support to this Committee $447.25, which is far too small for their needs and the ability of our people to supply.

We recommend the following persons: W. M. Boswell, W. D. McRae, J. L. Skipper, S. Scott, J S. Crandell, J. L. Yeats, and the pastor of Lakeland charge, to be elected by this Conference as a Board of Trustees to receive and hold any and all property and funds that may be obtained for this purpose; also, that Conference endorse the action of this Committee in accepting an offer from Lakeland, Fla., of eighty (80) acres of land and subscription of $1,500, if they shall make the aggregate not less than $3,000; and that this Conference assure your Committee support and co-operation in its efforts to develop and maintain this interest in the bounds of our Conference. Also, that this Committee be invested with full powers to act for this Conference in the interim of its annual meetings; provided, that no business shall be transacted by them without the approval of a majority of its members; provided, also, that neither the Conference nor any property shall be encumbered with debt, liens, etc., by any or all members of this Committee or any acting for them; provided, further, that this does not authorize the establishing of an Orphan's Home until the matter be acted on by our next annual session.

J. A. Hendry, Secretary.

Report of Trustees of Florida Seminary.

We therefore ask that this Conference appoint Rev. J. P. Hilburn agent for the Florida Seminary, at a salary of $1,200 and traveling expenses; and that he be authorized to raise not less than $25,000 for the above institution.

REPORTS.

Report of Joint Board of Finance, No. 1.

Dear Brethren: Your Joint Board of Finance submit their report No. 1, as follows:

We note with regret that our list of Conference claimants is growing much faster than our collection for that purpose. To illustrate: We have five families added to the roll of claimants at last Conference, and yet the fund for their support only increased $41.00 the past year. This as you know must of necessity cause a reduction in the appropriations for each claimant. We beg to assure every claimant on this fund that we share to the fullest their disappointment and regret when they see their pittance reduced yet smaller. You will note in the Secretary's report that we have increased the Conference asesssment $800.00, making the assessment $4,500.00 for the year 1904.

If any think this excessive let them remember that our list is made stil larger at this Conference and if we do not make a forward step yet greater suffering will come to those who look to the Church for help. When they ask us for bread we dare not say to them, "Depart and be ye fed." We call your attention to the resolution of the Conference requesting the pastors to take the collection for Conference Claimants and remit to Conference Treasurer early in the year. We hope that no pastor will be content with less than his full assessment. Obedience to this resolution on the part of the pastors will enable us to carry out your direction to make a 20 per cent quarterly payment to the claimants.

We have made the estimates for the claimants on the basis of the previous collections so as to save us from the embarrassment of a deficit in our annual settlement, but we hope to have sufficient surplus to make additional appropriation at our next annual meeting. We have had referred to us a communication from the Board of Tructees of the endowment fund for superannuated preachers and widows and orphans of deceased preachers. They request that this Conference renew its recommendation to presiding elders and pastors to promote the success of this effort and give prominence to the fund in District and Quarterly Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. HOWLAND, Chairman.

Report of Church Extension.

We are glad to note that the interest in Church Extension work is on the increase. And while this is true, the demands are greater than ever before. Our pople rae building, new territory is being occupied, and we are called upon to help build in these new places, and must do what we can to help them all. The collection on the assessment shows an increase of $148 over last year, while the assessment was not as large as the law of the church allows, and not in accordance with the rule that the General Conference has adopted governing the assesment for Church Extension, this will account for the larger assessment for the coming year.

B. F. MASON, Secretary.

Report on Books and Periodicals.

To the Bishop and members of the Florida Annual Conference:

We greatly rejoice in the increasing circulation of our literature This indicates a growing interest among our people in that class of religious literature which feeds the mind and heart and bears the fruits of intelligence and piety.

We are grateful that our Publishing House is growing in usefulness and is publishing and circulating an ever-increasing number of books and that the net gain of the House for the last year reached the sum of more than $36,000.

Our Sunday School literature is of the best and constantly improving. We urge all our preachers to read and circulate among their people the Christian Advocate, our general organ. It deserves a much larger circulation.

Our Methodist Quarterly Review and Epworth Era are worthy of very high praise and well suited to instruct and help our people. We trust these valuable publications will soon become self-supporting and find their way into thousands of homes.

We rejoice that our Conference organ, the Florida Christian Advocate, is growing in favor with our people. Rev. L. W. Moore has given us a most excellent paper, and we have just cause for thanksgiving to God. We hereby thank him and pray God's blessing upon him. We heartily commend to our preachers and people Rev. J. B. Ley, our new editor. We promise him our prayers and loyalty. Let us put our Advocate into as many homes of our people as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. BELL, Chairman.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That the money accruing to the Conference from the publisher of the Florida Christian Advocate, shall be appropriated by the Joint Board forthe beneficiaries not otherwise provided for by the law.

Resolved, Second, That in order to meet such payments that the pastors be requested to collect the assessments for this purpose as early in the year as possible.

Report of Conference Board of Missions.

In the early days of the Twentieth century when God is opening the gates of nations to the Gospel, blessing with material prosperity the Church at home, pouring out His spirit on His people, and calling their sons and daughters to his work, it becomes us to be obedient to the heavenly vision, and heed the urgent "Go Forward" of our Lord. We rejoice that our leaders in this great work of the world's evangelization are men whose strong faith in God, clear perception of the nature and need of the field, and confidence in the loyalty of the church, have prompted them to plan for an onward and larger movement of our missionary. We give thanks to God for the heroic band of missionaries at the front, for their faithful labors, and for the gracious results that have followed their work. One hundred and seventy-five men and women now represent us in the foreign field; and with these there are ninety-five native pastors and seventy native local preachers. Our membership numbers 12,906. These figures do not include the workers of the Woman's Board.

"Our foreign churches are not only increasing in membership, but in the efficiency of their organization, in the intelligence and earnestness of their work, and in the liberality of their contributions."

The increase in the church's contributions for missions is most encouraging. The collections on assessments during the past year were more than $$22,000.00 in advance of the preceding year. Eleven Annual Conferences, about seventy-five districts, and twenty-five hundred pastoral charges paid their assessments for foreign missions.

"Conditions now prevailing in the fields occupied by our church imperatively call for the enlargement of our forces and the better equipment of our work. In this age of enterprises the church must not attempt to conduct the greatest enterprise of any age upon plans that are manifestly inadequate. Our work must be worthy of the great gospel with which we are intrusted. Other and better buildings for schools and churches must be erected; colleges for the training of a native ministry must be established, equipped and endowed; facilities must be put in the hands of our faithful missionaries that will enable them to accomplish the best possible results."

This earnest appeal from our General Secretaries calls for a prompt and liberal response. What we perhaps most need is to inform ourselves and our people more fully concerning the facts of missions. A campaign of education on this line, beginning with the preachers and carried on in every church, Sunday School, League, and family will awake the church to its responsibility. Missionary meetings, sermons, prayers, and literature must all be employed to enlighten our vision, quicken our conscience and stimulate our offerings.

This year, appropriations have been made to one district and forty-four charges. Some of these have been in poor and sparsely settled sections; and but for the help afforded, these people would have gone without the gospel. While such works promise but little development, they must not be abandoned. Others are where the charge is not strong enough to support in full the pastor; but do what they can; and may, in time become self-supporting. Others are in growing sections, where we cannot wait for self support, but must occupy now or lose our opportunity; yet where there is large promise of growth and prospect in a few years of self support, most gratifying reports from some such charges encourage us in our policy. This year some of our missions have been blessed with great revivals and had a gratifying number added to the church. We note among these Carabelle, Lafayette, Taylor, Lake Butler, McClenny, Reddick, St. Matthews, Panama, DeLand, West Palm Beach, Tampa Heights, Port Tampa, Key West Memorial, and Sutherland. Carabelle, Liberty, St. Matthews, West Palm Beach, Brooksville, Lady Lake, Fort Pierce, Miami, Tampa Heights and Sarasota, noteworthy amounts have been raised to rebuild or repair. Nine out of forty paid salaries in full; and nineteen paid missionary assessments. Raised in the Conference for Foreign Missions, $3,873.93, on assessment, and $312 "Fletcher Special;" total, $4,185.93, being $14.07 short of assessment.. For domestic Missions $3,994.97, leaving a deficit of $205.03. Tallahassee District paid its assessment for both Foreign and Domestic Missions in full; Live Oak District overpaid both; and every charge of this district, save one,met its assessment. Of 119 pastoral charges, 49 paid in full and 28 overpaid; total, 77. Your board after close study of the field, and consultation raise $5,000 the coming year for Domestic Missions. We are confident with the presiding elders, deem it necessary to ask the Conference to raise less than this would cripple our work and hamper our missionrsaie. To do this we urge: (1) A systematic canvass in every charge for our excellent missionary paper, "Go Forward," and the distribution of missionary leaflets; (2) A missionary sermon and collection for missions in every congregation; (3) A monthly collection in every Sunday School for missions; (4) A contribution from every member; (5) Early collections and an earnest effort to raise the full assessment in every charge. May we come up to our next annual session with full hands and joyful hearts, and have as our reward the Master's "Well done."

HENRY E. PARTRIDGE, Secretryy.

Report of Sunday School Board.

Dear Father and Brethren:

Your Board is encouraged to believe that there is a constant growing, intelligent interest in the Sunday School work. One institute under the direction of the Board and instruction of Dr. Hamill has been held, namely, in Tampa during the month of March. While the attendance was small and mostly local, yet the interest was intense and enthusiasm great. We will arrange for one or two more for this year during April or May.

Children's Day was generally observed, as will be shown in the amount of the collections from each Sunday School.

As these services and collections are required by our discipline, we trust none of our pastors and superintendents will neglect to observe Children's Day on the Third Sunday in May.

We also urge upon superintendents and teachers the importance of organizing the Bible Teacher's Study Circle, for the better preparation of teachers to teach God's word to the children. Our literature is most excellent and constantly increasing in volume. All Sunday School literature should be ordered through our colporter.

We append the following statement from the General Board for the connection:

Number of Schools	14,425	gain	292
Officers and Teachers	104,650	gain	1,164

Board of Education.

The Board of Education of the Florida Annual Conference begs leave to submit the following report for the year 1903:

SCHOOLS—THE FLORIDA SEMINARY.

Considering the youth of our Florida Seminary, it has had phenomenal success, notwithstanding the difficulties that environed its establishment. The property is valued at $100,000. The building has been recently repainted, new furniture has been added, and $500 have been expended in scientific apparatus. There are now elevenprofessors, an increase of six during the present year. There were 227 pupils enrolled last year. The present attendance is twenty per cent increase over the same last year. In fact, there has been a great improvement along all lines. The spiritual condition and the discipline of the school are excellent. The commencement exercises last year were very fine, reflecting great credit upon both pupils and instructors.

EMORY COLLEGE.

The report of Emory College, made by Dr. J. E. Dickey, its president, shows a prosperous condition of that institution. The value of its property is valued at $175,000; its endowment, $222,000. There are seventeen professors, and 254 students, 30 of whom have been helped by the Loan Fund. We note with pleasure the improvement in the College plant, the enrichment of its curriculum, and the increase in the corps of instructors. We are glad to learn of the re-establishment and strengthening of the Law School Department. We heartily endorse the action of the authorities in withstanding the clamor for the introduction of inter-collegiate games, believing them to be demoralizing to the students, and subversion of the highest intellectual development. The gradual increase in the endowment fund furnishes ground for congratulation, and it is hoped that at no distant day it will be ample to provide for the entire support of the institution. The presence of Dr. J. E. Dickey, its president, at the sessions of our Conference is highly appreciated, his sermons and deliverances on Christian education being esteemed as benedictions to us.

WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are gratified at the excellent condition and hopeful outlook for the Wesleyan Female College, located at Macon, Ga., which is the joint property of the two Georgia Conferences and the Florida Conference. The property is valued at $285,000. The faculty consists of twenty-seven members, with an enrollment of 358 students the present year, with the prospect of a considerable increase before the close of the year. This child of Methodism and the mother of female colleges ought to be richly endowed and we hope that the heart of the church will be so burdened with the importance of female education that such will be the case within the not distant future. We also express our gratification for the presence and address of Hon. Dupont Guerry, its president, during our Conference session, and humbly trust God may bless him in the accomplishment of the high aims he has in view.

RUTH HARGROVE SEMINARY.

This school, situated at Key West, Fla., has an enrollment at the end of the first quarter of 196. It is doing good work among the Cubans, has a strong faculty, better equipped for the work than last year. Interest good, though not as good as it should be among the Methodists of the town. The Kindergarten department is growing slowly, but steadily, and will in time be one of the main features of the work. The music class is a splendid success. The grade work improving every week.

There is imperative need for a dormitory for boys. Bishop Candler has recommended another $5,000 building. The Home Mission Societies will take it up as soon as possible. Let the Methodists of Florida respond to the call when made.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We heartily endorse the aim of the General Board of Education in their efforts to build up a system of Christian education equal to the best system of secular schools and to place the Church schools upon a firm financial basis. We trust the Methodists of our State will enter heartily into the educational campaign suggested by this Board, provide adequate support for our own Conference school, and to co-operate in strengthening Christian education throughout the Church. We realize more and more the necessity of having an educated ministry. We are in full accord with the action of the last General Conference looking to the improvement of rural public schools of the South. The public schools have come to stay. We call upon our people and invoke the co-operation of all Christians, to see that the public school officers and teachers are God fearing and God loving men and women, to the end that education in the primary and secondary schools may be of the same Christian character as in the higher church schools we seek to establish, as the majority of our churches never enjoy the benefits of the Christian education given in the higher church schools. While we eschew the mixing of Church and State, still the members of our churches are citizens, and have the right to demand that all education shall be managed by officers and all tuition shall be given by those who love and fear God.

This board requests all our pastors to send to Dr. J. D. Hammond, Nashville, Tenn., the names of our members who teach in the public schools of this State.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

We again call attention to the Correspondence School established by our last General Conference, and endorsed by our own last annual Conference. We commend this school to our young ministers who have the opportunity of enjoying the advantages afforded by some of our church institutions. We respectfully recommend the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. S. W. Walker to be preisdent of the Florida Seminary, and Rev. J. A. Hendry to be agent of the Florida Seminary.

We recommend the adoption of the following:

SUSANNAH WESLEY MEMORIAL AT THE WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

Whereas, This Conference learns with great pleasure of the movement already begun by the Alumnae and Matriculates of Wesleyan Female college, to create a fund and erect therewith on her campus a useful and ornamental building as a memorial of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles Wesley; and

Whereas, In our opinion such an act on the part of said Alumnae and Matriculates would be a measure of justice to the mother of Methodism, and an act most graceful and beautiful in those noble ladies themselves; and

Whereas, The State of Georgia is distinguished as the American residence of the Wesleys and the original seat of Methodism on this continent; and

Whereas, Wesleyan Female College is the oldest chartered female college in the world and was th earliest great achievement of Methodism and of mankind in the higher and better education of womanhood.

Resolved, That this Conference most emphatically and cordially endorses said movement, and declares the opinion that the campus of Wesleyan Female College is the appropriate site for the proposed memorial;

Resolved, That this Conference appeals to all Methodists and all the friends of female education, to actively and heartily co-operate with these women in this woman's movement, to honor one of the noblest and most useful of their sex, and at the same time render that assistance to their beloved Alma Mater, that will at once make her second in usefulness and fame to no female college in the land.

Resolved further, That this Conference earnestly bespeaks for Hon. DuPont Guerry, president of the college, as spokesman in this great movement, a fair and friendly hearing wherever he may go, and an open-handed and open-hearted response.

We submit the following report of the Treasurer:

American Bible Society.

It is a recognized fact that the printed word of God is indispensable to the work of the world's evangelization.

In recognition of the magnificent work done by the American Bible Society in supplying this imperative need, our church has made it the duty of all our pastors, and rightfully so we think, to present the claims of every congregation.

We are pleased to be able to report that there has been considerable increase in the circulation of the Bible during the past year, about 270,000 more than the year previous, making a total circulation of nearly 2,000,000 volumes.

It is painful to note a falling off in the receipts of $74,000, in comparison with the year preceding.

Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., Field Agent of the American Bible Society for South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Alabama, conveys to us the very gratifying information that the Florida Conference, according to membership, contributed more to this great organization last year than any other in his district and it is hoped that this year's receipts will be larger than those of last year. In view of the importance of this work and the obligation upon us in regard to it, we submit the following resolution:

First. That we will urge upon our people the need of larger liberality to the work of the American Bible Society.

Second. That wherever practicable we will observe, with appropriate exercises, the Centennial of the organization of the British and Foreign Bible Society, whose organization, March 7, 1804, marks the beginning of systematic Bible distribution.

Respectfully submitted,

F. R. BRIDGES, Chairman.

Sabbath Observance.

Your committe desires to bring to your notice some of the violations of God's law pertaining to the keeping of the Sabbath day within the bounds of our conference.

We notice with regret and sorrow the encroachment on the sancity of the Sabbath by many branches of business that have heretofore abstained from opening their doors on this day, among which are numerous stores of merchandise, banks, bicycle shops, cool drink stands, venders of fruit and others, to say nothing of livery stables in their business, drug stores who dispense goods of every kind and endeavor to advertise special prices for the Sabbath.

There seems to be no notice taken by our civil officers to hold in check baseball playing, open saloons and so-called restaurants. We are compelled to admit that they are sadly on the increase, especially in our larger cities of population, so much so that the Sabbath can hardly be distinguished from the ordinary days of the week. Our corporations lend their aid by conveying to and fro the people at reduced rates tothe pleasure resorts. Societies go and come in uniform and brass bands to establish and organize in towns that attract our children and others from the Sunday Schools and church attendance, to the detriment of God's cause and the preaching of his word, to an extent than an alarm exists today.

Foreigners are coming into our State in hordes from their native hot-beds of vice demanding a disolution of our laws so they can follow without hinderance the laxaty of their own depraved tastes. In fact the world has been demanding a spirit of so-called liberty from every holy restraint, to the utter rejection of God's commands. If the word is considered by them at all it is only in an obsolete book and unworthy their perusal.

Anarchists, Atheists, Infidels, heathens, pagans, and some peculiar sects join hands to destroy the edict of God to keep this day holy.

We witness with great regret that many of our church members purchase commodities on the Sabbath that could be purchased on Saturday without inconvenience, such as groceries, meats, ice and bread, thereby bringing reproach on the church and its membehship. Many members and some preachers get their mail as regular on the Sabbath as on any day of the week.

We believe the time has come for the Children of God to retake their place in the administration of civil affairs. We have too long been waiting for better things, and have abandoned our rights of franchise to that class or those classes who seek only their own selfish ends or averice. We would urge every Christian man that has a regard for divine and civil law to let his vote be felt if not his voice be heard.

We rejoice in the signs of the times for better things. Silently and slowly the dominant spirit of the wicked is being curbed. The young men in three of our leading cities of Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West who have been elected to honorable positions, are enforcing the Sunday laws, and have compelled all saloons to close their doors on that day.

We would exhort our preachers to speak frequently and with emphasis upon this important subject.

We would exhort our people to refrain as far as possible from the custom of making the day one of common visiting or of engaging in anything that would render it unprofitable to the value of the soul.

Report of Committee on District Conference Records.

We, your committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to report as follows:

Tallahassee District—We note faulty orthography, poor penmanship, and the omission of some words. Blots deface some of the pages.

Live Oak District—In the minutes of the afternoon session of the second day the secretary speaks of the report on District Conference Records having been adopted, when he must have meant Quarterly Conference Records. Third day afternoon session we note an indefinite statement with regard th matter to be furnished to the Florida Christian Advocate. Otherwise, minutes full and satisfactory.

Jacksonville District—Record beautifully kept by Rev. J. E. Mickler, Secretary.

Gainesville District—Record very full and complete. Orthography a little faulty. A few erasures.

Orlando District—Record neatly and well kept by Rev. D. Lee Switzer, Secretary.

Orphanage.

We have now in the Orphans' Home in Macon, Ga., fourteen children, eleven of whom are under the age of ten years. We are in receipt of information from the Home, and through our Conference Treasurer, Rev. E. F. Ley, to the effect that in all there has been provided in cash and clothing for these children an amount aggregating less than $500.00; also the Superintendent of the Home informs us that for the fourteen children in his care $1,120 is necessary for their support. That is $80 per annum for each child. We recommend that every pastor be required to present the need of the orphan to his charge and take a colection for the South Georgia Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga.

Report of the Board of Trustees of the Florida Seminary, Located at Sutherland, Florida.

To the Bishop and Brothers of the Florida Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, in Session at Lake City, Florida, December 10, 1903.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We come to yo uat this session of the Conference with glad hearts. God has wonderfully blessed us since our last session, in fact far more than any of us contemplated. When we made our last report, the school had enrolled one hundred and fifty-four pupils. At commencement, in June last, the enrollment had reached two hundred and twenty-six.

The commencement was a great success in every way and would compare favorably with older and endowed institutions.

The following faculty has been elected and has been serving very acceptably: Rev. S. W. Walker, A. M., President; Rev. Grant Wheeler, Vice-President; Miss S. D. Griffin, Miss Laura McRae, Miss Annie Stillwell, Miss T. Rose, Miss Mary L. Hill, Miss Eunice Newton, Miss Lettie Lynch, Miss Elizabeth Slaughter, Mr. Miguel Ciero.

Our board met and elected Rev. J. P. Hilburn, President of the Board; Dr. W. C. Richardson, Vice-President; Rev. B. F. Mason, Secretary, and Hon. Don C. McMullen, Treasurer. Rev. I. S. Patterson was added to the Executive Committee.

The Board contemplates an advance movement. We need a building for recitation room and chapel. We expected to have said building in course of construction before this, but for good and sufficient reasons it has been delayed until after this session of the Annual Conference. We realize that this building must be constructed or we will lose patronage. We are glad to state that the building committee has plans by which they expec to go forward in the erection of the building, and we hope to have same ready for occupancy by the opening of the Fall term.

The vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. H. A. Hodges to Texas has been filled by the election of Rev. J. B. Ley.

The accounts of Rev. S. W. Walker, President, Rev. J. P. Hilburn, Financial Agent, and Rev. I. S. Patterson, Agent for Land and Attorney, have been examined and found correct.

(The President will make the reports in connection with this.)

We believe that the time has arrived when we should incorporate the School, therefore we respectfully ask this Conference to allow the Board of Trustees to incorporate.

We recommend that Rev. J. A. Hendry be appointed by the Bishop as the Financial Agent.

We also recommend that Col. L. E. Robertson be elected to fill the vacancy made vacant by the resignation of Hon. H. W. Long.

We also recommend that the Board of Education be requested to recommend Rev. S. W. Walker, A. M., as President of the Florida Seminary, to be appointed by the Bishop.

J. P. HILBURN, Pres.

B. F. MASON, Secretary.

Report of J. P. Hilburn, Financial Agent, Florida Seminary.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: At the request of the Board of Trustees and this Conference made during your last session, Bishop Smith appointed me Financial Agent of the Florida Seminary.

While reluctant to enter this untried field, in obedience o the will of my brethren, I immediately took up he task assigned me and have continued in season and out of season to the present hour.

During the month of February, Bishop Smith spent ten days in our bounds, preaching seven sermons on Christian Education. His efforts in behalf of our Florida Seminary have been of incalculable benefit to this important enterprise of our Church.

The members of the Conference have generally co-operated with me in this work and made possible the results achieved. I have not found much opposition in this work, but a great deal of indifference. I have not secured any large contributions, the largest being $200 but by pressing the work and gathering many small amounts in cash and subscription, have secured by the assistance of President Walker, $21,000.00. Of this amount I have collected in cash, $4,523.90, and Brother Walker has collected more than $1,000, which he has duly reported to the Board of Trustees. Traveling expenses for Bishop Smith and myself, and postage and stationery amount to $328.12. I have paid the Treasurer of the Board $3,823. 30, and I have in hand ready to turn over to him $238.29. In addition to these amounts more than $100, which I secured, has been sent to the Treasury by others.

I regret that my efforts have not yielded gerater visible results, but find comfort in the consciousness that I have done my best. I regret that the $25000, which you authorized me to collect has not been secured but am still hoping hoping for some larger donations which will more than cover the amount.

I thank God for sustaining grace and my brethren for their prayers and assistance.

J. P. HILBURN.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT—FLORIDA SEMINARY.

The first year of the Florida Seminary was eminently successful in attendance, work and finances.

We enrolled two hundred and twenty-six (226) pupils for the year, the highest number enrolled in any year in a Methodist school in Florida.

We met every financial obligation connected properly with the running expenses of the school, besides spending more than a thousand dollars on repairs, furnishing and equipment, from our board and tuition fund.

The work, last year, in many respects, was not what we desired, but we think, under all the circumstances, it was most successful

We suffered for room, lack of sufficient number of teachers to do the work satisfactorily, and for equipment in science.

The thing which alone justifies a religious school, religious atmosphere and power, was evidenced at Sutherland by the fact that every pupil porfessed faith in Christ before the June commencement. The morals of school compared in the beginning with the close justified us in believing the work was genuine work of grace.

Last year we opened with one hundred and nineteen (119) pupils. This year we opened with one hundred and twenty-seven (127). We now have at least twenty per cent larger attendance than at this time last year.

The work is at least fifty per cent more satisfactory in every way. Last year we opened with five teachers in the faculty. This year with eleven, and a faculty which, for efficiency, can not be excelled in the State.

We have added art and business departments under able management. We have placed new and extensive scientific apparatus in the department of science.

We have added five new pianos, two new typewriters, fifteen sets of furniture and various smaller equipment.

We have now an opportunity to build a great school which only comes to a Conference once in a generation, but to do the work and build as we have promise, not only must the Conference stand by us, but we must have the sympathy and financial help of all of our people to prepare for imperative needs. We must have at once a chapel, with recitation rooms; we must have money to furnish more rooms and make repairs which we are compelled to make. As we successfully build our patronage, we must prepare for the larger success.

S. W. WALKER.

Epworth Leaguers.

To the Bishop and Members of the Florida Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We, your committee, submit for your consideration this their annual report: We are glad to note that this has been a prosperous year in the history of the Epworth League. After years of strenuous struggle for recognition and support, the Epworth League now enters a wider field of usefulness and development. This struggle for recognition has been a repetition of the history of every advance movement. The work of the League is as vital in its relation to the church as the work of the Sunday School. If the Sunday School is the nursery of the Church, the League is its finishing school. Not only has this been a year of gratifying progress in our own Conference, but also a year of advancement in the whole church. The General Minutes show an increase of forty-nine chapters and two thousand four hundred and eighty members. The meetings have been marked by spirituality and intelligent zeal. Our Conferences have done much to enhance this interest, bringing together the best talent as well as stimulating the whole church by he ardor of our young people. We especially commend those presiding elders who have held League Conferences in their districts. The missionary spirit is also very manifest. The General Minutes show that not less than $20,000 were given last year to the cause of missions. The League Reading Course continues to secure a wide and well-merited interest. We especially commend to our Leagues the "Institute Series." This consists of brief treatises on church history, biography, doctrine, missions and kindred subjects. The books can be bought of the central office. The Epworth Era continues to sparkle with bright helpful thoughts. The Era is indispensable to the League. The deficit on the publication account has been greatly diminished, and the management hopes to put the Era on a paying basis next year. We would especially stress the need of raising "Ten Cent Assessment." This is hardly sufficient to cover the expenses of a very economic management.

Looking to a closer union between the Epworth League Board and the State Epworth League Conference, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It is earnestly desired that there be a closer co-operation between the Conference Epworth League Board and the State League Conference, therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Chairman of the Epworth League Board to meet with the Executive Committee of the State League Conference looking to closer co-operation.

Second, That the Secretary of this Board be requested to confer with the President of the State League Conference as to time and place of their meeting.

F. PASCO, Chairman.

Temperance Report.

Temperance, being a Christian grace in its broadest sense, means self-control. "He that ruleth his spirit is better than he that taketh a city." Our Lord says, "If I make you free, ye shall be free indeed." It is the purpose of our God that His people be not only masters of themselves, but of their situation, and that they be the freest, happiest and most and most blessed of mankind. May it be the one aim and purpose of our hearts to live up to our full privilege in Christ, thereby encouraging others to do the same.

But viewing this subject from the opposition to all intoxicants, there has never been a time when hearts that love the right should swell with gratitude more than now. The Captain of our salvation has and is leading us on to mighty conquest in the cause of temperance. Let us continue to praise and follow our Lord until He shall lead us on to such victory that the curse shall be no more among the nations of the earth. This evil is going and must go, and may God speed the day!

We are glad to note the fact that in our own fair State, twenty-five counties have voted dry, six of which have gone dry this year. As this curse is voted out, it is gratifying to note the decrease in crime and drunkenness, to say nothing of greater prosperity to legitimate business and temporal benefits to our people. Last year there were one hundred and thirty-two convicts sent to the State penitentiary; this year only ninety-seven.

The hope of continued and final victory lies largely in proper education; and it is also gratifying that the cause of Temperance is taken up so often in our Sunday School and Epworth League work.

May we ever continue to keep this subject prominently before our people.

We feel to commend those officers who have, in the face of great opposition, fearlessly and faithfully discharged their duties in advancing the cause of Temperance in our State.

And whereas, the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage encouraged and stimulated by the saloon, lays the foundation for financial, physical and moral ruin, for no quill, though plucked from Wingof Starless Midnight and dipped in the warm blood of millions of broken hearts, can write out the dark chapters of sin and crime caused by drink, and only the soul that has traversed the interminable depths of eternity can know the full results, for across the gates of the celestial city, it is written, "No drunkard can enter here."

And, whereas, the liquor interests as represented by the wholesale and retail dealers, array themselves against the home wherein there should be every thing that is dear to the heart, and upon which rests our welfare for the present and our hopes for the future, against the church, against humanity, against the religion of Lord Jesus Christ, therefore be it resolved:

1. That we reiterate the declarations of our church as contained in Discipline, page 93, paragraphs 214, 215, and 216, and urge our people and pastors to stand loyally by them.

2. That we are opposed to a dispensary system or any measures looking to a compromise with the saloon.

3. That we give our hearty endorsement to the Anti-Saloon League, and our encouragement to the W. C. T. U., and all efforts to advance the cause of Temperance.

4. That we urge our representatives in the National legislature to use their influence and votes to further the passage of the bill now pending before Congress to prohibit the granting of government license to sell liquors in prohibition territory.

5. That we urge our pastors to use only unfermented wine for communion purposes.

J. W. WHITE, Chairman.

MEMOIR

Rev. Eladio Diaz was born in Bejucal, Cuba, in the year 1863, and moved to Key West, Fla., while yet a young man. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, in 1890, and was admitted on trial into the Florida Conference in 1896.

His first appointment was as assistant pastor of the Ybor City and West Tampa Mission, where he labored from 1896 to 1899.

He then served in the same capacity, La Trinidad Cuban Church in Key West, for two years. For the following year the sphere of his labors was transferred to Cuba. He was then returned to Key West, where he closed his earthly toils April 7, 1903.

Our lamented brother was skeptical concerning the great truths of the Bible, and led a worldly life until he reached manhood's estate, when, at the age of 27 years he was converted in head and heart and life.

He was a modest, retiring man of great gentleness of spirit.

For several years he was in ill health, but with bodily weakness and infirmities he faithfully prosecuted his work, until called to exchange labor for reward.

In the conversion, holy living, and triumphant departure of Brother Diaz, we have our Lord's sanction of our work among our Cuban neighbors, and a clarion call to greater sacrifice and fidelity to the mission field that is nearest to us, and so white unto the harvest.

F. E. SHIPP,
Chairman Committee.
